

THE KING'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Montague, Capt. W. A. Johnston, Agent, and in Souris, A. J. McDonald, Agent.

Latest news, first of all.

Miss Annie Murphy, of Freeport, Lot 1, is visiting friends in Hope River.

T. J. Cass, North River, was among the visitors at the Georgetown Exhibition, Thursday.

Major Donald P. Malcolm, Boston, who has been spending his holidays at the Old Homestead, Cardigan, at a few days ago to resume duties of Mitchell's Military Academy in Massachusetts, where he is taking a course preparatory to entering the army.

On Friday, Sept 17th, at Spence's Bridge, British Columbia, a sad accident occurred which resulted in the death of Leslie Stewart, youngest son of J. and Mrs Stewart of Conquer-Cross, Prince Edward Island. The deceased, who was employed on one of the C. P. R. bridge crews, was working on top of the coal bunkers which are being erected there, when he fell through the coal chute, on to the rail below, being instantly killed. The body was left for Prince Edward Island in charge of his brothers Charles and Archie, who were both working on the same bridge crew, with their young brother, and it is indeed a sad home coming for them after an absence from the Province of about five years. The Stuart boys were prime favorites among those with whom they worked, and the family have the sincerest sympathy of all in the great loss they have sustained. A Memorial Service was held at Spence's Bridge, during which feeling reference was made to the sad fatality which had so recently occurred in the district.

...Mrs. F. T. McNally, West Superior, Wis., who has been spending the summer with her friends in Hope River, has returned home.

...The branch office of the Charlotte-town Branch will be found in the store of A. J. McDonald & Co., Souris. A. J. McDonald is the agent. 6-30drft.

...James McLeod, who has been spending the past three weeks at his home in Montague, left Saturday on return to Wolfville to resume his studies at Acadia College.

...The following reference is repeated owing to a typographical error. The remains of Lorne P. Prowse, who died at Winnipeg on the 25th inst, were brought over by the Empress Friday evening, and forwarded to Murray Harbor. The deceased was a son of I. L. Prowse, Murray Harbor, and has been away for seven years. For six years he worked for the C. N. R. Co Engineering, his brother Cecil is manager of a coal Co in Vancouver. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon.

...Allan McPherson, who recently left for the Pacific Coast to spend the winter, can be numbered with the "successful Islanders abroad." He has spent the summer visiting friends at his old home at Head of Montague and vicinity. The greater part of his time while away was spent in Fairbanks, Alaska, and other mining centres, where he was very successful. While home, being informed of the possibility of coal being on the premises of James Creed, Allou, he paid that gentleman a visit and took some pains in looking up the so-called strike. He was very favorably impressed with the lead they found, and stated that the prospects were good in every particular. It is hoped that Mr. McPherson will have a pleasant stay away, and eventually make this his residence.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

"L. M. Poole & Co have for sale a quantity of hair for plastering. 10-4dlf.

DIED.

MEIKLE—At his residence, Darlington, P. E. I., on Sept. 28th, 1939, after a short illness, John Meikle, aged 82 years, loved and respected by all who knew him. (Pat. and Ex. please copy.)

HOW THE SCRAP STARTED. Jones stepped on Smith's favorite corn and of course there was trouble. What Smith needed is Putnam's Corn Extractor—that painless remedy for corns and warts that cures in

The Sunlight Soap advertisement text.

THE WINNERS AT COLUMBUS

COLUMBUS, O., October 2—Darryl Hal, Lady Statley and Maconda, winners of today's grand circuit races, were first choices. Their events were decided in straight heats. Major Malclose, who made what feature there was by the last heat of the local meet, occurred the only spill of the meeting. Hal, Perry, Laura W. and Dillon Queen were in the pile, out of which both horses and drivers came out of it without injury. The judges placed the victims of the accident.

"See the 'College Ulsters' at Browns'. The coat that will be worn by all the most particular dressers. Pick yours while the ranges are large. H. H. Brown, The young man's man. 10-22drft.

