The men were from several companies, Kensington, Long River, Post Hill and vicinity. This training is held prior to the annual camp. Major R. R. Ings was in charge of the shoot. In the evening a dinner was served at the Capt. G. L. P. Lowther and Capt. J. F. Morris were present at the banquet.

DEATH OF MRS. EDWARD W. HUGHSON—The death occurred at the New England Baptist Hospital, Boston, Mass., on May 18th of Mrs. Edward W. Hughson, of Malden. Death was due to complications following a serious operation. Mrs. Hughson, whose maiden name was Helen S. Linkletter, was the daughter of the late John and Catherine Linkletter. She was born at Linkletter Jan. 4th, 1870, but had lived at Malden for thirty-five years. During these years she had frequently visited the old home and will be kindly remembered by many friends here. There are left to mourn one son, Ralph L. Hughson, and one grandson, Edwin of Malden. One sister, Mrs. Henry Clark, and two brothers, Edgar and Brewer, of P. E. I., also one brother, C. P. Linkletter of Whitler, Cal. She was laid to rest beside her husband when deceased for three years ago.—S

Friends heard with regret of the passing in the Prince Edward Island Hospital on Thursday of Mrs. Arthur Gates, aged 70 years, who had been in failing health for the past four or five years and who has been a patient in the hospital for the past two weeks.

The late Mrs. Gates, who possessed a lovable disposition enjoyed a large circle of friends, who frequently visited her during her long illness. Members and minister of the Baptist Church, of which she was a devoted member, were also frequent visitors to her home. She leaves to mourn two sons, Mrs. Geo. L. Prowse, Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Arthur P. Irving, Winchester, Mass.; and Mrs. Wm. C. Davies, city, all of whom were at her bedside when she passed away.

Her husband predeceased her about six years ago.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon from her late residence 19 North Ave. and was largely attended. Services at the home and grave were conducted by Rev. H. L. Denton. Interment was in the People's Cemetery.

The pall bearers were: Messrs. W. A. Miller, J. F. Wheat, H. Callbeck, E. Sells, J. A. Webster and E. D. Nicholson.

ARCHDEACON STRICKEN SUDDENLY—His many friends will regret to learn that V.D. Archdeacon, C. De W. White, D.D., rector of St. Mary's and St. John's Anglican Parishes was taken ill while conducting the early morning service at St. Mary's Church, Summerside, yesterday morning. His condition was much improved last night. Mr. Andrew Pitcairn conducted the evening service at St. Mary's and Rev. Dr. Hunt held the service at St. Eleanor's. All will join in wishing the Archdeacon a quick recovery.

LAI D TO REST—The funeral services for the late William A. Ramsay were held on Saturday afternoon and very largely attended. The service was held in the United Church, Bedouque. Moyle, Fred Moyle and Arthur MacParlane and The Lord is My Shepherd. A large concourse of friends followed the funeral procession to North Bedouque cemetery where Bro. T. J. Inman and Bro. Alexander MacParlane conducted the service of the Orange Order, before the body was committed to the grave. The pallbearers were Messrs. Edward Gardner, W. T. Young, W. F. MacParlane, Daniel Noonan, H. F. Affleck and Calvin Lead.

The greatest experience of her life, Mrs. Induk Pak, a native of Korea, told a large congregation at Zion Church last night, was her conversion to Christianity while imprisoned in Korea 17 years ago during the height of the independence movement there. To people here it was more or less matter of fact that they to become Christians. "To us it is a privilege for which we must pay a price," Mrs. Pak said.

Mrs. Pak came here under the auspices of the Students' Christian Movement and in co-operation with the United Church of Canada and the Presbyterian Church of Canada. She spoke at the morning service last evening after the service at Zion addressed a meeting of young people in the Methodist Church. All three congregations heard the inspiring words of the distinguished speaker with great interest.

AT GYRO—Dr. E. C. Keeping gave an interesting address on "The Coronation trip at the weekly meeting of the Gyro Club last night. A new member, Mr. J. J. Connolly, was installed by District Deputy Governor, C. R. Tibert. Mr. F. Walter Hyndman was chairman.

