MONDAY

SLIGHT FIRE—The firemen were called last evening about 7.30 to cope with a slight blaze in Williams' hot-house on Upper Prince street. As the fire was confined to a small section of the building, the damage was slight. A number of panes of glass were broken.

QUIET WEDDING—A pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized on Friday morning at the home of Dr. A. W. Leard and Mrs. Leard of Summerside when their youngest daughter, Helen Embree, was quietly married to Mr. C. C. Montgomery, son of the late Hudson Montgomery and Mrs. Montgomery of Summerside. Rev. J. B. Wilson performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives. The bride and groom were unattended. Immediately after the ceremony the happy young couple left on a honeymoon trip to the Maritime Provinces. Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery upon their return will reside in Summerside where a host of friends wish them every happiness. S.

KITCHEN SHOWER—Mrs. Albert Molison was hostess on Friday evening at her home in Summerside for a kitchen shower for Miss Elizabeth Chapelle, who will be the principal figure in an interesting event in the near future. A dainty basket attached to streamers coming from the ceiling concealed many useful but pretty articles for kitchen use. Mrs. Gothard Baker opened the presents while Mrs. Arthur Corney read the accompanying verses. Miss Chapelle was taken completely by surprise but gave a charming speech thanking all for their kind remembrances. Cards and a dainty lunch brought to a close a very delightful evening. "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" was heartily sung before the guests left for home. S.

A tridium in honor of the two hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Redemptorist Order by Saint Alphonsus de Liguori opened yesterday morning at 10.30 in the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer by a Solemn High Mass celebrated by Rev. Joseph McGreel, pastor, assisted by Rev. Father Murphy and Rev. Father Johnson. The sermon was preached by Rev. S. L. Connolly, C.S.S.R. on the life of St. Alphonsus, and the origin of the Order of the congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer.

At the evening service of the Tridium, Bishop Oullivan presided at the Throne. Rev. Father McGreel and Rev. Father Murphy were chaplains. Rev. Father Connolly preached a sermon on St. Alphonsus and gave a description of Europe at the time of the founding of the Order. On Tuesday at 10 a.m. Pontifical High Mass will be celebrated. The Solemn Closing will be at 7.30 p.m.

ATTENDED DISTRICT MEETING—The district meeting of the Ladies of the I. O. O. F. of Prince Edward Island which was held at Montague last week was attended by several members of Prince Edward Lodge, Summerside, among them being Bros. C. W. Ramsay, J. E. Hallett Hazen Phillips, M. L. Frank McKenzie, and George Hogg. Mr. J. J. McKinnon, Secretary for the Maritime Provinces, from Charlottetown, was also present and addressed the meeting and gave some valuable information to the members. The Montague Lodge entertained the visitors right royally at the close of the evening. S.

Two memorial tablets were unveiled at the morning service of St. James Church yesterday and were dedicated, one to the memory of Very Rev. William Snodgrass, D. D., who was minister of the congregation from 1852 till 1858, the other to Rev. Thomas Duncan, D. D., who was minister of St. James from 1856 till 1876. The first tablet was unveiled by a namesake of Dr. Snodgrass, His Worship the Mayor Judge William Snodgrass Stewart, the second was unveiled by Mrs. A. Lord, the oldest member of the congregation, and an intimate friend of the Duncan family. Mr. A. W. Hyndman, nephew of Rev. Thomas Duncan, represented the Kirk Session at the ceremony. Rev. E. M. Legate spoke the words of dedication, offered prayer, and delivered a sermon appropriate to the occasion. The tablets which are of English oak with inscriptions incised in gold were sent out from Scotland by sons of the ministers commemorated, Mr. W. G. Snodgrass, Bridge Weir, Renfrewshire, and the late Rev. George Duncan, D. D., formerly minister of New Abbey, Dumfries, who passed away about two weeks ago.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mrs. William Darby of St. Eleanor's, took place on Thursday afternoon from her late residence. Rev. J. B. Wilson conducted the service at house and grave. The pallbearers were W. W. Muttart, Fred Muttart, George Jelly, George McGougan, Loman Adams and Sidney Richardson. Interment was in the Baptist Cemetery at Bedeque. S.

