STUDY GROUP. On the evening of November the first the teachers from Craignud, Victoria, Lady Fane, Westmorland, Cape Traverse, Tryon, and North Tryon met in Tryon School to organize a Study Group. The inspector, Mr. Jas. Murphy acted as chairman and the following officers were appointed; President, Miss Adelaide Ives; Vice-President, Mr. Malcolm MacKenzie; Recording Secretary, Miss Rita Tomber; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Winnie Best; Entertainment Committee, Mr. Charlie Howatt; Miss Clements and Miss Jennie Muttart. Mr. Murphy then gave a very interesting talk on "Assignment of Lessons", after which the teachers freely discussed any difficulties which they found in school work. Each teacher is asked to bring a copy of his or her time table and also a lesson plan on the teaching of the adverb to the next meeting which is to be held on Nov. 30th in Tryon School.

GRiffin-McGarry. A wedding of much interest to their many friends took place on Oct. 17th at St. Michael's Church, Iona, when Mr. Monaghan Griffin tied the knot with Miss Mary McGarry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McGarry. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Duffy. The bride wore a pretty dress of navy blue georgette with coat of fawn velvet trimmed with fox fur. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Sadie who was also dressed in blue. The groom was supported by Mr. John Farrow. After motoring through the country they returned in the evening to the home of the bride where upwards of 150 guests were assembled to celebrate the happy event. The presents received were costly and numerous testifying to the popularity of the young couple. Dancing and music were indulged in till the wee small hours when all present departed to their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Griffin many years of wedded bliss. PreVIOUS to the marriage the bride was tendered several showers by her girl friends. (congratulations.)

AUGUSTINE COVE AND VICINITY. Miss Lillian Milligan, and John Bruce, Augustine Cove, were visitors to Cape Traverse the guests of her sister Mrs. Albert Bertha Thompson, Augustine Cove, returning Monday evening. Miss Bertha Thompson, spending a short visit in Tryon, the guest of Ernest and Mrs. Thompson. The Messrs. George Dawson, Mike and Amos, and Johnnie Peters, Augustine Cove, motored to the city this week. Mrs. Minnie Bruce, and four sons, John Archie, George and James, returned to their home in New Haven this week, after spending the fall in Augustine Cove. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Peters and little son Ralph, moved to Freetown where they intend spending the winter. Little Miss Eleanor Cameron, daughter of Richie and Mrs. Cameron, Augustine Cove, is slowly improving after her recent illness. The people of this vicinity are sorry to learn of the serious illness of Miss Bessie Thompson, Tryon. Her improvement is very slow.

SACRED ENTERTAINMENT. At Kingston Baptist Church, November the fourth, instead of the regular church service a sacred pageant and musical program was presented to an overcrowded church. The pageant portrayed the story of a discouraged and neglected church longing for its different organizations and helpers to awaken and realize their responsibilities. Sacred music was played as each character approached one by one bringing their gifts and pledges presented in an earnest manner which could not fail to impress the spiritual lesson upon the audience. This lesson was further emphasized by the pastor, Rev. W. E. MacWalker during his brief but very helpful and encouraging address. During the services, solos were beautifully rendered by Mrs. Leigh Warren, Charlottetown and Miss Feta Crews, Kingston accompanied by Mrs. Everett Holmes, the capable organist. Mr. George Green, Miss May Green and Miss Lulu Younker kindly assisted in the choruses. The members of the church are very grateful to Mr. Golding Barrett who designed the beautiful banner and badges which made the costumes and scenery of pageant, more artistic and effective. LETTER OF SYMPATHY

To Eriskine Champion, Stanchel. Dear Brother—We, the members of Bunyan S. O. L. No. 1154, wish to convey to you our heartfelt sympathy in the loss you have sustained by the death of your dear mother. We feel it is impossible to express in any words of ours, the deep feeling of bereavement and the sincere desire evidenced for your comfort and welfare. We therefore have fellowship with you, also all other members of the family in your loneliness, yet we know that any sorrow we feel is incomparable to that felt by those upon whom bestowed.

She will be sadly missed in the home by all but we unite with you in thanksgiving to God for the blessed faith and hope, and we pray that her memory will be a continual encouragement to you in seeking strength and guidance from the Promises of God.

Signed on behalf of the Lodge: Dan. M. Todd, W. M.; Roy Cameron, D. M.; Alex. Acken, E. S.

FAREWELL PRESENTATION

North Pinette, Oct. 12, 1928. North Pinette Institute presented to Mrs. Mabel MacEachern, Roseberry, with the following address: Mrs. MacEachern will be missed very much in the club, of which she was a very valuable worker. Mrs. Mabel MacEachern, Roseberry.

Dear Mabel:— We have learned with great regret of your intention to resign your office as Secretary of our Institute and wish to express in some degree the esteem and love with which we regard you. Not only will we miss you, but the Church, Sunday School and Choir also will miss one who was always willing to give of her time and talent to any good cause for the betterment of the community in which she lived. We do not say adieu, but hope to see you, if it is the Divine will, back among us before long.

Our good wishes will go with you, wherever you may go. With a deep sense of your many acts of kindness we ask you to accept this small gift as a token of our esteem, for yourself, and our gratitude for your labour in our Institute. Signed in behalf of the Institute, Mrs. J. E. MacEae, Mrs. Charles N. Morrison.