On the thirteenth of last month there passed away at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Harold Huggen, six months old daughter of Clifford Myers and the late Mrs. Myers, Mount Albion. The latter dying at the P. E. Island hospital a few weeks after little Florence was born, the infant was taken by her aunt, Mrs. Huggen who lavished on it the wealth of a loving mother's tender nursing and care. But that dread disease, double pneumonia came, and sweet, pretty and lovable Florence Ann was called to go up yonder, and join her dear mother in the glorious Paradise of God.

After 25 years of suffering Mrs. Hannah Reid, wife of David Reid of Montague, P. E. I., passed away to eternal peace on Monday evening, May 19th, at her home on Queens Road, Mrs. Reid was the daughter of the late Stephen and Annie Squires of Clyde River and was born 58 years ago. During her long years of illness and in the midst of much pain, she manifested a wonderful courage and faith, and even her suffering never destroyed her cheerful spirit or marred her hospitable nature. She was always ready with a smile and a word of welcome for all who called upon her, and one always came away after visiting her feeling that she had shown a great example in bearing the cross.

DEATH OF MRS. MARGARET HUMPHREY—The death occurred on Thursday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Simmons, Wilmot, of Mrs. Margaret Humphrey, widow of the late Thomas Humphrey after a brief illness. Mrs. Humphrey was a native of Wilmot and lived all her life in Wilmot Valley where she was held in high esteem. She leaves to mourn two daughters, Mrs. Simmons and Mrs. Frank Curtis of Middleton; one sister Mrs. Robert Bowness of Kensington; and four brothers, Messrs. Henry and Walter Stavert, California; Mr. Arban Stavert of Kelvin, and Mr. John Stavert of Wilmot. Her husband predeceased her seven years ago. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon from the home of Mrs. Simmons and was largely attended. Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson conducted the service, assisted by Rev. Emerson Huestis, B. A., B. D., who also sang with much feeling "Face to Face." The pall bearers were Messrs. Clark MacQuarrie, Hartwell Condon, Edgar Sobey, J. W. Hogg, Fred Clark and Albert Hogg. Interment was in the cemetery at North Bedouque.—S

Another former Prince Edward Islander to pass away in Oakland on April 16, was Mrs. Margaret Ahart (MacDougall), says the Oakland Star. She was a native of McNell's Mills in the western part of the Island, her maiden name being Margaret Ingels. Her first husband was Isaac MacDoon, also a native of P. E. I. They had one daughter, Rena, now Mrs. Lagerquist, Oakland, with whom she lived for the past four years.

Mr. MacDougall died many years ago, after which his widow and her home in Sacramento until her marriage to Mr. Ahart, a business man of Mariposa County. Since the death of her late husband, Mrs. Ahart has resided with her daughter.

DIES FROM INJURIES—Joseph MacDonald, 29, of Seven Mile Bay, died in the Prince County Hospital last night from injuries received when he was thrown from his bicycle to the paved highway near his home on the afternoon of May 24th. He sustained an injured nose and broken jaw as well as other injuries. He was the son of the late Ronald MacDonald and Mrs. MacDoon of Seven Mile Bay. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

RENOVATION OF KIRK CHURCH—The Kirk Church at Summerside is being renovated. The building is being raised and put on a concrete foundation, new floors and new seats and other improvements are being undertaken and the outside is receiving a new coat of paint. The building is one of the oldest in Summerside and has a very historic background. It was built by the late Hon. Joseph Pope 120 years ago in the midst of much pain, she manifested a wonderful courage and faith, and even her suffering never destroyed her cheerful spirit or marred her hospitable nature. She was always ready with a smile and a word of welcome for all who called upon her, and one always came away after visiting her feeling that she had shown a great example in bearing the cross.

Dr. J. A. Clark, president of the Charlottetown Y.M.C.A. and Mrs. Clark were presented with a beautiful gift at the 81st annual meeting of the Association last night. A letter read from Mr. Alfred Pickard, vice-president, Judge H. Palmer, and Messrs. J. W. Boulter, W. A. Stewart, W. M. Rowe, Norville E. Luck and James E. Harris, members and directors, declared that "it has come to the attention of your fellow directors and members of the Y.M.C.A. that you have this year completed twenty-five years continuous service as a director of our institution and for the greater part of which you were its president."

On behalf of the citizens of Charlottetown interested in the Y.M.C.A., the gift, a beautiful clock, was presented as "a tangible expression of good-will and appreciation of your faithful services the true value of which only time can reveal."