PASSED AWAY—Mrs. J. H. Anderson, Pleasant Street, widow of the late Mr. J. H. Anderson, formerly registrar of the Court of Probate, passed away suddenly yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Anderson was formerly Miss Ellen Mooney, of Northam, P. E. I. Her husband passed away six years ago. Her only surviving relatives in the city are two nieces, Misses Catherine and Bessie Mooney.

SEEKS NEWS OF FAMILY—Inquiry has been received by Chief of Police Birtwistle from Mrs. Fred J. Hill, 221 East Main Street, Burley, Idaho, as to the whereabouts of her father's family in this Province. Mrs. Hill's father's name was John MacPherson. He was born on May 21, 1874 in Prince Edward Island. Readers with any information of value write direct to Mrs. Hill, or to the Chief of Police in Charlottetown.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mrs. Ellen Malone was held Saturday morning from the residence of her daughter, Miss Minnie Malone, 291 Fitzroy Street to St. Dunstan's Basilica, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Right Rev. Monsignor Maurice McDonald. The pall bearers were: Prof. L. B. Miller, Messrs. S. P. Paull, Sr., John P. Connolly, Jas. Monaghan, Michael Walsh and Geo. McDonald, Cornwall. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. E. O'Hanley.

TUESDAY

AIR MAIL SERVICE—Four hundred and fifty pounds of mail was brought over in the initial flight of the air mail service, which commenced yesterday. The large Fairchild plane of the Canadian Airways with a capacity of carrying five hundred pounds was used. Pilots Fowler and George will alternate at the controls.

ENTERTAINED—Members of the Delta Tau Fraternity, 207 South Park Street, were at home to a large number of newcomers to Dalhousie University last night. The social committee who arranged the event were: Manning Archibald, Charlottetown, P. E. I., Chairman, Fred Morrison, New Waterford; Gary Hamilton, Halifax.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Arthur Gates was held from his late residence, 19 Longworth Ave., this afternoon at 2.30. Services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. Dr. A. C. Vincent. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Herbert Hill, Alfred Hill, Ernest Champlin, J. P. Gordon, J. J. McKinnon and Frank Morris. Interment was in the Peoples' Cemetery.

SERIOUS LOSS—The large potato warehouse of Major J. Parker Hooper at Pleasant Grove was completely destroyed by fire about noon last Wednesday. There were upwards of 2,000 bushels of potatoes and a quantity of bags stored in the building which were also destroyed. Workmen were engaged cleaning up the warehouse during the forenoon but have no idea of how the fire started.

When Ottawa Rideaus take their departure from Charlottetown this morning for Moncton, where they hook up with Hawks tonight, they will no doubt carry away with them a lasting impression of the hockey teams in these provinces by the sea—that is so far as they've gone. They were beaten at Halifax, suffered another defeat at the hands of Abbies last night and are undoubtedly due for their final Maritime trouncing at the hands of Percy Nicklin's crew at the Hub.

MORROW—JOHNSON—The marriage of Doris Isabelle, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fraser T. Morrow, to Mr. George W. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnson, North River Road, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday morning, November 16th in the presence of the immediate relatives. The ceremony was performed by the groom's uncle, Rev. George Ayers. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a brown coin-spot lace dress, with hat and shoes to match and carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses. After a buffet luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left by motor on their wedding trip.

TREES IN BUD—In different parts of the city, the lilac trees are in bud and leaf, an evidence of the mildness of the fall.

