

Say It
 If your doctor says this is all right, then say it over and over again.

Established 1868
P. E. Island's Oldest Jewelry Store

IN STERLING SPOONS
 We can show you as pretty an assortment as you will find anywhere at prices from 75c to always a pleasure to show goods at

WELLNER'S Jewelry Store

Have your photos taken in all the leading styles at COOK'S Best facilities for family groups. Films developed at lowest prices. Studio, DesBrisay Block Charlottetown.

Try us for Cameras and Supplies
 All goods guaranteed Stock New and up-to-date Our prices are right Inspection invited

GEO. E. HUGHES,
 Apothecaries Hall.

Eatable Brad
 Crisp, brown and well cooked
Home-Made Loaves
 White or Brown.
Cameron's Grocery
 Upper Pownal St.
 S-23dmwfm

Boys Boots
 This is the time of year you want a good boot for that boy of yours. We claim to have the best boys in the city. We make a specialty of boys' boots. Our prices are lower than the lowest. Our leader—Box Calf Solid Size 1 to $1.50 a pair, no better in any Store for Two Dollars!

A. E. McEACHEN
 The Shoeman
 dmswfm

WARM Weather is here! You will need more FRUIT. Oranges, Bananas, Pine Apples, in excellent order and price moderate at

McKENNA'S
 Both Stores.
 S-23dmwfm

I have a nice line of silverware, clocks, watches, jewelry, etc., suitable for wedding presents, that I am offering at the very lowest prices.

C. W. Patterson

Music Card
 Miss Gladys Peake Halifax Conservatory of Music, will give instruction in Piano-forte, Violin, and Music, Harmony and History of Music.
 Address: 10 Tavilend Street, Halifax.

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN
 Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

Miss Ada McPherson of Newton, Mass., is visiting her parents in this City.

The tide will be high this morning at 9.17 and tomorrow morning at 10.17.

Mrs. Dean, city, spent Labor Day with her brother Mr. Lord of Cape Traverse.

Miss Myrtle Egan, Pownal, spent Sunday in Village Green the guest of Miss Lona Gay.

Mrs. Rev. I. Murray Mellich is spending the week at York the guest of Robert and Mrs. Vesey.

Warren Lord, who is attending C. S. C. city, spent Labor Day with his parents in Cape Traverse.

Alphonse Corrigan, Village Green, is adding a large kitchen to his already commodious dwelling house.

Miss Eva Horton, Village Green, has returned to her home after a pleasant holiday in Village Green.

Mrs. G. R. White of Charlottetown and her niece Miss Fowles are visiting Mrs. B. C. Shaw of Sydney, C.B.

Any girl desiring to learn and news setting should apply at this office at once. A good chance for the right girl.

Miss Catherine Boyer, Banbury, left yesterday morning to resume her studies in the McDonald College, St. Anne DeBellevue.

Miss Alva Gillespie who has been visiting in Montague, the guest of Mrs. Ewen Gillespie, returned to the city Monday night.

York and Union schools have reopened for the year under the direction of Vernon Crockett and Mrs. Jas. Henderson respectively.

Miss Eva Horton, Village Green, has returned home after a pleasant trip to New Perth where she was the guest of Wm. and Mrs. McIntyre.

W. A. and G. E. Sherrard and sister Miss Iva, who have been visiting friends in the city left yesterday morning for their home in Dorchester, N. B.

Rev. G. I. Steel will conduct services in the Margate Methodist churches next Sabbath and the pastor of the Margate church will supply for Rev. Henry Pierce, Granville.

Prince Street School re-opens today, West Kent Street School opened yesterday morning with 320 pupils present a large attendance for opening day. There were 274 at Queen Square.

The Sunday School at Union, Lot 33, under the direction of its popular superintendent Jas. Essery continues to be well attended. Mrs. George Abbott's juvenile class is certainly an ideal one.

Among the outward passengers from this city yesterday were Miss Bartlett City to Toronto; Miss Gwen Bell to Guelph, Ont.; Wm. Rankin, Mrs. Rankin and daughter returning to Perth Amboy, N. J.

J. A. McDonald and Henry Hughes, who have been absent in British Columbia for a year, returned to their home in Tracadie last week. They intend remaining home, as they believe P. E. Island is the best place for men of energy.

Among the passengers leaving Tracadie yesterday were—Misses Janie and Maggie Beaton to Roxbury, Mass; Misses Tillie and Mary McAskill to Worcester, Mass; Thomas Smith and Joseph Sheeran to Berlin, N.H.; Miss Mary McDougall to Chelsea, Mass; and Miss McDonald to Boston.

Isaac P. McCoubrey, upholsterer in the P. E. I. Railway returned yesterday evening from a fishing tour at the Wheatley River having with him the finest specimen of the finny tribe. The Guardian has ever seen. When The Guardian correspondent saw him, Mr. McCoubrey was busy measuring and weighing the trout, a report of which will appear to-morrow.

Quite an experience happened two young ladies on the western express Saturday a. m. While about 2 miles from North Wiltshire one of the girls holding tickets in her purse accidentally let it slip through her fingers between the cars. They got off the train at North Wiltshire and walked the track, fortunately found the purse and tickets out sad to relate were too late to leave the Island that day.