DR. CLAYTON H. CROSBY SUCCEEDS—Dr. P. C. Crosby, of Melville, Sask., is visiting with his brothers, Mr. W. W. Crosby of Cornwall, and Mr. J. H. Crosby, Marshfield, after attending the graduation in medicine at McGill of his son Clayton H. Crosby. Clayton is a noted track and field athlete as well as an outstanding scholar and student. Having been a member of the McGill senior track and hockey teams for several seasons. He started with the McGill Redmen, winners of the international intercollegiate hockey championship of the past season. In scholastic circles he has been equally prominent. In the recent final examinations in medicine at McGill he annexed the Lieut. Governor's medal for highest standing in public health and preventive medicine, the Forsythe Prize for highest standing in surgery, and lead the final year in highest aggregate standing. Clayton won his B.Sc. degree at Saskatchewan University where he was equally prominent in track and hockey circles. He now enters on an internship at Montreal General Hospital.

A three-hour fire caused approximately $6,300 damage to the western section of Souris yesterday. The loss was partly covered by insurance.

A three-storey building in the Caleb Carion Estate and containing a general store operated by Lloyd Carion and the Masonry Hall was completely destroyed when ignited by a brush pile fire which broke out about 20 yards from the store shortly after one o'clock. Cause of the brush fire was not known.

Flames broke out in the residence of James Dunphy across the street and badly gutted the building before the fire was extinguished.

A barn owned by Adrian MacInnis a quarter of a mile from the scene was burned down when ignited by flying embers.

The Souris Creamery situated next to the Carion building was scorched.

At one time the whole town was believed in danger and a call for assistance was sent to the Charlottetown Fire Department for a pumper. A change in the wind directed on helped town firemen with control when the city apparatus arrived after a 50 mile drive.

Inspector James Friggs of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police assisted in directing efforts of volunteer fire fighters.

A "twister" which raged through the village of St. Louis and cut a two-mile swath eastward to Montrose in western Prince County yesterday caused damage estimated today to be in excess of $30,000. At least fifteen buildings were demolished and a score of others damaged.

Preston Clark, 25-year-old Alma farmer, was seriously injured when a barn in which he had taken refuge collapsed. Clark had an arm and a leg broken.

WEDNESDAY

CENTENARIAN DIES AT NEW HAVEN—Mrs. Ann Corrigan, New Haven centenarian, died yesterday. Before her marriage she was Miss Ann Cosello. She is survived by a son, John Corrigan, and two daughters all of New Haven. Her husband died nine years ago. The funeral will be held on Thursday morning.

At the St. Elizabeth Hospital Providence, R. I. on April 24th, 1937, there passed away to her eternal reward Miss Helen M. MacNeill, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah MacNeill, Crapaud, P. DIES IN VANCOUVER—Word has been received by Mr. Fred J. Haslam of Emerald of the death in Vancouver, on May 30th of his sister Elizabeth Emily, widow of the late Hugh Cameron. Mr. Haslam was on his way to visit his sister, but shortly after reaching the mainland, he received the news of her death. The late Mrs. Cameron leaves to mourn one daughter, Harriett, wife of Victor Mowat of Savona, B.C.; one sister, Mrs. Sidney Dawson of Winnipeg; and two other brothers, H.O. Haslam, K.C., M.L.A., of Clarendon, Alta.; and the Rev. P.J.E. Haslam of Bay du Vin, N.B.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the rectory on Tuesday evening, May 4th, at 7 o'clock, when Miss Gladys Mae Sudbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Sudbury, Spring Valley, was united in marriage to Mr. Leighton Ellsworth Harrington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Harrington, Spring Valley. Rev. P. J. E. Haslam, officiating clergyman. Mr. Harry Sudbury, brother of the bride, and Mrs. Alvin Sudbury attended the young couple. The bride was very lovely in a wedding dress of "Coronation blue" with hat and accessories to match. After a wedding supper at the home of the bride's parents the young couple left for their future home followed by the best wishes of their many friends.

ISLANDER IN B. C. CONTEST—One of the Conservative standard bearers in yesterday's election contest in British Columbia was Captain James Fitzsimmons, a Caslo-Slocan, who also represented that riding for the Conservative Party from 1920 to 1924. He ran as an independent candidate in the 1933 provincial election and was defeated. A navigator on Kootenay Lakes steamships for thirty-eight years until his superannuation in 1935, Captain Fitzsimmons is a native of Waterville, Prince Edward Island. Before he came to British Columbia he was in the employ of the Charlottetown Steam Navigation Company. He is a brother of Mr. Patrick Fitzsimmons, Charlottetown, and Mrs. Margaret Hayes and Mrs. John Grimes, Waterville.