WEDNESDAY

SYMPATHY EXPRESSED—Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Gallant of Summerside in the death on Monday morning of their little five year old daughter, Mary Beatrice. The little one will be laid to rest today. Service will be held in St. Paul's Church at 3 p. m. Interment in the R. C. Cemetery.—S

The possibility of opening an office to check up over-lapping in unemployment relief, and the work of the police department, were discussed in addition to routine matters at the monthly meeting of the City Council held last evening at the Council Chambers. His Worship Mayor Stewart presided.

Inspector James Fripps was the speaker at the weekly dinner of the Gyro Club held last evening at the Canadian National Hotel. His address was on the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. The force was started by Sir John A. Macdonald in May 1873, with an establishment of 300 men. It was then called the North-West Mounted Police. They went to Fort Garry in 1874, and under Major General French made a 2,000 mile march to the foothills.

SHORT VISIT—Dr. John E. Gillis of Somerville, Mass., and a native of Darlington, Prince Edward Island, arrived in the city on Saturday night being one of a party of about 150 former Islanders who took advantage of the special week end excursion trip. About 800 in all left Boston on Thursday night for different points in the Maritimes. Dr. Gillis is a son of the late John Gillis, of Darlington, who passed away last June. The doctor was educated in the Prince of Wales College and McGill University and has been practising at Somerville since 1908. He has made frequent visits to his native province since locating in the United States, and naturally greatly enjoys these visits. Next summer he hopes to bring his family, including two daughters, graduates of Skidmore College, Saratoga Springs, to spend part of the summer on the Island.

The death occurred very suddenly at his home, Longworth Avenue, on Monday morning of Mr. Arthur Gates. Mr. Gates, who was seventy years of age, had been in his usual good health. He retired Sunday evening about midnight and half an hour later was stricken with heart failure. He passed away within a few minutes of the seizure. The late Mr. Gates was widely known and esteemed. For many years he conducted the grocery firm of A. Gates and Company on Grafton Street. He had been in retirement for a number of years, but maintained good health and was keenly interested in such outdoor sports as shooting and fishing.

He is survived by his widow and three daughters, namely, Mrs. George L. Prowse, Boston, Mrs. A. P. Irving, Winchester, and Mrs. W. C. Davies, Charlottetown, to whom The Guardian extends sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place upon the arrival home of Mrs. Prowse and Mrs. Irving.

DEATH OF RESIDENT OF LONG RIVER

—Mr. William A. Doughart, a life long resident of Long River, passed away on Thursday, Nov. 10th, at his home at the advanced age of 84 years. The deceased was a prominent farmer on the district and was held in the highest esteem by a wide circle of friends. He was a staunch Presbyterian and adhered to the faith of his fathers at the time of the Union movement. His wife predeceased him about six years ago. There are left to cherish his memory four sons, Austin on the old homestead, Alfred in San Francisco, California; Allen in New London and Andrew at Summerside; also one brother, Franklin, and one sister, Miss Adelaide, of Long River. The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon with a short service at the home followed by a service at Geddie Memorial Church, French River. Mr. Osbourne conducted the service. The sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Thompson. The pallbearers were his three sons, Austin, Allen and Andrew and Messrs. Robert McLeod, John Gillespie and Edgar Gillespie. Interment was in the cemetery adjoining the church. A large number of friends from all parts attended the service at the church. S.

EXCURSIONISTS HERE—About 1000 excursionists left Boston on Thursday for the Maritimes, 123 came to this province, and 90 to the city. Owing to train connections the Island party were compelled to remain in Moncton over night Friday, arriving Saturday. They leave on return this morning.

HOCKEY IN SCOTLAND—"Wen" MacDonald, a student at Edinburgh University, is again prominently mentioned in hockey circles. Playing defence on the Bridge O' Weir team he has proved himself a valuable player and is slated to travel with the team to Venice, Italy, on one of its tours.

The annual meeting of the Charlottetown Golf Club was held last evening and was largely attended. The following officers were elected:

President—L. D. Murray.
Vice President—W. F. Taylor.
Secretary—H. W. Weeks.
Treasurer—W. T. Parker.
Directors—W. E. Cotton, Dr. C. H. Beer, A. B. Cosh, F. B. Conrad.