Amos C. and Mrs. Cutter, of Malden, Mass., who have been visiting for the past few weeks at the home of Mrs. Cutter's uncle, Neill and Duncan McNeill, Fairview, left last week on return home. Mr. and Mrs. Cutter also spent a couple of weeks at Hunter River, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Benjamin Andrews. Mr. Cutter, who is an American has never visited the Island before, and he expresses himself as highly pleased with the province.

Strong complaints have been made at The Guardian about the actions of some young men, who ought to know better, who attack those driving in the vicinity of Blooming Point, at night. It is stated that several young ladies and gentlemen were assailed on Wednesday night of last week and one young man was severely injured by a stone thrown by one of the young hoodlums. The orderly people of that community are determined not to tolerate any more of such rowdism.

The Island Condition Powder is always to the front, when it comes to getting stock in good healthy condition. Farmers and horsemen everywhere recommend it highly—Prepared and sold only by A. W. Reddin, Fern B., Sunnyside.

James Pickering, Clinton, was a passenger from the city east yesterday.

Rev. D. B. McLeod, Orwell, was in the city yesterday and returned home.

Edwin Doyle, Earncliffe, is taking a course at St. Dunstan's College this term.

Anybody wanting a boy 16 years for outside work should read classified column.

Anyone wishing children's sewing or skirt-waist suits made should read the classified column.

Frederick Walker Ings left this city yesterday morning for St. John to attend Rotherham College.

Miss Elsie Henderson has returned to her home at Union, Lot 33, after an extended visit to Lot 48.

Mrs. C. H. Dingwell, City and son left yesterday morning for Ottawa on a visit to her sister.

H. I. Wood, Manager of the I.C.S. in this city was a passenger to Souris yesterday for a few days.

Mrs. Ernest McMillan, Boston, is visiting her old home at Union Lot 33. Mr. McMillan is at present prospecting in Alberta.

An oak bureau and washstand also some stair carpet which may be seen at A. Horne & Co's is for sale. See ad.

Miss Jennie Whitehead, Clinton, accompanied by her brother-in-law, Ira Walker of Wilnot, left for Lacombe, B. C., last week.

The last issue of the Canadian Pictorial contains a number of cuts from photos excellently taken by W. S. Louison, City.

W. H. McGregor, Central, Lot 16, and Clinton Campbell of Arizona arrived home Saturday after taking in the Halifax Exhibition.

Miss Melinda McMillan, who has been spending her holidays at her old home in Alberry Plain, has returned to her school in Philadelphia.

James Jenkins and Joseph Nicholson, Orwell Cove, and Leonard and Mrs. Wood, Lot 48, spent a pleasant holiday in Earncliffe this week.

Dr. Walsh, Mt. Stewart, Charles Anderson, Souris; John P. Morris, Donaldston, Alfred O'Hemley, St. Peters and Leonard Court, Donaldston were in the city yesterday.

Tyler Warren of North Rustico, who was Principal of Montague School last year, left yesterday morning for Des Moines, Iowa, where he will take a course in theology in Drake University.

Rev. E. Bell preached most acceptably to a large congregation in York Methodist Church Sunday evening last, choosing for his text Heb. 4-16. This is Mr. Bell's first year in York and he has already made a very good impression.

The plan for improvement at York parsonage submitted by Rev. E. Bell has been carried out under the direction of the energetic contractor Joseph Brown. Needless to say the improvements spell comfort, especially during the winter months.

The will of the late John McPhall has been pronounced. He bequeathed his wife the four tenement house on Prince Street. He said that "with regard to the balance of his estate and personal property, he did not desire (at the time the will was drawn Feb'y 17th, 1902) to make any will in reference thereto." The estate is of considerable value.

Miss Ada McPherson of Newton, Mass., is visiting her parents in this City.

The tide will be high this morning at 9.17 and tomorrow morning at 10.17.

Mrs. Dean, city, spent Labor Day with her brother Mr. Lord of Cape Traverse.

Miss Myrtle Egan, Pownal, spent Sunday in Village Green the guest of Miss Lona Gay.

Mrs. Rev. I. Murray Mellich is spending the week at York the guest of Robert and Mrs. Vesey.

Warren Lord, who is attending C. S. C. city, spent Labor Day with his parents in Cape Traverse.

Alphonse Corrigan, Village Green, is adding a large kitchen to his already commodious dwelling house.

Miss Eva Horton, Village Green, has returned to her home after a pleasant holiday in Village Green.

Mrs. G. R. White of Charlottetown and her niece Miss Fowles are visiting Mrs. B. C. Shaw of Sydney, C.B.

Any girl desiring to learn and news setting should apply at this office at once. A good chance for the right girl.

Miss Catherine Boyer, Banbury, left yesterday morning to resume her studies in the McDonald College, St. Anne DeBellevue.

Miss Alva Gillespie who has been visiting in Montague, the guest of Mrs. Ewen Gillespie, returned to the city Monday night.

York and Union schools have reopened for the year under the direction of Vernon Crockett and Mrs. Jas. Henderson respectively.

Miss Eva Horton, Village Green, has returned home after a pleasant trip to New Perth where she was the guest of Wm. and Mrs. McIntyre.

W. A. and G. E. Sherrard and sister Miss Iva, who have been visiting friends in the city left yesterday morning for their home in Dorchester, N. B.

