

An old favorite returns — Fry's VANILLA CREAM TABLET

You've wanted it back. Here it is! FRY'S Vanilla Cream Tablet—it has been off the market for a long time but it's here to stay, and all good candy dealers have it for you. Has the same rich smooth chocolate—and the same delicious vanilla cream centre you liked so well.

Boy Scout series of cards explaining drill, signals, woodcraft, etc., go with Fry's Vanilla Cream Tablet.

THE IRISH BOUNDARY DISPUTE

This map indicates the present division between Ulster and the Free State, which, it was reported, had been settled in conference between Craig and Cosgrave. An unqualified denial of this agreement comes from Premier Craig.

TO BE MADE BISHOP.—Distinguished Catholic prelates of three countries will officiate at the consecration of Monsignor Francis C. Kelly, a native of Prince Edward Island, as Bishop of Oklahoma in the Cathedral of the Holy Name at Chicago, Oct. 2, says the New Freeman. His Eminence, George Cardinal Mundelein, Archbishop of Chicago, will be the consecrating prelate. The co-consecrators will be Archbishop Rubly Flores, of Michoacan, Mexico, and Archbishop Sinnott, of Winnipeg, also a son of Prince Edward Island. The ceremonies will begin at 9.30 in the morning. The resignation of Msgr. Kelly as president of the Catholic Church Extension Society will become effective on Sept. 30, Msgr. Wm. D. O'Brien, now vice-president, will succeed temporarily to the presidency and to the management of "Extension Magazine."

MT. ALBION.—The annual meeting of this Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Hedley Jenkins on Tuesday, Sept 2nd. Fourteen members and several visitors being present. Meeting opened with President presiding. After the usual opening exercises and unfinished business it was decided to hold an Ice Cream Social on Sept. 12th, in aid of School Fair Fund. A very encouraging report of the year's work was read by the retiring officers, ($56.50). Fifty six dollars and fifty cents was raised during the year which was expended in building Orphanage, in painting interior of School and other School improvements. The following Officers were appointed for ensuing year, Pres.—Mrs. R. W. Chandler, re-elected. Vice Pres.—Mrs. Robt. Jenkins (re-elected). Treas.—Mrs. Benj. Jenkins. Sec'y—Elsie S. Brown. A vote of thanks was tendered the retiring officers, also Pres and Vice-Pres, who were re-elected for their untiring efforts to make the Institute the success it proved to be during its first year. Meeting closed by singing of National Anthem, next meeting will be held at home of Mrs. Walter R. Brown.

SADLY BEREAVED HOME.—At Kensington recently, Mary Ann McIntyre, aged 68 years. She was a member of the household of John Forristal, Irish town, of whom she was a relative. She was a lady of superior womanly qualities and was held in the highest esteem by her many friends. She was buried in the parish cemetery at Indian River, Rev. Mr. Gillis celebrating a High Mass of Requiem and performing the solemn obsequies.—Y.

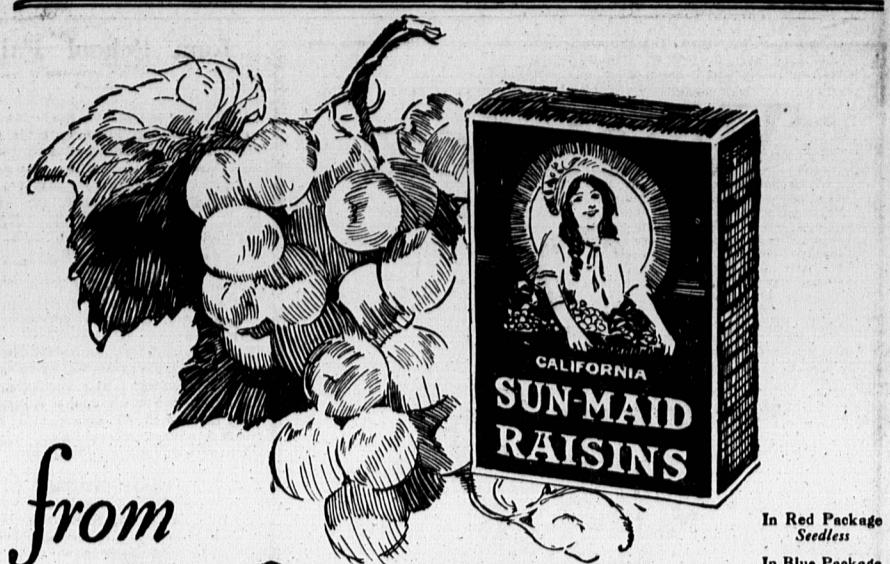

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY.—The seventy-fourth birthday of Hon. Dr. William Pugsley was observed quietly on Saturday at his residence at Rothesay when a cosy dinner was served by Mrs. Pugsley in the evening for a few close friends. Dr. Pugsley also received many good wishes by letters and telegrams. Bountiful gifts of flowers were also a visible token of the esteem of his neighbors and friends in Rothesay and in the city. Dr. and Mrs. Pugsley returned on Saturday from Charlottetown. Both were well and Mrs. Pugsley said that Dr. Pugsley was very happy on the occasion of his celebration of his natal day. They do not expect to leave home again for some time.—The Telegraph-Journal.

OPTOMETRIC ASSOCIATION.—The P. E. Island Optometrists held their annual meeting in Charlottetown on Sept. 17th, representatives being present from both Montserrat and Summerside. After routine business, an enthusiastic discussion took place, with regard to next year's convention of the Maritime Optometric Association, which by invitation, is to be held in Charlottetown. Optometrists from all over the Maritime Provinces have signified their intention to attend, and a big time for Optometry is expected. The question of obtaining further legislation to protect both the public and the profession from the activities of travelling fakirs was discussed, and it is hoped before long that the present Act will be so strengthened as to shut those fellows out of our Province. The officers elected for next year are—President—H. T. Colvin, Summerside. (re-elected) Vice President—H. J. Mabon, Montserrat. Secy.—G. F. Hutcheson, Charlottetown. The officers, together with E. W. Taylor and L. R. Romeke, constitute the executive.

from Perfect Grapes these finer raisins.

Raisins—good raisins—are grapes dried in the sun. Nothing more. They can be no better than the grapes from which they are made. The grapes for Sun-Maid Raisins are grown in the finest vineyards in the world—in the beautiful San Joaquin Valley of California. Only the tenderest and sweetest are selected for Sun-Maids. They are dried in the clean, mellow sunshine. Then they are so thoroughly cleaned and sterilized that they do not require washing before use. In the red or blue package with the smiling Sun-Maid girl they bring you all of the goodness of the perfect raisins from which they are made. Always look for the Sun-Maid girl upon the package. Throughout the world she is the sign of highest quality in raisins. In all your cooking—wherever you use raisins use Sun-Maids. You will notice the difference—the finer, more delicate flavor. You can get this extra goodness only with Sun-Maid Raisins.
