Hereditary Liver Trouble,

ENLARGEMENT OF THE LIVER,

Diagnosed by the best Physicians, CURED.

GENTS:—My father died of Consumption of the Liver, many in my family have died with the same disease, and a large part of the time for the past two years I have been very sick, no appetite, bowels alternating between Constipation and Diarrhœa. Pains all over my body, and severe pains all through my Liver, So nervous I could not sleep nights, and in fact was much emaciated and run down. BETTER My Physician said I had Enlargement of the Liver,

The day before I commenced the use of SKODA'S REMEDIES, I had two different Physicians call upon me. People thought I must die. I had doctored so much and taken so many different kinds of patent medicines, without any benefit, that when SKODA'S DISCOVERY was brought to me, I threw away doctor's medicines, and THAN began its use. Soon I commenced to gain; my appetite increased; from being weak and feeble I began to grow stronger; bowels assumed a natural condition; sweet and refreshing sleep came to me nights; I began to increase rapidly in flesh.

I have now taken less than a full course (six bottles) of SKODA'S DISCOVERY, with SKODA'S LITTLE TABLETS, and to-day I am strong, am able to do my own work. In fact, am well and happy. The strongest statement I could make would not tell half your wonderful Remedies have done for me. COLD

Newsy Notes from New Perth.

Winter has laid his chilling hand upon us once more. During the past summer our people have not been idle. In addition to the newly erected cheese factory and silo at B R ad Mr R G McLaren has laid his magic hand upon his palatial residence. John Kennedy was successful in removing his dwelling house from the R R Station to its present site, a distance of 1½ miles. W C West has built an extension to his already comfortable residence and when our public hall is completed this will afford another attraction to one of the finest farming districts on the Island.

We are sorry to state that the tramp element has recently made itself felt. The home of one of our most respectable citizens was entered at midnight by one of this class, but in the early morning he was sent adrift for parts unknown. Another law abiding citizen, while on his way from Montague was assailed with a storm of oaths and abuse that would do ample justice to a Billingsgate rough. In justice to this place, however, we may state that they are not native here but are members of the floating population.

Prof. Geo B Gordon of Harvard University, a son of Capt. Gordon of this place, is at present on an ethnological expedition to British Honduras. He was asked to take charge of the engineering department as special representative of the college.

Messrs. Moar Bros have recently opened their newly built silo. The corn was in excellent condition. Other farmers in our neighborhood have already decided to follow their example during the season of '93.—COR.

The Poet Watson Insane.

LONDON, Dec 13—Poet William Watson, recently granted £200 for writing the best ode on Tennyson, and urged for the Laureateship, has become violently insane and placed in an asylum.

Large Hail Stones.

BRENHAM, Tex, Dec. 10—A number of hail stones were brought into town yesterday, which fell during the cyclone Tuesday. Although two days old they weighed more than a pound each and when they fell embedded themselves six inches in the ground. The hail penetrated roofs like cannon balls and a large amount of stock was killed.

Objected to the Opera Singer.

OTTAWA, Dec 2—A sensation has been caused in St Andrew's church congregation by the action of the pastor, Rev Mr Herriage, who refused last night to permit Karl Mora, a soloist of the Forresters Opera company, to sing at the evening service, though Mora had agreed to sing at the request of the organist of the church. It is expected that the organist will resign as a result of the difficulty.

Smelt Fishery a Bonanza.

MONCTON, December 11.—Smelt fishing is quite an important industry on the Miramichi. Small shipments are now being made to Montreal and Toronto, and heavier shipments will be made to the United States markets when colder weather sets in. The smelt fishery is a regular bonanza for the people, as in a good season two men will often make from twenty to eighty dollars in a single night, while an average season will leave forty thousand dollars among the people of this small fishery alone.

The Borden Case.

In the Borden murder trial it is alleged that with a single exception the grand jury were unanimous as to the guilt of the accused. It is said that a hatchet was found and submitted to the jury, the handle of which had been broken off and the blade cleaned with ashes. This is believed to be the weapon with which the deed was done. It is also said that a friend of Lizzie Borden's gave evidence before the grand jury which she had concealed at the inquest. This testimony was to the effect that Lizzie Borden had burned a wrapper in the kitchen stove on the Sunday following the murder.

Obituary.

Benj. T. Christie, the subject of this notice, died of brain fever in his home in New Glasgow, on Friday, the 9th inst., in the 22nd year of his age. He bore a very exemplary character where ever known, and was much loved by his friends and acquaintances.

He was a member of No. 3. Company 82nd Batt., Ch'town, but owing to the unfavorable travelling a firing party was unable to attend his funeral.

Last June he was in camp Brighton with the writer, and in all things showed his sterling worth, and his comrades all bore a strong affection for him. To his sorrowing relatives and friends they extend their heartfelt sympathy, and also desire to express their deep regret at their inability to attend his funeral. He was buried on Monday, 12th inst., followed to his last resting place by a large number of friends and acquaintances.—A. COMRADE.

Tennyson as a Religious Teacher

Let fools and sensualists say what they will, it is the glory of Browning and Tennyson that in an age which so much prurient literature has defiled with the empoised honey of French realism, they did not grope in the foul abysses of human degradation, but ever lifted their eyes to the true grandure of humanity crowned with spiritual fire.