LEFT WITH 11,000 BAGS OF POTATOES—The S. S. Gaspeia came into Summerside from Charlottetown on Saturday and took on 11,000 bags of potatoes for the Montreal market, besides a quantity of hides and other freight. The steamer which has made fortnightly calls at Summerside during the summer months will leave Montreal on November 21st on her last trip of the season. She will call at Summerside and take on another cargo of potatoes.—S

STRUCK BY CAR—Mr. Lewis Goff of this city was struck by a car while he was walking on low-angle Grafton Street about half past eight last evening. Mr. Goff had come from behind a truck and started to cross the street in front of the P. E. Island Biscuit Factory when a car proceeding from the city struck him and carried him about ten feet. He was rendered unconscious for several minutes, and sustained a number of painful bruises. No bones were broken.

WORK UNDER WAY—Last Saturday the work of digging for the laying of the new water pipe to Falconwood was begun and by last evening 300 yards were completed. The job started at Mt. Edward Road opposite the Experimental Farm down the lane to St. Peter's Road crossing direct, coming out at Mr. Jas. Walker's farm and from there down through the Golf Links. The work is being done by a ditcher and with fine weather should be well underway this fall. The pipe is not here yet otherwise the laying of same could also be undertaken.

OLD AGE CHAMPION HERE—Mr. J. E. Arsenault, formerly for thirty seven years, stationmaster at Wellington, and now 93 years of age and champion old age skater of the world, is at present in the city. On Monday night and yesterday afternoon he spent some time on the Forum Ice. Mr. Arsenault is keen as a razor and enjoyed his fifteen minutes skating immensely. Mr. Arsenault has been invited to give a demonstration at Moncton. He is registered as champion skater of the world for his age with the Amateur Athletic Association of Canada, Montreal. Mr. Arsenault is physically in perfect health, good eyesight, good hearing, splendid lung power, and is anticipating a good season's fun at his favourite pastime.

The spirit of optimism for sport and all lines of athletic endeavour prevailed at the annual meeting of the Abegweit Amateur Athletic Association held last evening in the Board of Trade Rooms. Reports were received from committees in charge of various branches of sport. The President, Dr. F. C. Dougan, occupied the chair.

At an executive meeting following the annual meeting, the following officers and committees were appointed:

President—Mr. John Williams.
Vice-President—Mr. James McCallum.
Treasurer—Mr. B. R. Brown.
Secretary—Mr. Charles Stewart.
Hockey Committee—Messrs. Jas. McCallum, Dr. F. C. Dougan, Geo. Hooper, Chas. Stewart.
Football Committee—Messrs. Neil Mathieson, W. J. McDonald, Jack Connolly.
Baseball Committee—Messrs. Nelson Whitlock, George Francis, E. F. Acorn, Dr. F. C. Dougan.
Track and Field Committee—Messrs. S. F. Doyle, James McCallum, George Hooper, Lou Campbell, Ernest McInnis.
Grounds Committee—Messrs. R. B. Brown, Nelson Whitlock, with power to add to their number.

Social Committee—E. F. Acorn, Earl McInnis.

THURSDAY

CONFINED TO HIS HOME—Mr. Arthur Corney, of Summerside is confined to his home with a broken ankle, which he sustained while at work at his vulcanizing plant. His many friends hope he will soon be out and about again.—S.

QUIET WEDDING—The marriage took place at St. Mary's Rectory, Summerside, on Wednesday morning, Ven. Archdeacon White, D.D., officiating. Mr. James Waite of Sherbrooke, to Miss Mabel Doris Best, of Belmont, Lot 16. Mr. and Mrs. Waite will reside in Sherbrooke where their many friends wish them every happiness.—S.