For the second time in two days an electrical storm passed over Prince Edward Island yesterday and the province which had been hovering around a 90 degree mark began to drop somewhat last night.

No damage was reported from Monday's storm which struck the province almost the same time as yesterday's.

Yesterday, however, a bolt of lightning struck a barn owned by Prosper Arsenault at Howland, 20 miles from O'Leary, which burned to the ground. Damage was estimated at $1,000 with no insurance.

Telephone communication in various sections of the province was disrupted for a time with slight damage while no reports were received of power lines being damaged.

Heavy hail accompanied the storm in some sections and caused damage to crops. From four to six inches of rain was recorded in some places.

C. W. L. MEETS—The regular monthly meeting of the Charlottetown C. W. L. was held Tuesday in the Business Girls' Hall with the President, Mrs. Frank Walker, in the chair. The meeting opened with prayer, after which the minutes of last monthly meeting were read and approved. The treasurer's report was read and showed a satisfactory balance after the amounts for prizes and different institutions had been voted. The corresponding secretary read a letter from Father Sharkey re Chinese Missions. This matter was discussed and left to the Executive President for a decision. After other routine business had been transacted, the meeting adjourned for the summer months.

Rev. Nazaire Poirier, formerly of the faculty of St. Dunstan's University and recently appointed to Mount Carmel Parish, P. E. I., yesterday celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood at a special Mass in the Chapel of St. Dunstan's College.

Thirty priests of Charlottetown Deanery, the faculty of the college and His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan, joined in congratulating Father Poirier at a dinner following the Mass, which was given by the Rector and Faculty of the college.

Word has been received by Mrs. Hannah McEwen, St. Ann's, of the death of her sister, Mrs. John Stewart (nee Maggie McInnis) at Rosslandale, Mass. on May 6.

Mrs. Stewart, a former resident of Winsloe North, had resided for the past twenty-five years in the United States.

Six brothers and five sisters predeceased her some years ago. She leaves to mourn, her husband, John Stewart, and five children; also one sister, Mrs. Hannah McEwen, the last surviving member of the McInnis family.

Her funeral, which was held in Rosslandale, was largely attended, bearing testimony of the esteem in which the deceased was held.

BRILLIANT PIANIST WINS AGAIN—For the third consecutive time Ivan M. Gillis, L.T.C.L., young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gillis, Halifax, was the successful candidate, against strong competition, for the J. W. Gabriel and Sons' trophy for piano playing at the musical festival held recently by the Halifax Conservatory of Music. The adjudicator, commenting on Ivan's work, said: "His playing of 'Romance in F sharp Major' by Schumann, and 'Valse in D flat' by Chopin, was poetic and extremely clear, and indicative of most conscientious work." Ivan is the proud owner of the beautiful trophy and is being heartily congratulated. — (Patriot press copy).

Friends throughout the city learned with regret of the passing of Mr. Geo. H. M. Carver of Pownal, whose death occurred at his home Monday after a prolonged illness.

Well known for many years as the proprietor of the Forester House in that thriving village, the late Mr. Carver also conducted a grocery and saddlery store.

His hospitality was a well conducted and popular resort for summer visitors who at all times were made welcome by Mr. Carver and his amiable wife.

Many members of the Militia, particularly the P. E. Island Light Horse will remember his many acts of kindness and consideration while he was in charge of the commissary department, which position he held for a number of years.

Of a kind and pleasing disposition the late Mr. George Carver enjoyed a large circle of friends who will mourn his passing.

To his bereaved wife and daughter, Mrs. J. Herman, the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

Establishment of cottage colonies coming by sea coast and rural atmosphere was one of the best opportunities for Prince Edward Island to get into the paying tourist business. Mr. D. Leo Dolan, Chief of the Canadian Travel Bureau, Ottawa, said last night. Such colonies would provide business men a rest vacation and a new outlet of the city which for the remainder of the year they experienced, the tourist official believed. Visitors would return to such places year after year as they do to similar establishments in Maine.