Rev. G. I. Steel will conduct services in the Margate Methodist churches next Sabbath and the pastor of the Margate church will supply for Rev. Henry Pierce, Granville.

Prince Street School re-opens today, West Kent Street School opened yesterday morning with 320 pupils present a large attendance for opening day. There were 274 at Queen Square.

The Sunday School at Union, Lot 33, under the direction of its popular superintendent Jas. Essery continues to be well attended. Mrs. George Abbott's juvenile class is certainly an ideal one.

Among the outward passengers from this city yesterday were Miss Bartlett City to Toronto; Miss Gwen Bell to Guelph, Ont.; Wm. Rankin, Mrs. Rankin and daughter returning to Perth Amboy, N. J.

J. A. McDonald and Henry Hughes, who have been absent in British Columbia for a year, returned to their home in Tracadie last week. They intend remaining home, as they believe P. E. Island is the best place for men of energy.

Among the passengers leaving Tracadie yesterday were—Misses Janie and Maggie Beaton to Roxbury, Mass; Misses Tillie and Mary McAskill to Worcester, Mass; Thomas Smith and Joseph Sheeran to Berlin, N.H.; Miss Mary McDougall to Chelsea, Mass; and Miss McDonald to Boston.

Isaac P. McCoubrey, upholsterer in the P. E. I. Railway returned yesterday evening from a fishing tour at the Wheatley River having with him the finest specimen of the finny tribe. The Guardian has ever seen. When The Guardian correspondent saw him, Mr. McCoubrey was busy measuring and weighing the trout, a report of which will appear to-morrow.

Quite an experience happened two young ladies on the western express Saturday a. m. While about 2 miles from North Wiltshire one of the girls holding tickets in her purse accidentally let it slip through her fingers between the cars. They got off the train at North Wiltshire and walked the track, fortunately found the purse and tickets out sad to relate were too late to leave the Island that day.

Amos C. and Mrs. Cutter, of Malden, Mass., who have been visiting for the past few weeks at the home of Mrs. Cutter's uncle, Neill and Duncan McNeill, Fairview, left last week on return home. Mr. and Mrs. Cutter also spent a couple of weeks at Hunter River, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Benjamin Andrews. Mr. Cutter, who is an American has never visited the Island before, and he expresses himself as highly pleased with the province.

Strong complaints have been made at The Guardian about the actions of some young men, who ought to know better, who attack those driving in the vicinity of Blooming Point, at night. It is stated that several young ladies and gentlemen were assailed on Wednesday night of last week and one young man was severely injured by a stone thrown by one of the young hoodlums. The orderly people of that community are determined not to tolerate any more of such rowdism.

The Island Condition Powder is always to the front, when it comes to getting stock in good healthy condition. Farmers and horsemen everywhere recommend it highly—Prepared and sold only by A. W. Reddin, Fern B., Sunnyside.

James Pickering, Clinton, was a passenger from the city east yesterday.

Rev. D. B. McLeod, Orwell, was in the city yesterday and returned home.

Edwin Doyle, Earncliffe, is taking a course at St. Dunstan's College this term.

Anybody wanting a boy 16 years for outside work should read classified column.

Anyone wishing children's sewing or skirt-waist suits made should read the classified column.

Frederick Walker Ings left this city yesterday morning for St. John to attend Rotherham College.

Miss Elsie Henderson has returned to her home at Union, Lot 33, after an extended visit to Lot 48.

Mrs. C. H. Dingwell, City and son left yesterday morning for Ottawa on a visit to her sister.

H. I. Wood, Manager of the I.C.S. in this city was a passenger to Souris yesterday for a few days.

Mrs. Ernest McMillan, Boston, is visiting her old home at Union Lot 33. Mr. McMillan is at present prospecting in Alberta.

An oak bureau and washstand also some stair carpet which may be seen at A. Horne & Co's is for sale. See ad.

Miss Jennie Whitehead, Clinton, accompanied by her brother-in-law, Ira Walker of Wilnot, left for Lacombe, B. C., last week.

The last issue of the Canadian Pictorial contains a number of cuts from photos excellently taken by W. S. Louison, City.

W. H. McGregor, Central, Lot 16, and Clinton Campbell of Arizona arrived home Saturday after taking in the Halifax Exhibition.

Miss Melinda McMillan, who has been spending her holidays at her old home in Alberry Plain, has returned to her school in Philadelphia.

James Jenkins and Joseph Nicholson, Orwell Cove, and Leonard and Mrs. Wood, Lot 48, spent a pleasant holiday in Earncliffe this week.

Dr. Walsh, Mt. Stewart, Charles Anderson, Souris; John P. Morris, Donaldston, Alfred O'Hemley, St. Peters and Leonard Court, Donaldston were in the city yesterday.

Tyler Warren of North Rustico, who was Principal of Montague School last year, left yesterday morning for Des Moines, Iowa, where he will take a course in theology in Drake University.

Rev. E. Bell preached most acceptably to a large congregation in York Methodist Church Sunday evening last, choosing for his text Heb. 4-16. This is Mr. Bell's first year in York and he has already made a very good impression.

The plan for improvement at York parsonage submitted by Rev. E. Bell has been carried out under the direction of the energetic contractor Joseph Brown. Needless to say the improvements spell comfort, especially during the winter months.

