

Of course consumption can be cured. Modern medicine teaches it. No one longer doubts it. Babies have it. Young mothers have it. The aged have it. None are exempt. For over 50 years doctors have prescribed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for this disease. It quiets the cough, controls the inflammation. If interested, talk this over with your doctor.

THE GUARDIAN LOCAL NEWS

A. A. McLeod, New York, has The Guardian's thanks for interesting news-paper extracts from Journals of that city.

ADVERTISERS are again reminded that all "changes" should be in this office no later than one p. m. to insure insertion in following issue.

ANY persons desiring to see the Guardian's big Web Perfecting Press in operation should call at business offices to day at twelve o'clock sharp.

Rev. Jas. McDougall will preach (D.V.) on Sabbath Feb. 5th at DeSable at 10.30, Canoe Cove at 3, and at Argyle Shore at 6.30; on Monday the 6th at Birch Hill, on Tuesday the 7th at Kluross at 6.30 p. m.

CONCERT for the Poor.—A brief well varied programme is in course of preparation. The City Council have directed the committee to draw up a short, snappy bill of fare that shall prove entertaining to the thousand people who are expected to attend. The Women's Council have kindly assumed charge of the candy sale.

WALTER ALLEN, captain of the ice boats at Cape Tormentine, met with a serious accident some days ago. While attending to his duties he in some way dislocated his shoulder. He is now under treatment in the hospital at Amherst and has undergone two operations. Report is he is doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances.

THE Kirk at Canoe Cove, which has been resented, and has undergone extensive repairs during the past Summer, is now one of the most beautiful, substantial, and comfortable churches in that section of the Island. The building committee to gether with the pastor, Rev. Jas. McDougall take this opportunity of thanking the members of the congregation, the kind friends of the adjoining congregations, and the merchants from whom the material was obtained, for their liberal contributions by which the debt has been almost entirely wiped out.

EASTERN NOTES.—In common with all the Provinces, we are experiencing an unusually cold and stormy winter, the second one now in succession. The scarcity of cattle feed makes the cold more to be dreaded, as they want more feed under these conditions.—The body of ice moving south these days, before the gale betokens no good to the steamers bravely trying to keep up communication with the mainland.—A considerable share of influenza or la grippe is developing in these parts, whole families being stricken at once.—The unfavorable weather makes it dull in country districts, and the roads are not conducive to travel. But one Oriental pedlar, and one book agent have visited us for some time. Hay would be the most salable article in these parts at present. Matthew Fair well known in all the eastern parts of the Island died at Souris on the 24th. Born in Nova Scotia, some 84 years ago, he led an active life to the last, being sick only a few days. He spent some years in the gold fields of Australia. No news from the outside world or other parts for five days as no efforts of our efficient mail courier Charles Young could force a way through our banked roads.—Com.

The following ghost story comes from Glace Bay: Every town has its haunted house, where the occupants are aroused from their peaceful slumbers at the darkest hour of night by the most heinous screams of hobgoblins and the dull heavy tramp of the invisible ghost. Glace Bay is not an exception, and centrally on a quiet, peaceful street, is a neat, comfortable house which has had within its walls more tenants perhaps than any other house in town within the last few years, and yet it may be said to be unoccupied oftener than it is occupied. Every family that moves into it, after a month or so quietly moves out, and at the time gives no reason for the change. The house is haunted, and it is long after a tenant has left that he will consent to give a recital of the hair raising experiences of himself and his family during the time they occupied that house. For the first couple of weeks after a family moves in, everything is quiet, but then on a certain night a heavy tramp is heard in the house. A member of the family gets up and makes search but the supposed burglar is not to be found. After that night there is no peace, the tramping is continued, unearthly screams are heard in every closet, howls are heard without and a flapping as of the wings of some large bird comes against the windows, lights are put out as if by a sudden gust of wind rushing through the house. Every night is spent in perfect wretchedness, and then the family moves away and the house is left tenantless, as it is at present.

Our Guaiacol Emulsion has proved itself a valuable preparation for coughs and lung-trouble. That explains its large and increasing sales. There is nothing takes its place as a lung-builder. Given to children with great results. Only 40 cents a bottle. Try it.—A. W. Reddin, Phn B Central Drug Store.

The convention of the Kensington District of the Prince Edward Island Sunday School Association held in Kensington on the 24th inst., proved to be one of the most encouraging in the history of the organization. The day was fine and a large number of delegates were present, representing thirteen of the twenty schools enrolled. The morning session was opened by Rev. H. S. Young of Margate. The Field Secretary, Rev. A. D. Archibald, then delivered an interesting and instructive blackboard lecture on "Scholar's Thinking," in which he described very lucidly the ways in which the child's mind receives a new idea, and how best to impress that idea on the memory. After a brief discussion of the use of the temperance pledge in the Sunday School the session was closed. In the afternoon session, which was opened by Mr. Johnson, the officers for the ensuing year were elected, and the question of finances discussed at some length, with many practical hints from Rev. R. S. Whidden. After some very useful instructions in teaching methods by the Field Secretary the afternoon session was brought to a close. Mr. Carruthers conducted the devotional service in the evening. Some addresses were delivered by prominent Sunday School workers, interspersed with chorus and solo in a most attractive way. Rev. E. J. Rattee spoke forcibly of the parents' duty to the Sunday School, and pointed out how home influences may help or hinder the work of the Sunday school. Rev. Mr. Whidden outlined the present system of regulating the finances of the Association, and suggested some ways in which that system might be improved. Rev. H. S. Young showed how the Association helps the people by drawing the denominations closer together, and giving them definite forms of organization to carry on this important work. Mr. Archibald spoke of how the Association helps the teacher with new methods, and with training courses. Rev. Mr. Stirling delivered an address on character building. He indicated that habit was a strong factor in moulding the character, and urged his hearers to make an earnest effort to contract good habits. After tendering the thanks of the Association to the choir for the excellent program rendered, to the church managers for the use of the building, and to Mrs. McKenzie, the retiring Secretary, the convention closed. The summer meeting will be held at North Bedeque.—Lee N. Seaman, Secretary.

Pale Face, Weak Blood

You Can Make the Blood Rich, the System Strong, the Complexion Healthy by Using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Why do some people have healthy, rosy complexions while others are pale and wan in countenance? Why are some people strong and able to defy disease while others are weak and subject to all the ills of human kind? The difference is in the blood. Pallor of the eyelids, gums and lips tell of blood that is lacking in quality and richness. The person who has poor blood is subject to headache, dizziness, sleeplessness; the action of the heart is weak and there is sometimes palpitation; the breath is short, and there is lack of energy and strength. This weak, anemic condition is entirely overcome by the persistent use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which is above all else a builder and enricher of the blood. You can best prove this by noting your increase in weight from week to week, while using this great food cure. New, rich flesh and tissue are added, new strength and vigor take the place of weakness and suffering, and instead of taking cold or contracting disease at every gust of wind that blows you find yourself getting strong and robust. Mrs. Willis Taylor, Hensley street, Charlottetown, P. E. I., states:—"I suffered from nervous prostration, could not sleep and frequently had attacks of nervous headache, in fact, my whole system was run down and my health was in anything but a satisfactory condition. Since having used three boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I can say that I never tried any medicine that did me so much good. It has built up my system, strengthened the nerves and enabled me to sleep and rest well. It is now a considerable time since I had a headache, and I can truthfully recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a splendid preparation." Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents, at all dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Toronto. Portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.
