The game was refereed by Dr. A. O'Leary, who enforced strict adherence to national rules and handed out penalties without fear or favor.

The four center players are getting into better shape with each succeeding game, and may soon be classed with the regulars. Of the four games played each side has won two. The date of the deciding game will be announced later.

A skating carnival will be held on February 16th.

The account of the above game is a clipping from an old paper of 1923.

Kidneys Must Clean Out Acids

Your body cleans out excess acids and poisons through the kidneys. The kidneys are tiny delicate filters of filters. They filter out the acids and poisons from the blood and pass them out of the body through the urine. If the kidneys are not working properly, the acids and poisons build up in the blood and cause various ailments. It is important to keep the kidneys clean and healthy. There are many ways to do this, including drinking plenty of water, eating a healthy diet, and exercising regularly.

NATIVE OF NOVA SCOTIA—In the report of the trial of a Bruce Thompson in a recent issue of the Guardian, who had been charged with the fraudulent conversion of a sum of money, it was stated that he was an Islander. This was incorrect, although the name of the defendant was a native of Nova Scotia, and had been brought back from Truro, N. S., for trial.

TYPHOID SITUATION WELL IN HAND—Dr. E. T. Tanton, Health Officer for the Town of Summerside, reported on Saturday morning that there were no new cases of typhoid in the town and that those patients suffering from the disease were improving. The milk had been tested and no traces of the germ found in the samples. Dr. Tanton felt that with reasonable precautions no undue alarm need be felt. It was known where the infection came from, as there are so many sources from which the germ can be obtained. The milk was analyzed some few months ago and found to be pure, but as an extra precaution it had been tested for St. John for a further test.

Charles Kennedy their left-winger is also one of our successful benedicts. In partnership with his brother Preston, having the most up-to-date general store here.

Claude Bearsto right-winger is in Boston, Mass., where he is on the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

D. McKinnon one of their two spares is now located in Boston, Mass.

R. Simpson their other spare was one of Charlottetown's leading hockey men, up to the time he was also, when on a business trip to Montreal he was instantly killed by a train there.

Many interesting stories are told by these old timers, of their hockey conquests, of other days, and they are still of the opinion, that they will show up some of our present day talent, and your scribe shares their opinion to a certain extent for without a doubt he is sure to make them look very much worse, if they undertook to play the game once again.

THE WEST PRINCE YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNION

This union was organized in the Fall of 1936, object being to improve the young people's work in this part of Prince Edward Island. Since the first Young People's Rally in Emsdale United Church, Oct. 1937, with President Don Campbell presiding. Reports from the four branches are quite favorable. All three sessions were well attended and a keen interest was shown by all. The effort has been made to have a more organized and well run union. We have now added to our small number five additional unions, making a total of nine.

Following is a list of our local unions: Alberton, Montrose, Emsdale, St. John's, and a large number of others. All unions have been active in all the different branches and quite a number of contributions to the Young People's Union have been made. Another benefit derived from our rally was our Leadership Training Course, held on O'Leary Nov. 28, 1937. Topics for study being Leadership Training and How to Enjoy the Bible. Great interest was taken in this course, and quite a number of certificates have been presented recently at church services to members completing the course.

It is hoped to hold another training school earlier this year in order that the road conditions will be more favorable.

The Genewald Y. P. U. presented a Christmas programme in school on Monday night. The programme was very successful and a large number of gifts were presented to the members.

This union has a membership of over forty, and real work is being done. The members are being held. Six dollars has been raised for the Dickson project, and ten dollars for the Y. P. U. since October.

The Montrose Y. P. U. held their weekly meeting in Montrose Hall, on Wednesday evening, February 16th, when they entertained the members of the Alberton Union. The Christian Culture group in charge under the leadership of Ruth Campbell, with the President, Don Campbell, presiding. The meeting opened with a lively sing song. Scripture was read from Mark 6 and Luke 10, recited by Dorothy and Eric Dunbar. The president led in prayer. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Presently the members were asked to contribute to the Y. P. U. finance committee was appointed for the year as follows: Alan McLeod, Bertha Bowness and Dorothy Dunbar. It was decided to have the librarian return the books to the P. E. I. Library and request a new one. The secretary was also requested to write and thank them for the fine collection of books received. The next meeting is to be held in Montrose Hall, where Bertha Bowness, leader of Christian Missionary Group will take charge. A literary number entitled "Reading" was recited by Helen Hardy, our secretary.

A talk on the topic "Business for the King" was given by Ramsay Hardy. The musical number was a duet by Perley Hardy and Eric Corbett of Alberton, with guitar accompaniment. Mr. Earl Leard of Cascopecum, was the guest of honor for the West Prince Union, who had attended the Older Boy's Parliament in Wolfville gave a very interesting talk. First thanking the Group for their support, he continued very capably to describe his trip and the work carried on by the group. He then presented a number of thanks was extended to Mr. Leard for his most inspiring address. A short reading, "What Will Become of Today's Youth" was given by Vera Fridham. The meeting closed with hymn and Mizpah Benediction. The recreational period was under the direction of Mrs. B. B. Clark, our Social Convener. The Alberton Young People moved a vote of thanks to the Montrose Union for the enjoyable evening spent. Lunch was served, and the evening came to a close by singing "God Save the King".

