

RAILWAY SHOULD BRING BACK ALL WHO WOULD COME.

TORONTO, Sept. 2.—The Globe says it has received numerous letters from the Ontario men who left the province two or three weeks ago to work in the western harvest fields. The letters are for the most part appeals to let the people of Ontario know that the labor market in the west is very likely over-stocked, and that much of the harvest work is being done by the farmers themselves while the harvesters from the east are in many cases hanging around the railway stations penniless and hungry.

A VALUABLE PRIZE CONTEST

The Guardian Has Secured the Right to Offer Subscribers a Bible Study Competition Without Cost to Competitors

The Charlottetown Guardian has secured the right to use the International Newspaper Bible Study Club Lessons each week for the term of one year, commencing with the lesson for August 23rd, 1908. But one paper in each town can use these. The Guardian takes pleasure in being able to present to its readers such a valuable help along the lines of Bible study. They will be published each week in the Morning Daily and the Rural Daily. Only paid-in-advance subscribers to either paper are eligible to join this club. There are no conditions other than those stated below. Everybody stands the same chance and has the same opportunity to get the valuable prizes without the investment of a cent. There is one condition that must in every case be complied with and that is, that every one entering the contest must be a regular subscriber as above.

GOLD AND SILVER MEDALS, BIBLES, BOOKS.

Persons may join the club at any time during the year, but must, of course, answer the 52 questions hereinafter explained, to qualify for the prizes. Sunday School teachers, Bible classes, and all who are interested in the questions be answered as the lessons are studied.

The International Newspaper Bible Study Club is for the purpose of promoting, in an unfettered way among the masses, a wider study of the Bible, the basal truths of Christianity, and the problems which enter into every man's life. It is composed of all those who join a Local Club, and take up the single course herein outlined, barring their own sympathies. Although with their sympathies fair to have them compete for the prizes, it is however desirable that the Class scholars, and church goers generally, may belong to this newspaper club, also non-churchgoers, of all shades of opinion. All such who have not joined are warmly invited to do so and compete for the prizes. The Guardian has secured the right to publish the International Sunday School Lesson questions by Rev. Dr. Linscott, D.D., which have aroused so much interest elsewhere, and they will appear weekly in the answers to the questions each week as they are answered in writing, and the answers to the prizes are to be awarded.

The Guardian is authorized to form a Local Newspaper Bible Study Club for its readers, and guarantees to all who join and fulfill the conditions, that everything here promised shall be faithfully carried out.

CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST.

- 1. Each contestant, or his or her family, must be a paid in advance subscriber to The Guardian, during the continuance of the contest, in order to qualify for membership in the International Newspaper Bible Study Club and the Local Club.
2. Each contestant in this Local Club must answer each of the written questions for 52 consecutive weeks, commencing for Sunday, August 23rd and the answers must all be in possession of this paper within two weeks of the close of this period, which allows two weeks grace after the close of the contest.
3. Each question must be answered separately, and the paper written on one side only. No answer must contain more than two hundred words and may be less. It will be a convenience if students will write their answers on letter paper, about 8 1/2 inches by 11 inches.
4. Each answer must have the name and address of the writer at the bottom of the answer, together with the date label of a current issue of The Guardian so it can be identified, giving a number, registered, and then the name will be cut off so the examiner may know it by number only.
5. Students should be careful to understand the question before answering. To do this the lesson text must be read and especially the verses or verses, upon which the question is based.
6. The answers from this Local Club must be delivered to The Guardian office, and they will be collected at the close of the contest and forwarded to headquarters for independent examination by competent examiners. The prizes will then be awarded according to the high number of marks, won by members of The International Newspaper Bible Study Club, and prizes which may be awarded to members of the local club will be given out from this office.

DEATH OF CAPT. JAS. RYAN.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 2.—Captain James Ryan, aged sixty-four years, died yesterday. He was born at P. E. I., and came here when quite a young man. He engaged in seafaring life, finally becoming one of the prominent master mariners out of this port. Nineteen years ago he purchased at Chatham the steamer St. Michael, in which considerable coast-wise trade was done. Two years ago he rebuilt and renamed the boat Merlingdone, by the farmers themselves while the harvesters from the east are in many cases hanging around the railway stations penniless and hungry.

In the death of James Bell, of White Sands, the community has sustained a great loss. In the Presbyterian Church, of which he was an active member, when in health, he will be sadly missed. His illness, which lasted about five months, was at times quite severe, but he had so far regained strength as to be able to drive to the harbor. He was again taken ill about a week ago and sank very rapidly. With him it is well, as his end was peace. He was the only surviving son of Wm. Bell, who died some years ago, and who was the first Postmaster in this part of the island. The relatives have the sympathy of the people of Murray Harbor. There are left to mourn besides Mrs. Bell, John and Robert, of Providence, R. I., Ernest, on the homestead; Mrs. David Glover, of White Sands, and Miss Maria Bell, now at home, besides a large circle of relatives and friends.

AFTER THE VACATION.

Now all my woes are overpast And I am satisfied at last, No more I fight the ardent fly, Nor gaze with discontented eye Upon the cypress and the pine; Nor do I take my fishing line And look for trout—without a bite— From five a. m. till eight at night.

I close my eyes: Once more I see That Salad which we had for tea, Stale lettuce, h m about to spoil, And drenched with some disgraceful oil. The butter and the tough old steak The soggy pie and fearful cake, These things I see and more than these Stewed prunes and indiarubber cheese

In peace my soul doth sweetly rest, Again I sit among the blest, Untortured by the frail ocean, Floating upon the water blue. Which others say are cold and wet When such a bark is overset; No more I'm told I look "Too 'vate" When in my crimson bathing suit. Today my meals will be, I wean Prepared by faithful Angelina, I shall not walk three miles to find Tobacco of the special kind Which suits my gentle temperament, Nor shall I list with art attend To hear the glad misquoties hum, Not rub the lumps with cool bay lum.

Nay, nay, I hear a gladsome song, The music of the trolley goong. Electric signs illumine the night, And soda fountains are in sight; To see the cop upon his beat, How grateful, how surprising, sweet I gladly grasp my fountain pen, Hurrah, I'm back at work again.

GERMANY IS STEALING A MARCH ON EUROPE.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—A despatch from Tangier to the Times complains that Germany is stealing a march on the other powers by secretly sending her consul to Fez, evidently the correspondent thinks, with the intention of being considered by Mulia Harid as the first power to recognize him, and to have a confidential advisor at the new Sultan's side.

RIVAL OF PATTI AND TETRAZZINI

BERLIN, Sept. 2.—Mme. Maria Labia, who has been engaged by Oscar Hammerstein, of New York, as one of next season's stars at the Manhattan Opera House, is regarded as one of the most interesting and sympathetic singers of modern Italian opera. An Italian herself, she combines all the grace and charm of her race in her own person. Her splendid voice has been brought to the highest pitch of perfection by the most careful training and scientific methods of production. It has the fine Italian ring and clearness so remarkable in the singing of Patti and Tetrazzini.