The poets have made life brighter, happier, more hopeful to us by teaching us to see; and what to see, and how to see; by opening our minds to the true, our eyes to the beautiful; by opening our ears to the voices of the mountain and the sea; by quickening our sensibility to the sweet influences of the fields and of the ocean. A thousand things which we should have never noticed, in which we should never have read God's autographs of beauty and of blessing, Tennyson has now taught us to observe with delight and love—the black ashbuds in spring; the rosy plumelets which tuft the larch; the pure green streaks on the white leaves of the snowdrop; the gummy chestnut buds which glisten in the April blue; the sea wind singing shrill, chill with flakes of foam; the liquid azure bloom of the sea; the Pleiades glittering like fire-flies in a silver braid; the little pink five-beaded baby soles; the light feet which treading on the daisies makes the meadows rosy; the dragon-fly's sapphire flash of living light; the river sloping to plunge in cataract, shattering on black blocks its breath of thunder:

Myriads of rivulets hurrying through the land,
The moan of doves in immemorial elms
And murmur of innumerable bees.

—Archdeacon Farrar, in Review of Reviews.

LOADED WITH DIAMONDS.

The Sultan of Jahore to Visit the World's Fair.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—United States Consul Wildman has just arrived and tells of an Asiatic potentate who will soon visit this country loaded down with more diamonds than belong to any other ruler. It is the sultan of Jahore. The sultan is a personage of note. His claims to distinction are, first, that he is the only independent ruler in southern Asia, and, second, that he can decorate his person with more diamonds than any other person. His subjects number half a million and inhabit 13 000 square miles. When he strings $10,000,000 worth of diamonds from his shoulders. How he can afford to dress so extravagantly is explained by the manner in which the infant industries are fostered in Jahore. There are 2,000,000 Chinese in the kingdom, most of them addicted to the opium habit and each Chinese pays a tribute of $1 a month for the privilege of hitting the pipe. The gambling privileges of the kingdom yield his Majesty an income of

IN FULL REGALIA

$1 000,000 A YEAR ALSO.

The Sultan will visit Washington in person, attended by a train of princes and other dignitaries. The royal troupe of Malay dancing girls will be of the party. The royal party will be the guests of the country for four months. The Sultan is a remarkable old man according to the description given of him by Mr. Wildman. He is six feet tall, with a noble bearing and great executive ability, keeping his cabinet and the various interests of the kingdom well in his hand.

Holiness Convention.

BIDEFORD, Dec 12 1892—The Convention for the promotion of holiness recently held at Margate was a decided success in every respect. First day, morning session opened at 10 30 a m, Rev Elias Slackford President of Conf in charge. Brethern present, Revs Elias Slackford, Thos Hicks, J F Estey. The attendance fairly good. President Slackford delivered a profitable address based upon 1 Peter, 1 Chap 13, 17. Holiness, the key note of the Convention was clearly sounded in the President's first address. The best of all God set his seal upon the service, and all felt it was good to be present. Afternoon Session 2.30 p m. led by Rev J F Estey. A Bible reading was given by the leader, subject "the heart, its unrenewed, renewed and sanctified states." This was followed by a short pointed address by President Slackford urging all present to seek immediately the experience of a "clean heart," Psalms 51—15. Rev W J Kirby gave a short pungent address urging all to immediate and full consecration of all to God. Many responded and kneeling before God earnestly sought the baptism of the spirit.

Evening session opened with Rev. Wm. Maggs of Summerside, in charge. Rev. Elias Slackford led in prayer. After opening exercise Rev. Mr. Maggs preached a good carefully prepared sermon from 1 Corinthians, 6 Chap and 11 verse,—man by transgression is alienated from God. This is proved by the universal testimony of man, the word of God etc. He may be saved and renewed by divine grace. He is justified freely through grace in Christ Jesus. The distinction between justification, and sanctification, and entire sanctification scripturally defined and enforced. Bro. Kirby followed the sermon which was closely listened to with a powerful address and invited all who wished to be justified or sanctified wholly to seek at once. Several responded and knelt at the altar. The services of the second day were equally impressive. All the ministerial brethern offered prayer and gave short addresses, or pointed testimonials to the power of Christ to save to the uttermost. Many lay brethren and sisters offered prayers, some testified to the experience of heart purity, others told of their faith in God and of their earnest hungering after righteousness. When the invitation was given the altar was filled with seekers. At the afternoon session nearly the whole congregation gathered at the altar or knelt in the pews and consecrated themselves to the service of God anew. At the evening service Rev. Elias Slackford preached from Gal. 4, 19 verse, a profitable sermon to an attentive congregation.

A very solemn sacramental sermon was led by Rev. Wm. Maggs in which many partook of the emblems of the body and blood of the blessed Saviour. Afterward another service was held at which many sought pardon. The pastor, the Rev Thos Hicks was so encouraged that he resolved at once to go right on with special services. The unanimous opinion was that the convention was a grand success; that God had given his blessing upon the services; and that the church had been quickened more in those two day service than in, sometimes, the case after weeks of special effort.

Another convention for the promotion of holiness will (D. V) be held at Bideford in March next. Thanks were tendered to the Rev Thos. Hicks and wife and the people of Margate for their kindness and hospitality to all in attendance. Also to Mr. Unsworth, General Superintendent P. E. I. Railway for arranging to all attending the convention return tickets for one first class fare.

TIMELY SUGGESTIONS

—FOR—

Holiday Shoppers.

WHAT TO BUY.

It is impossible for us to any more than enumerate a few articles which are always right.

For Ladies—Any article in Fur Goods is always acceptable, also Gloves, Umbrellas, Scarfs, Handkerchiefs, Cloaks and Dresses.

For Children—Muffs, Collars, Caps, Sleigh Robes, Reefers, Cloaks, etc.

For Gentlemen—Neckties, Silk Handkerchiefs, Linen Handkerchiefs, Gloves in Kid, Buck, and Antelope, Lined and Unlined, also Fur Mitts and Gloves.

The high cost of a gift is not all that makes it valuable to the recipient. It is the selection that counts. Giving rightly is one of the fine arts.

Reasonable prices and right values rule regularly here all the year round.