George Boudreau went a long time on his way to be chief housekeeper of the Commons building until his retirement a few years ago. Ernest Boudreau, now a Roman Catholic priest at Stettler, Alta. H. White a pace in the early years, returned to the House of Commons as a member for the old Victoria-Albert riding in 1906. He was in the House until 1912, when he was elected to the House of Commons as a member for the old Victoria-Albert riding in 1912. Not a man in France were at least one writer of books has studied the question from a purely racial angle. Says Dr. R. Martial, leader of the "French Race": "Canada in 75 years will become two, if not three countries—a French republic in the east, an English-speaking Dominion in the west, with the Moritians tagging off unable to make up their minds what to do." Dr. Martial has never met the Moritians and doesn't know what strong-minded folk they are.

The French republic, says Dr. Martial, will not be linked with France, but will be an independent French country in America. His reasons are based upon population statistics and a belief that the French-like the Scotch—cannot be absorbed into another race, their own characteristics being too strong.

Celebrates Her 104th Birthday At Arichat, N. S.

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) ARICHAT, N. S. Feb. 27.—On isolated Janvre Island, 15 miles from this Cape Breton town, a little old lady celebrated her 104th birthday quietly Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Judie Doary has lived practically all her life in the village of Janvre Harbour, where, as an old inhabitant, she occupies a unique place in the esteem of the handful of residents.

There is no telephone or telegraph communication between Janvre Island and Madama Island, where Arichat, county seat of Richmond County, is situated. By boat and sled, a visitor from Janvre Island brought news of yesterday's birthday celebration to Arichat today.

It was just another day to Mrs. Doary, and apparently nobody in Janvre Harbour got very excited about her 104th birthday—Mrs. Doary least of all. She went right ahead with her knitting.

Knitting is her greatest time-consuming, in good health, with keen eyes and good hearing, she knits continually and at considerable speed. She still moves about with ease, and can take a hand at cooking when the occasion merits it, but she'd rather knit.

In addition to Pauline Hoffman, a native of Dresden, Germany, the Senate accepted to improve on the Gustave Rumlach, 27, a former United States Army sergeant once stationed in the Panama Canal zone and Erich Caser, a United States Army private stationed at Mitchell Field.

Caser was born in Leipzig, Germany, immigrated to the United States in 1914, and lived there many years. Asked if Germany was the intended target of the proposed American program for the United States Army private stationed at Mitchell Field.

"You'll have to draw your own inference," (Caser) replied. "I'm very interested in the angle of the case—the asserted attempt by Rumlach to obtain American passports for the purpose of aiding German spies to enter Russia."

Government agents said Rumlach attempted to impart on a state secretary Hull in a telephone conversation with the local passport bureau, in which he reportedly demanded 50 passports to be sent to him at a midtown hotel.

Quickly arrested, "Mr. Weston" stubbornly maintained silence for three days, refusing to disclose his identity until he was confronted with a key code and coded letters seized from Pauline Hoffman when the S. S. Europa docked.

Then "Mr. Weston" admitted he was Rumlach. Vetterli said the ex-army sergeant made a complete and Resources department in Ottawa.

Tommy Gorman, a former 40-day's word of sport as manager of the American hockey team, was formerly a parliamentary page and later sports editor of the Ottawa Citizen.

Senate pages who benefited by their early training were the late Charles Young who entered at the time of Confederation and Joseph Murphy, clerk of the Senate, Alphonse Roy, who is now assistant chief of the Clerk of Committees and H. D. Gillman, deputy assistant.

Formerly the pages supplied their own uniforms, but when a new government building was opened in 1919 after the fire in 1918 suits were provided by the government and the pages' contributions were changed to "pennies." White ties are worn by Senate pages to distinguish them from the black-tied House pages.

From the old school of House page boys is Louis Boulet, chief of the branch of parliamentary page boys who entered the service in 1903 and because of shortness of status was able to remain 13 years. Gradually he rose to assistant messenger, clerk of the court, assistant to the chief of the branch of parliamentary page boys until his appointment to his present position last year.

The late W. C. Bowles held the record for longest time in civil service pages among the Commons pages, holding the position of Clerk of the Journals before his death.

Pages' Paths Often Marked With Success

(By The Canadian Press) OTTAWA, Feb. 27.—Employment at Feb. 1, 1938 showed further contraction according to data tabulated by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, from 10,402 firms whose payrolls aggregated 1,652,551 persons, compared with 1,099,603 on Jan. 1.

The reduction of 29,652 workers, or 2.7 per cent, "compared favorably with the small gain that usually though not invariably has been indicated at Feb. 1 in the experience of years since 1921," says the bureau's report.

Unemployment declined from 1134 at Jan. 1 to 1104 at Feb. 1 but even then was still higher than at any other Feb. 1, except in 1929, and was practically the same as at Feb. 1, 1929.

These lads are appointed on recommendation of a senator, M. P., school principal or good character, alertness and intelligence.
