The Williston Weekly State published in Williston, N. D., says, "The beautiful new Catholic rectory into which Rev. Father Arsenault has moved is a distinct credit to the city. The State compliments Williston as much as it congratulates the parish and the priest upon the evidence offered by the new rectory. The priest referred to is a brother of A. E. Arsenault, M. P. P. Summerside.

On Monday Hypolite and Mrs. Arsenault, Summerside, celebrated the 60th anniversary of their marriage. Mr. Arsenault is 84 years of age. His wife 82. Both are natives of Mount Carmel, Lot 15, and were married in Egmont Bay by Rev. Father Perry of the same county. Five children were born to them. Twenty-seven grand children and two great grand children also survive.

The marriage took place at the home of the bride last evening at seven o'clock of Miss Evelyn M., eldest daughter of Isaac and Mrs. Lowther, Kensington, to J. Herbert Hogg, of the same place. Rev. J. B. Gough officiated in the presence of about fifty invited guests. As Mrs. Minnie McPhee, a cousin, sweetly played Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the bride entered the parlor, leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away. The bride was prettily attired in cream tulle, with veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of lilies and maiden hair fern. She was attended by her sister, Miss Carrie, who wore white mill, with pink ribbon trimmings. The groom was supported by his brother George, Summerside, and Stewart, Summerside. The happy couple had received congratulations, subject was served and an evening of rare enjoyment spent, after which the young couple drove to their future home about a half mile distant. The Guardian extends congratulations.

Statistics in Medicine Old Remedies Retain Their Popularity

Investigations of French Physicians Show That Large Production of Synthetic Medicines is Not Crowding Out the Old Favorites.

A late despatch from Paris says, Prof. Grimber, presented a notable paper before the Academy of Medicine on therapeutic tendencies in the last ten years. Basing his figures on medicines furnished to 219 large asylums and hospitals by the State pharmacy, he finds that the old-fashioned medicines retain their popularity.

An expert authority on being interviewed states that the tendencies of the medical profession in Canada are exactly the same lines. He gives the following old-fashioned vegetable mixture as the safest and best treatment for all stomach and liver troubles, constipation, disorder of the kidneys and bladder, and states that many of the leading physicians use these ingredients in some form, often by some fancy and expensive name: Fluid Extract Cascara 1 oz, Syrup Rhubarb 1 oz, Carriana Compound 1 oz, compound Syrup Sarsaparilla 5 oz. Take one teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime. This acts in a pleasant way, and is free from the bad effects of strong purgatives and synthetics. We advise all our readers to cut this valuable formula out and use it. Any druggist can supply these ingredients at a small expense. You can mix them at home if you prefer.