"Attend Prowse Bros Ltd's big clearing sale of all their carpet, oilcloths, etc. The entire stock being closing out at discounts of 25, 33 to 50 per cent of regular prices. Nothing reserved.—Prowse Bros, Ltd. 10-14drft.

Go to Paton's for furniture. 9-17drft

ARE YOU GOING TO THE EXHIBITION AT PICTOU

On Tuesday and Wednesday the 5th and 6th, of October, instant, an Agricultural Exhibition and Live Stock Show will be held at Pictou, and the entries for the show being now all in the hands of the Secretariat it is expected there will be a first class exhibition.

The horses from Pictou County took several prizes at the Halifax Exhibition, and the same horses may be seen at Pictou again where they will come into competition with a large number of other good horses. The entry being the largest for years. There will be excursion rates by S. S. Northumberland on Tuesday, tickets good to return until Thursday.

The Exhibition Buildings will be open on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings as well as during the day.

Nevertheless, organized wickedness is a fearful thing. Capitalism organized—what tyranny it means! Labor organized—what brutality it manifests! The liquor traffic organi-

There is one weakness in organized wickedness, and that is that someone belonging to the compact will leak the secret. And such a likelihood may prove to be a first link in a remarkable deliverance which only an overruling Providence can work out. An alert boy can be God's messenger in affairs of the most far-reaching importance. The Lord puts the men who swear mighty oaths, about what they should surely do, to derision. He uses a boy with his wit, quickened by affection, to shatter and blast their fiendish designs.

Paul gets started on the way to Rome. He wants to see it and to preach Christ crucified there. It is his holy ambition. How he would have chafed under his imprisonment by the way if his ambition had not been surrendered to God and holy! Now, however, he can watch and wait and pray and preach; "for to him to live is Christ," and prison or palace is heaven. He will say to governors and ecclesiastics and kings—Except for the matter of these bonds I would not exchange with you, not for a moment. I would to God you had my joy.

SUBSCRIPTION LIST. The Anti-Tuberculosis subscription list is now open. One dollar is the annual membership fee, but it is fully expected that business men and all interested in stamping out this dread disease will subscribe liberally. A Dispensary is to be opened in this City at once, and no doubt this will lead up in time to the establishment of a Sanatoria in the Province. James Paton 25 A. M. Peters 25 W. F. Tidmarsh 25 S. R. Jenkins, M. D. 25 The following amounts have been subscribed: Judge Fitzgerald $25 Dr. Clift 15 C. H. B. Londworth 10 J. F. Hood 5 A. L. Fraser, M. P. 5 A Friend 10

One Cough A cough, just a little cough. It may not amount to much. Or, it may amount to everything! Some keep coughing until the lung tissues are seriously injured. Others stop their cough with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Sold for seventy years. How long have you known it?

One Cough advertisement text.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

OCTOBER 10. PAUL A PRISONER—THE PLOT. Acts 23:11,24. GOLDEN TEXT.

I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress; my God in whom I trust.—Psalm 91:2.

POINTED SUGGESTIONS. By Rev D. W. Snider. Do not fail to read carefully the passage between the last lesson-text and this one. None of Paul's addresses should be overlooked, nor any of the recorded scenes in his eventful life. In the present case the reason for the intense excitement and bitterness which followed upon his arrest and which resulted in the infamous plot to kill him is made plain by such a reading.

While the apostle is rejoicing in the Divine fellowship and encouragement which is granted to him in the castle, or has gone peacefully to sleep pillows upon the cheering assurances of his Lord, there are others who are busy working up their case, and ripening their purpose, against him. The devil is a master-hand at night-work. By the time Paul was well awake in the morning, forty men were an organized company to put him to death and so plotted, each to the other, to do it that their failure meant starvation.

Likewise good men often sleep with a clear conscience while wicked men plot against them. Why does God permit it? That may be an interesting question to discuss. But all interesting things are not profitable. More profit and just as much interest lies in the faithful testing of such promises as this one: "The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear Him, and delivereth them."