The will of the late John McPhall has been pronounced. He bequeathed his wife the four tenement house on Prince Street. He said that "with regard to the balance of his estate and personal property, he did not desire (at the time the will was drawn Feb'y 17th, 1902) to make any will in reference thereto." The estate is of considerable value.

Miss Ada McPherson of Newton, Mass., is visiting her parents in this City.

The tide will be high this morning at 9.17 and tomorrow morning at 10.17.

Mrs. Dean, city, spent Labor Day with her brother Mr. Lord of Cape Traverse.

Miss Myrtle Egan, Pownal, spent Sunday in Village Green the guest of Miss Lona Gay.

Mrs. Rev. I. Murray Mellich is spending the week at York the guest of Robert and Mrs. Vesey.

Warren Lord, who is attending C. S. C. city, spent Labor Day with his parents in Cape Traverse.

Alphonse Corrigan, Village Green, is adding a large kitchen to his already commodious dwelling house.

Miss Eva Horton, Village Green, has returned to her home after a pleasant holiday in Village Green.

Mrs. G. R. White of Charlottetown and her niece Miss Fowles are visiting Mrs. B. C. Shaw of Sydney, C.B.

Any girl desiring to learn and news setting should apply at this office at once. A good chance for the right girl.

Miss Catherine Boyer, Banbury, left yesterday morning to resume her studies in the McDonald College, St. Anne DeBellevue.

Miss Alva Gillespie who has been visiting in Montague, the guest of Mrs. Ewen Gillespie, returned to the city Monday night.

York and Union schools have reopened for the year under the direction of Vernon Crockett and Mrs. Jas. Henderson respectively.

Miss Eva Horton, Village Green, has returned home after a pleasant trip to New Perth where she was the guest of Wm. and Mrs. McIntyre.

W. A. and G. E. Sherrard and sister Miss Iva, who have been visiting friends in the city left yesterday morning for their home in Dorchester, N. B.

Rev. G. I. Steel will conduct services in the Margate Methodist churches next Sabbath and the pastor of the Margate church will supply for Rev. Henry Pierce, Granville.

Prince Street School re-opens today, West Kent Street School opened yesterday morning with 320 pupils present a large attendance for opening day. There were 274 at Queen Square.

The Sunday School at Union, Lot 33, under the direction of its popular superintendent Jas. Essery continues to be well attended. Mrs. George Abbott's juvenile class is certainly an ideal one.

Among the outward passengers from this city yesterday were Miss Bartlett City to Toronto; Miss Gwen Bell to Guelph, Ont.; Wm. Rankin, Mrs. Rankin and daughter returning to Perth Amboy, N. J.

J. A. McDonald and Henry Hughes, who have been absent in British Columbia for a year, returned to their home in Tracadie last week. They intend remaining home, as they believe P. E. Island is the best place for men of energy.

Among the passengers leaving Tracadie yesterday were—Misses Janie and Maggie Beaton to Roxbury, Mass; Misses Tillie and Mary McAskill to Worcester, Mass; Thomas Smith and Joseph Sheeran to Berlin, N.H.; Miss Mary McDougall to Chelsea, Mass; and Miss McDonald to Boston.

Isaac P. McCoubrey, upholsterer in the P. E. I. Railway returned yesterday evening from a fishing tour at the Wheatley River having with him the finest specimen of the finny tribe. The Guardian has ever seen. When The Guardian correspondent saw him, Mr. McCoubrey was busy measuring and weighing the trout, a report of which will appear to-morrow.

Quite an experience happened two young ladies on the western express Saturday a. m. While about 2 miles from North Wiltshire one of the girls holding tickets in her purse accidentally let it slip through her fingers between the cars. They got off the train at North Wiltshire and walked the track, fortunately found the purse and tickets out sad to relate were too late to leave the Island that day.

Amos C. and Mrs. Cutter, of Malden, Mass., who have been visiting for the past few weeks at the home of Mrs. Cutter's uncle, Neill and Duncan McNeill, Fairview, left last week on return home. Mr. and Mrs. Cutter also spent a couple of weeks at Hunter River, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Benjamin Andrews. Mr. Cutter, who is an American has never visited the Island before, and he expresses himself as highly pleased with the province.

Strong complaints have been made at The Guardian about the actions of some young men, who ought to know better, who attack those driving in the vicinity of Blooming Point, at night. It is stated that several young ladies and gentlemen were assailed on Wednesday night of last week and one young man was severely injured by a stone thrown by one of the young hoodlums. The orderly people of that community are determined not to tolerate any more of such rowdism.

The Island Condition Powder is always to the front, when it comes to getting stock in good healthy condition. Farmers and horsemen everywhere recommend it highly—Prepared and sold only by A. W. Reddin, Fern B., Sunnyside.

James Pickering, Clinton, was a passenger from the city east yesterday.

Rev. D. B. McLeod, Orwell, was in the city yesterday and returned home.

Edwin Doyle, Earncliffe, is taking a course at St. Dunstan's College this term.

Anybody wanting a boy 16 years for outside work should read classified column.

Anyone wishing children's sewing or skirt-waist suits made should read the classified column.

