Morning Stock Letter

Special to Johnston & Ward. NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Following a strong opening yesterday in which a fairly broad list of stocks were in demand, the market tapered back into dullness when prices sagged. There was little inspiration in the day's news and perhaps favorable construction could be placed on the fact that it was nothing worse than a waiting attitude.

Italy Goes Aquatic. YOUTHS LEARN SWIMMING. (By Stewart Brown, United Press Staff Correspondent) ROME, Aug. 21.—(U.P.)—Italy, formerly a nation of non-swimming landlubbers, is being rapidly taught to swim. Nothing is more characteristic of Fascist Italy than the attention paid to sports, and especially swimming. Before Fascism few Italians knew how to swim well; now thousands of Italian boys under 10 swim expertly.