BRIDE-TO-BE HONOURED—Members of Maple Leaf Rebekah Lodge, Summerside, gathered at their lodge rooms on Thursday evening to honour one of their members, Miss Chapple, who is soon to be married. Members of Prince Edward Lodge I. O. O. F. were also present. Miss Chapple was presented with a lovely floor lamp and silver bread tray. Bridge and auction forty five were played during the evening, the guest of honour receiving a beautiful picture as the guest prize. A delicious lunch was served by the entertainment committee. Heartiest congratulations were extended to the bride-to-be by all present as they took their leave. S.

WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Tuesday afternoon at Trinity parsonage, Summerside, when Miss Elizabeth Chappell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Chappell of Sherbrooke, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Mountain, son of the late James Mountain and Mrs. Mountain of Summerside. Rev. L. B. Campbell was the officiating clergyman. The bride was dressed in blue chiffon velvet with hat to match, and was attended by Miss Thelma Allen. The groom was supported by Mr. James Chappell, brother of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party motored to Charlottetown. On their return a reception was given them at their lovely new home on King Street, when a number of friends extended their congratulations. A band of charivariers dressed in costume were given a cordial welcome by the happy couple. Mr. and Mrs. Mountain have the best wishes of many friends for their future happiness. S.

NEW PASTOR FOR CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH—Rev. Carlyle Waterworth with his wife and child arrived on Wednesday evening in Summerside and has taken up his residence in the Christian Church Parsonage. He will assume the charge of the Church on Sunday and will occupy the pulpit at the morning and evening service. He has been stationed at Hillsburg Ont. He is the son of Rev. Mr. Waterworth of the Central Christian Church at Montague. Needless to say Rev. Mr. Waterworth and his family are being cordially welcomed by the congregation of his new pastorate and citizens generally.—S

The death occurred on Tuesday last, under particularly sad circumstances, of Mrs. Harry S. Wood, Wood Islands, who had been a patient in the P. E. I. Hospital for a short time, and was leaving for home on that day. As she was entering the automobile with her infant, she collapsed. Kindly hands carried her back into the hospital where she passed away. Besides her sorrowing husband, she leaves three children, and the following sisters: Mrs. J. Harry Hill, City; Mrs. Hector Stewart; Wood Islands; Miss Olga McMillan, R. N., who attended her during her illness, and Miss Verbena McMillan, Boston, who arrived in the city by train last night.

Her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. James C. McMillan, Wood Islands, also survive.

To the bereaved the Guardian extends heartfelt sympathy.

At Alma, November 8, 1932, there passed her eternal reward Sarah Rix, widow of the late Wm. A. Dunbar, at the advanced age of 92 years. Born at Bedeque, she moved with her husband and one child to Alma 67 years ago, and lived there the greater part of her life. She lived an exemplary Christian life and was a member of the Alma Baptist Church, and remains were carried to their last resting place beside her husband by her grandsons. The honorary pall bearers were, Messrs. John Campbell, John Hammill Wm. Irving, and S. F. Zell. The funeral was conducted by the Rev. J. C. Peacock, assisted by the Rev. W. S. Weir. Besides a large number of friends there are left to love and honor her memory, one brother, Benjamin Rix of Bayside and the following sons and daughters, Hugh B. Joseph A. and Jas. W. of Alma, and Dr. D. A. Dunbar of Vancouver. Mrs. Adelaide Haywood, who tenderly care for her in her last illness, Mrs. John Work of Hamilton, Ont., and Mrs. Amos Gorrill, Glenwood, one daughter, Mrs. (Rev.) J. B. Champron predeceased her by six months. There are also 26 grandchildren and 26 great grandchildren. To the bereaved relatives sincere sympathy and condolence is extended.

Accidentally coming in contact with a live wire carrying 6,600 volts, Mr. Earl Ross, a lineman of the Maritime Electric Company was instantly electrocuted at Alberty Plains yesterday.