Frederick Walker Ings left this city yesterday morning for St. John to attend Rotherham College.

Miss Elsie Henderson has returned to her home at Union, Lot 33, after an extended visit to Lot 48.

Mrs. C. H. Dingwell, City and son left yesterday morning for Ottawa on a visit to her sister.

H. I. Wood, Manager of the I.C.S. in this city was a passenger to Souris yesterday for a few days.

Mrs. Ernest McMillan, Boston, is visiting her old home at Union Lot 33. Mr. McMillan is at present prospecting in Alberta.

An oak bureau and washstand also some stair carpet which may be seen at A. Horne & Co's is for sale. See ad.

Miss Jennie Whitehead, Clinton, accompanied by her brother-in-law, Ira Walker of Wilnot, left for Lacombe, B. C., last week.

The last issue of the Canadian Pictorial contains a number of cuts from photos excellently taken by W. S. Louison, City.

W. H. McGregor, Central, Lot 16, and Clinton Campbell of Arizona arrived home Saturday after taking in the Halifax Exhibition.

Miss Melinda McMillan, who has been spending her holidays at her old home in Alberry Plain, has returned to her school in Philadelphia.

James Jenkins and Joseph Nicholson, Orwell Cove, and Leonard and Mrs. Wood, Lot 48, spent a pleasant holiday in Earncliffe this week.

Dr. Walsh, Mt. Stewart, Charles Anderson, Souris; John P. Morris, Donaldston, Alfred O'Hemley, St. Peters and Leonard Court, Donaldston were in the city yesterday.

Tyler Warren of North Rustico, who was Principal of Montague School last year, left yesterday morning for Des Moines, Iowa, where he will take a course in theology in Drake University.

Rev. E. Bell preached most acceptably to a large congregation in York Methodist Church Sunday evening last, choosing for his text Heb. 4-16. This is Mr. Bell's first year in York and he has already made a very good impression.

The plan for improvement at York parsonage submitted by Rev. E. Bell has been carried out under the direction of the energetic contractor Joseph Brown. Needless to say the improvements spell comfort, especially during the winter months.

The will of the late John McPhall has been pronounced. He bequeathed his wife the four tenement house on Prince Street. He said that "with regard to the balance of his estate and personal property, he did not desire (at the time the will was drawn Feb'y 17th, 1902) to make any will in reference thereto." The estate is of considerable value.

Miss Ada McPherson of Newton, Mass., is visiting her parents in this City.

The tide will be high this morning at 9.17 and tomorrow morning at 10.17.

Mrs. Dean, city, spent Labor Day with her brother Mr. Lord of Cape Traverse.

Miss Myrtle Egan, Pownal, spent Sunday in Village Green the guest of Miss Lona Gay.

Mrs. Rev. I. Murray Mellich is spending the week at York the guest of Robert and Mrs. Vesey.

Warren Lord, who is attending C. S. C. city, spent Labor Day with his parents in Cape Traverse.

Alphonse Corrigan, Village Green, is adding a large kitchen to his already commodious dwelling house.

Miss Eva Horton, Village Green, has returned to her home after a pleasant holiday in Village Green.

Mrs. G. R. White of Charlottetown and her niece Miss Fowles are visiting Mrs. B. C. Shaw of Sydney, C.B.

Any girl desiring to learn and news setting should apply at this office at once. A good chance for the right girl.

Miss Catherine Boyer, Banbury, left yesterday morning to resume her studies in the McDonald College, St. Anne DeBellevue.

Miss Alva Gillespie who has been visiting in Montague, the guest of Mrs. Ewen Gillespie, returned to the city Monday night.

York and Union schools have reopened for the year under the direction of Vernon Crockett and Mrs. Jas. Henderson respectively.

Miss Eva Horton, Village Green, has returned home after a pleasant trip to New Perth where she was the guest of Wm. and Mrs. McIntyre.

W. A. and G. E. Sherrard and sister Miss Iva, who have been visiting friends in the city left yesterday morning for their home in Dorchester, N. B.

Rev. G. I. Steel will conduct services in the Margate Methodist churches next Sabbath and the pastor of the Margate church will supply for Rev. Henry Pierce, Granville.

Prince Street School re-opens today, West Kent Street School opened yesterday morning with 320 pupils present a large attendance for opening day. There were 274 at Queen Square.

The Sunday School at Union, Lot 33, under the direction of its popular superintendent Jas. Essery continues to be well attended. Mrs. George Abbott's juvenile class is certainly an ideal one.

Among the outward passengers from this city yesterday were Miss Bartlett City to Toronto; Miss Gwen Bell to Guelph, Ont.; Wm. Rankin, Mrs. Rankin and daughter returning to Perth Amboy, N. J.

J. A. McDonald and Henry Hughes, who have been absent in British Columbia for a year, returned to their home in Tracadie last week. They intend remaining home, as they believe P. E. Island is the best place for men of energy.

Among the passengers leaving Tracadie yesterday were—Misses Janie and Maggie Beaton to Roxbury, Mass; Misses Tillie and Mary McAskill to Worcester, Mass; Thomas Smith and Joseph Sheeran to Berlin, N.H.; Miss Mary McDougall to Chelsea, Mass; and Miss McDonald to Boston.