Paul gets started on the way to Rome. He wants to see it and to preach Christ crucified there. It is his holy ambition. How he would have chafed under his imprisonment by the way if his ambition had not been surrendered to God and holy! Now, however, he can watch and wait and pray and preach; "for to him to live is Christ," and prison or palace is heaven. He will say to governors and ecclesiastics and kings—Except for the matter of these bonds I would not exchange with you, not for a moment. I would to God you had my joy.

SUBSCRIPTION LIST. The Anti-Tuberculosis subscription list is now open. One dollar is the annual membership fee, but it is fully expected that business men and all interested in stamping out this dread disease will subscribe liberally. A Dispensary is to be opened in this City at once, and no doubt this will lead up in time to the establishment of a Sanatoria in the Province. James Paton 25 A. M. Peters 25 W. F. Tidmarsh 25 S. R. Jenkins, M. D. 25 The following amounts have been subscribed: Judge Fitzgerald $25 Dr. Clift 15 C. H. B. Londworth 10 J. F. Hood 5 A. L. Fraser, M. P. 5 A Friend 10

Any Guardian reader who receives a dimly printed, badly printed, badly folded, badly cut, badly addressed, badly wrapped, torn, soiled or incomplete paper of whatever issue will kindly notify the Subscription Department at once.

Are you troubled with your roof? If so, find out about Carpenter-Morror Roofing, if you do your roof troubles will be at an end. This roofing is a tough, rubber-like material which offers perfect protection from the weather. Fennell & Chandler sells it and gives an absolute guarantee of satisfactory results.

