THE PRINCE COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Summerside, Miss Amy G. Burrows, Agent, Summer Street, and J. F. Lafferty, Water Street, News Correspondent; and in Alberton, Herbert Clark, Agent.

—The latest news, first of all.

—Rev R. H. Stavert, Harcourt, N.B., is spending a few days in Halifax.

—Mrs E. B. Buckerfield and Miss Jessie have returned to Harcourt, N. B., from a visit to Alberton.

—The death occurred quite suddenly at Summerside on Friday evening last of Ann Gillis, widow of the late Angus Fitzpatrick, deceased was 69 years of age and had not been in good health for the past two years. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon last to St. Paul's R. C. Cemetery and was largely attended. The pall bearers were. Jas. A. McNeill, Frank Perry, John T. McNally and Bonaventure Arsenault.

—At her home in Alberton on Sunday, August 28th, Melvina, relict of the late Wm. J. Sherry, departed this life, after a painful illness of four months duration borne with true Christian fortitude and resignation. Happy indeed are those who bow to the will of the inevitable decree under circumstances such as were connected with her departure from this life of trial and temptation. In her early days she attended Cong. de Notre Dame and Prince of Wales College and was highly esteemed by both fellow and sister students. Later on she was employed as a teacher in her district school, Sea Cow Pond and also in Alberton High School and was held in fond respect by her pupils. Four years ago she married and settled down in Alberton, where she became very popular, as she possessed a sweet loviable disposition. Her friends saw in her future many bright and noble accomplishments, but God ordained that she should leave them and they humbly now their heads, and say, "Thy will be done." Perfectly reconciled to the will of her Maker, her only regret arising from the thought of the aching hearts she would leave behind, she peacefully and calmly departed from this vale of tears. Esteemed in life she was esteemed in death, as was shown by the host of relatives and friends that assembled in the death chamber to behold for the last time that dear face which, looked serene and beautiful even in death. Besides two small children, the deceased leaves a sorrowful mother, two brothers and one sister to mourn the loss of a loving mother dutiful daughter, affectionate sister, true and sincere friend. The beautiful casket was almost completely covered beneath the artistic mass of floral tributes presented by Mrs. W. D. White, Mrs. J. F. White, Mrs. G. Green, Mrs. D. Miller, Mrs. A. Kinch and Misses L. J. Muttart, Katie Mountain and Jennie McLean. Her funeral to Sacred Heart Church, Alberton, was largely attended. Rev. Father Connolly who frequently visited her in her last moments conducted the service. Then followed the final ceremony of committing the remains to their last resting place beside her late husband, who had predeceased her two months before. Requeseat in peace.

The Union turned out about one hundred and fifty strong and presented a fine appearance in regalia. The music of Wellington Band was of a high class under the leadership of Arsene Poirer and the Labor Union are to be congratulated upon securing them. Before departing for their home the Band played some fine selections in front of the Crystal Cafe, better known as "Jos Bun's Beanery," where they were entertained at luncheon by the Labor Union. After three cheers for the Band they departed for the station on return to Wellington. In the evening a lecture was given in Union Hall by John H. Bell ex-M.P.P. the subject was in the Land of Pharoah and was listened to with rapt attention by the audience in attendance.

CONVERSATION.

Conversation is one of the blights of civilization.

People spend thousands of pounds in education, in books, in travel, in theatre tickets, and all in order to be able to carry on a conversation.

As a consequence, the women talk about cooks and clothes and the men about weather and women.

Conversation may be divided into chats, arguments, piffle and palaver, with gossips and quarrels as side issues.

Conversations are fortunately forgotten as soon as they are left over, otherwise people would be so mortified over their innane remarks that they would seek new friends every day, fearing to meet the old ones.

The art of conversation is a lost one and the art of keeping still demands cultivation.

The trouble is that where we try to develop the art of keeping still we should immediately begin to talk about it.—M.A.P.

CONDUCT IS THE TEST.

The test of the man is not in the professions or the associations with which he is identified in religious declarations or humanitarian platitudes in his assertions of a partnership with the Lord, or in his displays of self-idolatry, but in his personal conduct.

News of the Night

As the enamelled metal bed is to the wooden bedstead, so the "Ideal" Guaranteed Metal Bed is to ordinary metal beds. If it were not above the average in every detail, the "Ideal" Guarantee would not be on the footrail.

For while any metal bed is sanitary, sensible, practical, the "Ideal" Metal Bed is all these and more besides. The Guarantee label means satisfaction to the buyer.

Because "Ideal" Metal Beds retain the snowiness of their enamel—no chance of its turning yellow or dingy. Take it down or set it up without risk of breaking it, and with no need for a mallet and much muscle—the parts fit snugly. Forty inspections make us so sure of that that we can afford to guarantee it to you.

Maybe you will be asked a little more for "Ideal" quality—perhaps forty cents more. But that cannot weigh against the certainty the "Ideal" Guarantee gives you of genuine value—and of the same quality in material and workmanship, even though you pay but three dollars for your "Ideal" Metal Bed.