Isaac P. McCoubrey, upholsterer in the P. E. I. Railway returned yesterday evening from a fishing tour at the Wheatley River having with him the finest specimen of the finny tribe. The Guardian has ever seen. When The Guardian correspondent saw him, Mr. McCoubrey was busy measuring and weighing the trout, a report of which will appear to-morrow.

Quite an experience happened two young ladies on the western express Saturday a. m. While about 2 miles from North Wiltshire one of the girls holding tickets in her purse accidentally let it slip through her fingers between the cars. They got off the train at North Wiltshire and walked the track, fortunately found the purse and tickets out sad to relate were too late to leave the Island that day.

Amos C. and Mrs. Cutter, of Malden, Mass., who have been visiting for the past few weeks at the home of Mrs. Cutter's uncle, Neill and Duncan McNeill, Fairview, left last week on return home. Mr. and Mrs. Cutter also spent a couple of weeks at Hunter River, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Benjamin Andrews. Mr. Cutter, who is an American has never visited the Island before, and he expresses himself as highly pleased with the province.

Strong complaints have been made at The Guardian about the actions of some young men, who ought to know better, who attack those driving in the vicinity of Blooming Point, at night. It is stated that several young ladies and gentlemen were assailed on Wednesday night of last week and one young man was severely injured by a stone thrown by one of the young hoodlums. The orderly people of that community are determined not to tolerate any more of such rowdism.

The Island Condition Powder is always to the front, when it comes to getting stock in good healthy condition. Farmers and horsemen everywhere recommend it highly—Prepared and sold only by A. W. Reddin, Fern B., Sunnyside.

James Pickering, Clinton, was a passenger from the city east yesterday.

Rev. D. B. McLeod, Orwell, was in the city yesterday and returned home.

Edwin Doyle, Earncliffe, is taking a course at St. Dunstan's College this term.

Anybody wanting a boy 16 years for outside work should read classified column.

Anyone wishing children's sewing or skirt-waist suits made should read the classified column.

Frederick Walker Ings left this city yesterday morning for St. John to attend Rotherham College.

Miss Elsie Henderson has returned to her home at Union, Lot 33, after an extended visit to Lot 48.

Mrs. C. H. Dingwell, City and son left yesterday morning for Ottawa on a visit to her sister.

H. I. Wood, Manager of the I.C.S. in this city was a passenger to Souris yesterday for a few days.

Mrs. Ernest McMillan, Boston, is visiting her old home at Union Lot 33. Mr. McMillan is at present prospecting in Alberta.

An oak bureau and washstand also some stair carpet which may be seen at A. Horne & Co's is for sale. See ad.

Miss Jennie Whitehead, Clinton, accompanied by her brother-in-law, Ira Walker of Wilnot, left for Lacombe, B. C., last week.

The last issue of the Canadian Pictorial contains a number of cuts from photos excellently taken by W. S. Louison, City.

W. H. McGregor, Central, Lot 16, and Clinton Campbell of Arizona arrived home Saturday after taking in the Halifax Exhibition.

Miss Melinda McMillan, who has been spending her holidays at her old home in Alberry Plain, has returned to her school in Philadelphia.

James Jenkins and Joseph Nicholson, Orwell Cove, and Leonard and Mrs. Wood, Lot 48, spent a pleasant holiday in Earncliffe this week.

Dr. Walsh, Mt. Stewart, Charles Anderson, Souris; John P. Morris, Donaldston, Alfred O'Hemley, St. Peters and Leonard Court, Donaldston were in the city yesterday.

Tyler Warren of North Rustico, who was Principal of Montague School last year, left yesterday morning for Des Moines, Iowa, where he will take a course in theology in Drake University.

Rev. E. Bell preached most acceptably to a large congregation in York Methodist Church Sunday evening last, choosing for his text Heb. 4-16. This is Mr. Bell's first year in York and he has already made a very good impression.

The plan for improvement at York parsonage submitted by Rev. E. Bell has been carried out under the direction of the energetic contractor Joseph Brown. Needless to say the improvements spell comfort, especially during the winter months.

The will of the late John McPhall has been pronounced. He bequeathed his wife the four tenement house on Prince Street. He said that "with regard to the balance of his estate and personal property, he did not desire (at the time the will was drawn Feb'y 17th, 1902) to make any will in reference thereto." The estate is of considerable value.

Miss Ada McPherson of Newton, Mass., is visiting her parents in this City.

The tide will be high this morning at 9.17 and tomorrow morning at 10.17.

Mrs. Dean, city, spent Labor Day with her brother Mr. Lord of Cape Traverse.

Miss Myrtle Egan, Pownal, spent Sunday in Village Green the guest of Miss Lona Gay.

Mrs. Rev. I. Murray Mellich is spending the week at York the guest of Robert and Mrs. Vesey.

Warren Lord, who is attending C. S. C. city, spent Labor Day with his parents in Cape Traverse.

Alphonse Corrigan, Village Green, is adding a large kitchen to his already commodious dwelling house.

Miss Eva Horton, Village Green, has returned to her home after a pleasant holiday in Village Green.

Mrs. G. R. White of Charlottetown and her niece Miss Fowles are visiting Mrs. B. C. Shaw of Sydney, C.B.

Any girl desiring to learn and news setting should apply at this office at once. A good chance for the right girl.