Paton's for quality in furs. 9-17drft

Paton's for quality in furs. 9-17drft

Paton's for quality in furs. 9-17drft

Paton's for quality in furs. 9-17drft

Paton's for quality in furs. 9-17drft

Paton's for quality in furs. 9-17drft

Sanitary Lesson. Of course, you realize the importance of absolute cleanliness in the manufacture of foods and candy, but do you discriminate rightly when purchasing? The real imported "Tobler's" Swiss Milk Chocolate is manufactured under the Swiss Government's control. Modern intricate machinery does away with all chances of contact with workman's hands. Sold in 5, 10, 20, 40c. packages, and at 50c. per lb. Imported by MacLure & Langley, Limited, Toronto.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis were also in the cast and displayed histrionic ability. We may say that the "jag" worn by Mr. Cunningham was realistic and the same applies to Mr. McCunn's portrayal of that sort of thing. For ruddy prohibitionists they did the stunt admirably. Taken on the whole the play was admirably presented, the stage fixtures and scenery were good, the solos and quartettes excellent and the work of the orchestra high class. The whole performance reflected credit on the actors and actresses and was decidedly a letter show than most of the professional work seen in these parts. We only hope as soon as cool weather arrives, that the play will be put on the boards at Westville as well.—The Old Homestead will be presented in the Opera House, Ch'town, Oct. 6th and 7th. Popular prices will prevail, tickets being 25, 35 and 50 cents. A treat is in store for theatre goers. Seats on sale Monday at ten o'clock a.m. at the usual places.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis were also in the cast and displayed histrionic ability. We may say that the "jag" worn by Mr. Cunningham was realistic and the same applies to Mr. McCunn's portrayal of that sort of thing. For ruddy prohibitionists they did the stunt admirably. Taken on the whole the play was admirably presented, the stage fixtures and scenery were good, the solos and quartettes excellent and the work of the orchestra high class. The whole performance reflected credit on the actors and actresses and was decidedly a letter show than most of the professional work seen in these parts. We only hope as soon as cool weather arrives, that the play will be put on the boards at Westville as well.—The Old Homestead will be presented in the Opera House, Ch'town, Oct. 6th and 7th. Popular prices will prevail, tickets being 25, 35 and 50 cents. A treat is in store for theatre goers. Seats on sale Monday at ten o'clock a.m. at the usual places.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis were also in the cast and displayed histrionic ability. We may say that the "jag" worn by Mr. Cunningham was realistic and the same applies to Mr. McCunn's portrayal of that sort of thing. For ruddy prohibitionists they did the stunt admirably. Taken on the whole the play was admirably presented, the stage fixtures and scenery were good, the solos and quartettes excellent and the work of the orchestra high class. The whole performance reflected credit on the actors and actresses and was decidedly a letter show than most of the professional work seen in these parts. We only hope as soon as cool weather arrives, that the play will be put on the boards at Westville as well.—The Old Homestead will be presented in the Opera House, Ch'town, Oct. 6th and 7th. Popular prices will prevail, tickets being 25, 35 and 50 cents. A treat is in store for theatre goers. Seats on sale Monday at ten o'clock a.m. at the usual places.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis were also in the cast and displayed histrionic ability. We may say that the "jag" worn by Mr. Cunningham was realistic and the same applies to Mr. McCunn's portrayal of that sort of thing. For ruddy prohibitionists they did the stunt admirably. Taken on the whole the play was admirably presented, the stage fixtures and scenery were good, the solos and quartettes excellent and the work of the orchestra high class. The whole performance reflected credit on the actors and actresses and was decidedly a letter show than most of the professional work seen in these parts. We only hope as soon as cool weather arrives, that the play will be put on the boards at Westville as well.—The Old Homestead will be presented in the Opera House, Ch'town, Oct. 6th and 7th. Popular prices will prevail, tickets being 25, 35 and 50 cents. A treat is in store for theatre goers. Seats on sale Monday at ten o'clock a.m. at the usual places.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis were also in the cast and displayed histrionic ability. We may say that the "jag" worn by Mr. Cunningham was realistic and the same applies to Mr. McCunn's portrayal of that sort of thing. For ruddy prohibitionists they did the stunt admirably. Taken on the whole the play was admirably presented, the stage fixtures and scenery were good, the solos and quartettes excellent and the work of the orchestra high class. The whole performance reflected credit on the actors and actresses and was decidedly a letter show than most of the professional work seen in these parts. We only hope as soon as cool weather arrives, that the play will be put on the boards at Westville as well.—The Old Homestead will be presented in the Opera House, Ch'town, Oct. 6th and 7th. Popular prices will prevail, tickets being 25, 35 and 50 cents. A treat is in store for theatre goers. Seats on sale Monday at ten o'clock a.m. at the usual places.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis were also in the cast and displayed histrionic ability. We may say that the "jag" worn by Mr. Cunningham was realistic and the same applies to Mr. McCunn's portrayal of that sort of thing. For ruddy prohibitionists they did the stunt admirably. Taken on the whole the play was admirably presented, the stage fixtures and scenery were good, the solos and quartettes excellent and the work of the orchestra high class. The whole performance reflected credit on the actors and actresses and was decidedly a letter show than most of the professional work seen in these parts. We only hope as soon as cool weather arrives, that the play will be put on the boards at Westville as well.