ENGLISH BLEND CIGARETTES

EB-1041

Perhaps the hardest blow of all for Reichsmarshal Hermann Goering after being taken prisoner was the fact that he had to take off the cute medals with which his jacket ordinarily was plated. He is pictured above, removing them during processing as a prisoner of war at Augsburg, Germany.

Security and Opportunity FOR WOMEN

"A genuine new deal for women, not merely pious and token concessions"

John Bracken

As every woman knows, a lot has been said about the splendid contributions which women have made in many lines of national endeavour. But the King Government has side-stepped the issue when it comes to doing anything about the rights of women.

To these measures John Bracken is pledged:
 • To provide a uniform and comprehensive security plan for all Canadians, including extended unemployment insurance coverage, accident and sickness benefits, children's allowances, maternity benefits, widows' benefits, retirement pensions and increased old age pensions at age 65.

John Bracken will give you definite action!
 "It is the policy of this party," he says, "to see that women are given the opportunity to take their full place in the councils of the nation, in the Cabinet, in the Senate and on government boards administering public business."

• To set up a positive national health programme including improved nutritional standards, an efficient preventive health service and a contributory health insurance scheme.

John Bracken's policies for social betterment also reflect his awareness of the rights and wishes of the women of Canada. Perhaps the fact that he is a family man himself influenced him as he shaped these policies, for they give Canadian women the assurance of economic security and better opportunities for their children—advantages which women have always sought for themselves and their families. In short, John Bracken's objectives are the objectives of Canadian women everywhere.

No token gestures, these, but definite guarantees that the rights and aspirations of women will be backed by legislation when John Bracken takes up the reins of government! Only the Progressive Conservative Party has a practical program designed to cure the social and economic ills which women have long recognized and sought to overcome. Only this Party offers a genuine new deal to the women of Canada.

EQUAL RIGHTS FOR WOMEN IN BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY

The Progressive Conservative Party recognizes that Canadian women have earned the right to take their place, on equal terms, beside men in business and industry. It stands for the principle of equal pay for equal work and equality of opportunity and treatment in other respects as between men and women. Taxation and other reforms to encourage the establishment of new businesses will open to enterprising women new and better opportunities to engage in profitable business for themselves, and to play their full part in the business of the nation.

ACTION ON HOUSING

This Party is pledged to a nation-wide housing program. It will co-operate with the Provinces, the municipalities, the building trades and other agencies for immediate construction of modern apartments and homes throughout Canada.

BETTER FARM INCOMES

John Bracken, himself a farmer, is pledged to see that—
 • Farmers get prices that are in line with what they have to pay for goods and services.
 • Markets for agricultural products are expanded, both at home and abroad.

Sgt. Aubrey Cosens, of Latchford, Ont., a railwayman in civil life, (upper right) is the only soldier of the Canadian Army of this war to be awarded the Victoria Cross posthumously. The award was announced by the Minister of National Defence. He was killed by a sniper's bullet several minutes after the action which earned him the Empire's highest award for valor. The action was at the capture of Mooshoof in Holland. Upper left shows Sgt. Cosens's father, Charles E. Cosens, in the kitchen of his Latchford home, after he heard of the award, and at the bottom, Sgt. Cosens's two young sons, Bobby 6, and Nelly 5, playing with souvenirs he sent home from Germany, too young to realize the great honor to their name. — (Canadian Army Photo).