Miss Catherine Boyer, Banbury, left yesterday morning to resume her studies in the McDonald College, St. Anne DeBellevue.

Miss Alva Gillespie who has been visiting in Montague, the guest of Mrs. Ewen Gillespie, returned to the city Monday night.

York and Union schools have reopened for the year under the direction of Vernon Crockett and Mrs. Jas. Henderson respectively.

Miss Eva Horton, Village Green, has returned home after a pleasant trip to New Perth where she was the guest of Wm. and Mrs. McIntyre.

W. A. and G. E. Sherrard and sister Miss Iva, who have been visiting friends in the city left yesterday morning for their home in Dorchester, N. B.

Rev. G. I. Steel will conduct services in the Margate Methodist churches next Sabbath and the pastor of the Margate church will supply for Rev. Henry Pierce, Granville.

Prince Street School re-opens today, West Kent Street School opened yesterday morning with 320 pupils present a large attendance for opening day. There were 274 at Queen Square.

The Sunday School at Union, Lot 33, under the direction of its popular superintendent Jas. Essery continues to be well attended. Mrs. George Abbott's juvenile class is certainly an ideal one.

Among the outward passengers from this city yesterday were Miss Bartlett City to Toronto; Miss Gwen Bell to Guelph, Ont.; Wm. Rankin, Mrs. Rankin and daughter returning to Perth Amboy, N. J.

J. A. McDonald and Henry Hughes, who have been absent in British Columbia for a year, returned to their home in Tracadie last week. They intend remaining home, as they believe P. E. Island is the best place for men of energy.

Among the passengers leaving Tracadie yesterday were—Misses Janie and Maggie Beaton to Roxbury, Mass; Misses Tillie and Mary McAskill to Worcester, Mass; Thomas Smith and Joseph Sheeran to Berlin, N.H.; Miss Mary McDougall to Chelsea, Mass; and Miss McDonald to Boston.

Isaac P. McCoubrey, upholsterer in the P. E. I. Railway returned yesterday evening from a fishing tour at the Wheatley River having with him the finest specimen of the finny tribe. The Guardian has ever seen. When The Guardian correspondent saw him, Mr. McCoubrey was busy measuring and weighing the trout, a report of which will appear to-morrow.

Quite an experience happened two young ladies on the western express Saturday a. m. While about 2 miles from North Wiltshire one of the girls holding tickets in her purse accidentally let it slip through her fingers between the cars. They got off the train at North Wiltshire and walked the track, fortunately found the purse and tickets out sad to relate were too late to leave the Island that day.

Amos C. and Mrs. Cutter, of Malden, Mass., who have been visiting for the past few weeks at the home of Mrs. Cutter's uncle, Neill and Duncan McNeill, Fairview, left last week on return home. Mr. and Mrs. Cutter also spent a couple of weeks at Hunter River, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Benjamin Andrews. Mr. Cutter, who is an American has never visited the Island before, and he expresses himself as highly pleased with the province.

Strong complaints have been made at The Guardian about the actions of some young men, who ought to know better, who attack those driving in the vicinity of Blooming Point, at night. It is stated that several young ladies and gentlemen were assailed on Wednesday night of last week and one young man was severely injured by a stone thrown by one of the young hoodlums. The orderly people of that community are determined not to tolerate any more of such rowdism.

The Island Condition Powder is always to the front, when it comes to getting stock in good healthy condition. Farmers and horsemen everywhere recommend it highly—Prepared and sold only by A. W. Reddin, Fern B., Sunnyside.

James Pickering, Clinton, was a passenger from the city east yesterday.

Rev. D. B. McLeod, Orwell, was in the city yesterday and returned home.

Edwin Doyle, Earncliffe, is taking a course at St. Dunstan's College this term.

Anybody wanting a boy 16 years for outside work should read classified column.

Anyone wishing children's sewing or skirt-waist suits made should read the classified column.

Frederick Walker Ings left this city yesterday morning for St. John to attend Rotherham College.

Miss Elsie Henderson has returned to her home at Union, Lot 33, after an extended visit to Lot 48.

Mrs. C. H. Dingwell, City and son left yesterday morning for Ottawa on a visit to her sister.

H. I. Wood, Manager of the I.C.S. in this city was a passenger to Souris yesterday for a few days.

Mrs. Ernest McMillan, Boston, is visiting her old home at Union Lot 33. Mr. McMillan is at present prospecting in Alberta.

An oak bureau and washstand also some stair carpet which may be seen at A. Horne & Co's is for sale. See ad.

Miss Jennie Whitehead, Clinton, accompanied by her brother-in-law, Ira Walker of Wilnot, left for Lacombe, B. C., last week.

The last issue of the Canadian Pictorial contains a number of cuts from photos excellently taken by W. S. Louison, City.

W. H. McGregor, Central, Lot 16, and Clinton Campbell of Arizona arrived home Saturday after taking in the Halifax Exhibition.

Miss Melinda McMillan, who has been spending her holidays at her old home in Alberry Plain, has returned to her school in Philadelphia.

James Jenkins and Joseph Nicholson, Orwell Cove, and Leonard and Mrs. Wood, Lot 48, spent a pleasant holiday in Earncliffe this week.