It appears that Mr. Ross and a fellow lineman, Mr. McKay, were aloft on one of the Company's posts, and had just completed installing a third transformer for the purpose of providing additional electrical power to run the mill owned by Mr. Shaw MacMillan, Alberty Plains and were in the act of descending, Mr. Ross having removed his belt and rubber g'oves, when his bare wrist accidentally came in contact with the live wire with fatal results. Mr. Ross was taken to the ground and medical aid immediately summoned. Dr. Collins arrived within a few minutes of the accident and endeavoured to resuscitate the victim, but was forced at the end of three-quarters of an hour to abandon all hope.

Mr. Ross was a most competent lineman of the Maritime Electric Company and last year along with Mr. Rankin MacLaine, was instrumental in building the high voltage line from Charlottetown to Montague. It was thus while faithfully engaged in concluding the work of installing the mill with an electric motor for the purpose of providing auxiliary power that he came to his untimely end.

Mr. Ross was a son of the late John Ross, of Stanhope, and is survived by a widow and three children, Lloyd, Gordon and Yvonne; also by four brothers and three sisters, viz., Watson, Charlottetown; William, George and Rupert, in Stanhope; Mrs. Augustus Downe and Mrs. L. E. Shaw, Charlottetown, and Mrs. Fulton Piggott, Savage Harbor.

FRIDAY

ST. PAUL'S HALL REDECORATED—In preparation for the winter's games, St. Paul's Hall, Summerside, has been thoroughly redecorated. The walls and ceiling have been tinted and the whole has a very neat appearance. The annual tea and bazaar held in the hall on Tuesday and Wednesday by the Sisters of St. Mary's Academy was very successful. The C. Y. M. L. will commence their usual volleyball practices in the very near future and it is expected there will be some friendly competition with other teams during the season.—S

Death's Angel came with startling suddenness to the Ch'Town Hospital on November 3rd, and summoned the soul of John R. Bruce to his eternal reward.

Afflicted with heart trouble his sufferings, at times excruciating, were borne with such rare patience and cheerfulness as to commend the admiration of all.

The sweet consolation of an abiding faith in a Merciful Redeemer, and the life beyond sustained him in his hour of need.

A faithful member of Zion Presbyterian Church, serving for many years as elder, the daily visits of his beloved pastor with sweet words of hope and peace afforded him much happiness.

His kindly, generous nature made him friend of all and he will be missed by a wide circle of friends.

On Friday, November 5th the remains were placed in the church, where friends and relatives assembled to pay a last tribute of love and respect to one whose serene acceptance of the decree of Divine Providence was an inspiration to all.

The beautiful service for the departed and a sermon appropriate to the occasion was delivered by the Minister Rev. G. C. Webster, after which the funeral cortege wended its way to Orwell Head Cemetery, the remains being laid beside that of his wife who predeceased him 29 years, there to await the Resurrection Morn.

STUDY GROUP—The Prince of Wales Study Group met at Queen Square School on Nov. 5th at 10.30 a. m. with about forty teachers present. The secretary read the minutes of last day's group. Supervisor Court explained a very interesting method of teaching geography from Grade V to Grade VIII followed by a discussion of winds by Superintendent MacPhail. The Question Box was then read. Nature Study including a program for Junior Grades for the month of January and a lesson on Temperance are to be studied at the next meeting to be held November 26th.

On the evening of Nov. 7th upwards of eighty invited guests met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dingwell, North Lake, the occasion being the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. Mrs. Seldon McLean entertained the guests at the opening with instrumental music rendered in her usual masterly style. Community singing was then engaged in, which was very much enjoyed by all present. Deserving of special mention was a solo given by Miss Martha Robertson entitled "My Task." Very fine selection was very beautifully rendered.

Rev. H. R. Bell then sang several Scotch songs in his inimitable style, Mrs. McLean accompanying him on the piano.

Recitations were given by Mrs. S. J. Rose, Mrs. Allan Cameron and Mrs. Garfield Stewart. Mr. J. H. Baker made some congratulatory remarks, after which he recited one of his original poems which though composed a number of years ago are ever in demand for entertainment.
