SOURIS

A local name "Bill-fish" is being applied to a peculiar specimen caught here lately. A mackerel-like tall, body eel-shaped but resembling a herring in color, a head small in proportion to the fish which is about fourteen inches long, and a "bill" shaped mouth. What is it?

S. S. Dorin from Summerside loaded and sailed on Thursday, taking about 5000 bags of potatoes as part cargo.

S. S. Lovat sailed Thursday night on her second weekly trip to the Magdalen Islands.

Preventive R. C. M. P. Cutler, "Fleur de Lis" Capt. J. McCarthy, was in port on Sunday.

Initiation degrees at Souris Council, Knights of Columbus, were attended by a number of out of town visitors on Thursday.

Mr. James Grant and family have moved to the McIsaac farm at Souris River for the winter months.

Mr. J. Longergan, Charlottetown, was in Souris on Thursday.

A largely attended meeting was held in the Town Hall on Saturday.

Potato prices are on the move upward, so a somewhat livelier late shipping season may be expected.

The Souris branch, Catholic Women's League are forming a Sewing Circle to supply the needy of the town and vicinity with winter clothing. A depot has been established at the Convent where worn clothing may be left, and from there it will be properly distributed.

day night in an effort to organize the town laborers. After some discussion the Souris Laborers Protective Association was formed with W. J. Paquet, President; Warren Cheverie, Vice President; John D. McIntyre, Secy-Treasurer, and an executive committee composed of Messrs Howard Paquet, L. L. Cheverie, Edward Walsh, Angus LaVie, and Arthur Paquet. A by-laws committee was appointed to prepare a constitution to be presented at a regular meeting next Friday.

Some days ago a note appeared in this column stating that fishing in case had been tried before Magistrate Paquet and McLellan. This should have read "before Magistrate M. A. Paquet, prosecution by P. A. McLellan, Fishery Overseer." Error regretted!

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear husband, Aeneas J. Clarkin, who died December 14th, 1931.

One year has passed since that sad day When one we loved was called away Always so good, unselfish and kind Few on earth his equal we find. One of the best that God could send A loving husband right to the end.

To memory ever dear Inserted by his Wife and Children. 7091-12-14-11.

One of the cancer centres of Canada.

Toronto, Kingston and London were given the edge over Hamilton," he stated. "We can raise the money here if the government will only give us recognition. If they do not it will mean many thousands of dollars annually to cancer sufferers in this area, who will be forced to go to Toronto for treatment."