Dr. Walsh, Mt. Stewart, Charles Anderson, Souris; John P. Morris, Donaldston, Alfred O'Hemley, St. Peters and Leonard Court, Donaldston were in the city yesterday.

Tyler Warren of North Rustico, who was Principal of Montague School last year, left yesterday morning for Des Moines, Iowa, where he will take a course in theology in Drake University.

Rev. E. Bell preached most acceptably to a large congregation in York Methodist Church Sunday evening last, choosing for his text Heb. 4-16. This is Mr. Bell's first year in York and he has already made a very good impression.

The plan for improvement at York parsonage submitted by Rev. E. Bell has been carried out under the direction of the energetic contractor Joseph Brown. Needless to say the improvements spell comfort, especially during the winter months.

The will of the late John McPhall has been pronounced. He bequeathed his wife the four tenement house on Prince Street. He said that "with regard to the balance of his estate and personal property, he did not desire (at the time the will was drawn Feb'y 17th, 1902) to make any will in reference thereto." The estate is of considerable value.

Miss Ada McPherson of Newton, Mass., is visiting her parents in this City.

The tide will be high this morning at 9.17 and tomorrow morning at 10.17.

Mrs. Dean, city, spent Labor Day with her brother Mr. Lord of Cape Traverse.

Miss Myrtle Egan, Pownal, spent Sunday in Village Green the guest of Miss Lona Gay.

Mrs. Rev. I. Murray Mellich is spending the week at York the guest of Robert and Mrs. Vesey.

Warren Lord, who is attending C. S. C. city, spent Labor Day with his parents in Cape Traverse.

Alphonse Corrigan, Village Green, is adding a large kitchen to his already commodious dwelling house.

Miss Eva Horton, Village Green, has returned to her home after a pleasant holiday in Village Green.

Mrs. G. R. White of Charlottetown and her niece Miss Fowles are visiting Mrs. B. C. Shaw of Sydney, C.B.

Any girl desiring to learn and news setting should apply at this office at once. A good chance for the right girl.

Miss Catherine Boyer, Banbury, left yesterday morning to resume her studies in the McDonald College, St. Anne DeBellevue.

Miss Alva Gillespie who has been visiting in Montague, the guest of Mrs. Ewen Gillespie, returned to the city Monday night.

York and Union schools have reopened for the year under the direction of Vernon Crockett and Mrs. Jas. Henderson respectively.

Miss Eva Horton, Village Green, has returned home after a pleasant trip to New Perth where she was the guest of Wm. and Mrs. McIntyre.

W. A. and G. E. Sherrard and sister Miss Iva, who have been visiting friends in the city left yesterday morning for their home in Dorchester, N. B.

Rev. G. I. Steel will conduct services in the Margate Methodist churches next Sabbath and the pastor of the Margate church will supply for Rev. Henry Pierce, Granville.

Prince Street School re-opens today, West Kent Street School opened yesterday morning with 320 pupils present a large attendance for opening day. There were 274 at Queen Square.

The Sunday School at Union, Lot 33, under the direction of its popular superintendent Jas. Essery continues to be well attended. Mrs. George Abbott's juvenile class is certainly an ideal one.

Among the outward passengers from this city yesterday were Miss Bartlett City to Toronto; Miss Gwen Bell to Guelph, Ont.; Wm. Rankin, Mrs. Rankin and daughter returning to Perth Amboy, N. J.

J. A. McDonald and Henry Hughes, who have been absent in British Columbia for a year, returned to their home in Tracadie last week. They intend remaining home, as they believe P. E. Island is the best place for men of energy.

Among the passengers leaving Tracadie yesterday were—Misses Janie and Maggie Beaton to Roxbury, Mass; Misses Tillie and Mary McAskill to Worcester, Mass; Thomas Smith and Joseph Sheeran to Berlin, N.H.; Miss Mary McDougall to Chelsea, Mass; and Miss McDonald to Boston.

Isaac P. McCoubrey, upholsterer in the P. E. I. Railway returned yesterday evening from a fishing tour at the Wheatley River having with him the finest specimen of the finny tribe. The Guardian has ever seen. When The Guardian correspondent saw him, Mr. McCoubrey was busy measuring and weighing the trout, a report of which will appear to-morrow.

Quite an experience happened two young ladies on the western express Saturday a. m. While about 2 miles from North Wiltshire one of the girls holding tickets in her purse accidentally let it slip through her fingers between the cars. They got off the train at North Wiltshire and walked the track, fortunately found the purse and tickets out sad to relate were too late to leave the Island that day.

Amos C. and Mrs. Cutter, of Malden, Mass., who have been visiting for the past few weeks at the home of Mrs. Cutter's uncle, Neill and Duncan McNeill, Fairview, left last week on return home. Mr. and Mrs. Cutter also spent a couple of weeks at Hunter River, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Benjamin Andrews. Mr. Cutter, who is an American has never visited the Island before, and he expresses himself as highly pleased with the province.

Strong complaints have been made at The Guardian about the actions of some young men, who ought to know better, who attack those driving in the vicinity of Blooming Point, at night. It is stated that several young ladies and gentlemen were assailed on Wednesday night of last week and one young man was severely injured by a stone thrown by one of the young hoodlums. The orderly people of that community are determined not to tolerate any more of such rowdism.