Modern Sun Worshipers.
In Europe several persons now sedulously pay homage to the sun, and in a learned journal, entitled L'Ecole Nouvelle, one of them maintains that the sun should be especially honored at Christmas.
"Christmas should be regarded as a festival for the benefit of humanity," he says. "In this way we can once more become united with the Aryans, our ancestors, who worshiped fire and who celebrated the birth of the divine constellation, who is the father of light, of heat and of life."
He then suggests that the following prayer be said daily:
"O thou who caustest lies to vanish, who drivest away the evil influence of prodigies, of malignant predictions, of dreams and of wicked apparitions—O thou who bringest to naught the plots of the wicked, to thee we pray, Lord Sun, since thou art the light of the world."

Polish Wedding Customs.
According to the Polish custom, the marriage ceremony usually occurs on a Sunday, this being done to permit the men to attend without losing any time from their employment, while the bride is supposed to maintain the greatest secrecy concerning her wedding until she is actually clad in her wedding garments of thin white and bridal veil. Then she goes from house to house, regardless of the conditions of the weather, and invites her friends to her wedding, which, of course, is paying them a very pretty compliment. Again, according to custom, and during the course of the reception, a china bowl is placed in the center of the table upon which the feast is spread, and each man whom the bride honors with a waltz understands that he is to throw with all his might and main a silver piece into this bowl, the idea being to break it, and the man who is so fortunate as to shatter the vessel is entitled to the farewell dance and a kiss from the bride. While the custom is curious it is none the less practical, as it is not an infrequent thing for the newly married couple to receive three or more hundred dollars at their wedding feast.

A Dog and a Song.
During one of the last birthday celebrations of the poet Whittier he was visited by a celebrated oratorio singer. The lady was asked to sing, and, seating herself at the piano, she began the beautiful ballad, "Robin Adair." She had hardly begun before Mr. Whittier's pet dog came into the room and, seating himself by her side, watched her as if fascinated, listening with a delight unusual in an animal. When she finished he came and put his paw very gravely into her hand and licked her cheek. "Robin takes that as a tribute to himself," said Mr. Whittier. "He also is Robin Adair." The dog, hearing his own name, evidently considered that he was the hero of the song. From that moment during the lady's visit he was her devoted attendant. He kept by her side when she was indoors and accompanied her when she went to walk. When she went away he carried her satchel in his mouth to the gate and watched her departure with every evidence of distress.

Sorry He Sued.
A stranger admitted below the bar of the British house of lords was required to deposit his umbrella with one of the attendants. The umbrella was not to be found afterward, and the owner brought an action in court to recover its value. He was successful and was awarded $5. But this was a violation of sanctuary which the lord chancellor would not tolerate. Summoning the plaintiff and his attorney to the bar of the house, he only refrained from committing them both to prison on their making a humble apology and refunding the amount they had gained.

The Small Grains.
A man recently made a fortune by picking out specks of gold from the heaps which the miners had cast up and abandoned. They were in search of nuggets and despised the smaller grains which rewarded their perseverance. And how frequently the richest findings of philosophy are in the commonplace incidents of life! In circumstances and places that seem wholly uncongenial to it, the poet's heavenly attuned ear discerns a sweet undertone of harmony which all the hurly burly of sin and misery cannot drown.

No Difference.
Young Criminal Lawyer—I have arranged to have the prisoner's wife and babies sit in front of the jury and weep all through the trial. Do you think it advisable to pick bachelors or married men for the jury?
Old Criminal Lawyer—Oh, it doesn't make a particle of difference. If bachelors they will sympathize with the woman and babies, and if married men they will sympathize with the prisoner.

Butler's Actress Wife.
General Butler deprived the stage of one of its great beauties and a most talented and popular actress. It is a bit of forgotten biography that he fell in love with Sally Hildreth when she was twenty-one years old and had been on the stage five years. She capitulated to the young lawyer and retired from the histrionic field.

Did Not Mean It.
"Honesty is the best policy," sapiently said the commuter.
"My dear sir, you're wrong!" exclaimed the suddenly awakened insurance agent who had been dozing in the opposite seat. "My company has the best policy. We long ago abandoned the other as out of date."

Showing the Way.
"Whose little boy is this, I wonder?" asked the old gentleman.
"There is two ways you could find out," said the small boy.
"How so, my son?"
"You might guess, or you might inquire," replied the small boy.

To Chime by Contrast.
Aunt—Your bride, my dear boy, is delightfully rich and all that, but I don't think she will make much of a beauty show at the altar.
Nephew—You don't, eh? Just wait till you see her with the bridesmaids that she has selected.

A Healer.
"Why, Sharpe, I'm glad to see you so lively again. You were quite lame when I last met you."
"Oh, yes, I was awfully lame then. But that was before I got a verdict of $5,000 against the railway company."

Dry Goods Prices VS Furniture Prices

Said the manager of one of Canada's largest Departmental stores, whose catalogue may be found all over our Province:—"I would say that during the last ten years we have sent to P. E. Island $50.00 worth of General Dry Goods, CARPETS, clothing etc. to every $1.00 worth of Furniture." If this Departmental store, sold $1.00—Worth of Furniture per month in P. E. I. they would in the same period sell $1,000.00 worth of Dry Goods.

Personally we believe that quality considered both Furniture and Dry Goods have been sold in the past at fair prices. Yet any dealer desiring to do so can easily get the names of dozens of families who for years have imported the bulk of their Dry Goods, Carpets, Clothing &c from Toronto.

We show the LARGEST STOCK of FURNITURE and CARPETS ever gathered together in this Province. And we can sell you goods at about the same price as some dealers (who are ignorant of Furniture values) have paid for their goods. This LARGE STOCK is open for inspection by the Public and we may add:—
