Good-Night Mother!
Good-Night Father!

How happy you felt when you spoke this in your childhood! makes you think of "Here I lay me down to sleep" and how the "Sand Man" came.

Can you picture yourself without a mother, without a father to watch over you.

No mother to pet you and nourish you no Daddy to watch for every evening, no one of your own to give you that start in Life that Character development, so essential to straight living.

Consider, then those many little ones right beside you in Charlottetown whose only homes are these Orphanages without their own Mothers and Fathers, but fortunately cared for spiritually and physically by generous and kindly people whose whole aim is to supply as far as is humanely possible that affection which is as food to the young, that early training which is as the supports in the garden round which the young vines twist and upward stoutly grow.