—The Old Homestead will be presented in the Opera House, Ch'town, Oct. 6th and 7th. Popular prices will prevail, tickets being 25, 35 and 50 cents. A treat is in store for theatre goers. Seats on sale Monday at ten o'clock a.m. at the usual places.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis were also in the cast and displayed histrionic ability. We may say that the "jag" worn by Mr. Cunningham was realistic and the same applies to Mr. McCunn's portrayal of that sort of thing. For ruddy prohibitionists they did the stunt admirably. Taken on the whole the play was admirably presented, the stage fixtures and scenery were good, the solos and quartettes excellent and the work of the orchestra high class. The whole performance reflected credit on the actors and actresses and was decidedly a letter show than most of the professional work seen in these parts. We only hope as soon as cool weather arrives, that the play will be put on the boards at Westville as well.—The Old Homestead will be presented in the Opera House, Ch'town, Oct. 6th and 7th. Popular prices will prevail, tickets being 25, 35 and 50 cents. A treat is in store for theatre goers. Seats on sale Monday at ten o'clock a.m. at the usual places.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis were also in the cast and displayed histrionic ability. We may say that the "jag" worn by Mr. Cunningham was realistic and the same applies to Mr. McCunn's portrayal of that sort of thing. For ruddy prohibitionists they did the stunt admirably. Taken on the whole the play was admirably presented, the stage fixtures and scenery were good, the solos and quartettes excellent and the work of the orchestra high class. The whole performance reflected credit on the actors and actresses and was decidedly a letter show than most of the professional work seen in these parts. We only hope as soon as cool weather arrives, that the play will be put on the boards at Westville as well.—The Old Homestead will be presented in the Opera House, Ch'town, Oct. 6th and 7th. Popular prices will prevail, tickets being 25, 35 and 50 cents. A treat is in store for theatre goers. Seats on sale Monday at ten o'clock a.m. at the usual places.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis were also in the cast and displayed histrionic ability. We may say that the "jag" worn by Mr. Cunningham was realistic and the same applies to Mr. McCunn's portrayal of that sort of thing. For ruddy prohibitionists they did the stunt admirably. Taken on the whole the play was admirably presented, the stage fixtures and scenery were good, the solos and quartettes excellent and the work of the orchestra high class. The whole performance reflected credit on the actors and actresses and was decidedly a letter show than most of the professional work seen in these parts. We only hope as soon as cool weather arrives, that the play will be put on the boards at Westville as well.—The Old Homestead will be presented in the Opera House, Ch'town, Oct. 6th and 7th. Popular prices will prevail, tickets being 25, 35 and 50 cents. A treat is in store for theatre goers. Seats on sale Monday at ten o'clock a.m. at the usual places.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis were also in the cast and displayed histrionic ability. We may say that the "jag" worn by Mr. Cunningham was realistic and the same applies to Mr. McCunn's portrayal of that sort of thing. For ruddy prohibitionists they did the stunt admirably. Taken on the whole the play was admirably presented, the stage fixtures and scenery were good, the solos and quartettes excellent and the work of the orchestra high class. The whole performance reflected credit on the actors and actresses and was decidedly a letter show than most of the professional work seen in these parts. We only hope as soon as cool weather arrives, that the play will be put on the boards at Westville as well.—The Old Homestead will be presented in the Opera House, Ch'town, Oct. 6th and 7th. Popular prices will prevail, tickets being 25, 35 and 50 cents. A treat is in store for theatre goers. Seats on sale Monday at ten o'clock a.m. at the usual places.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis were also in the cast and displayed histrionic ability. We may say that the "jag" worn by Mr. Cunningham was realistic and the same applies to Mr. McCunn's portrayal of that sort of thing. For ruddy prohibitionists they did the stunt admirably. Taken on the whole the play was admirably presented, the stage fixtures and scenery were good, the solos and quartettes excellent and the work of the orchestra high class. The whole performance reflected credit on the actors and actresses and was decidedly a letter show than most of the professional work seen in these parts. We only hope as soon as cool weather arrives, that the play will be put on the boards at Westville as well.—The Old Homestead will be presented in the Opera House, Ch'town, Oct. 6th and 7th. Popular prices will prevail, tickets being 25, 35 and 50 cents. A treat is in store for theatre goers. Seats on sale Monday at ten o'clock a.m. at the usual places.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis were also in the cast and displayed histrionic ability. We may say that the "jag" worn by Mr. Cunningham was realistic and the same applies to Mr. McCunn's portrayal of that sort of thing. For ruddy prohibitionists they did the stunt admirably. Taken on the whole the play was admirably presented, the stage fixtures and scenery were good, the solos and quartettes excellent and the work of the orchestra high class. The whole performance reflected credit on the actors and actresses and was decidedly a letter show than most of the professional work seen in these parts. We only hope as soon as cool weather arrives, that the play will be put on the boards at Westville as well.—The Old Homestead will be presented in the Opera House, Ch'town, Oct. 6th and 7th. Popular prices will prevail, tickets being 25, 35 and 50 cents. A treat is in store for theatre goers. Seats on sale Monday at ten o'clock a.m. at the usual places.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis were also in the cast and displayed histrionic ability. We may say that the "jag" worn by Mr. Cunningham was realistic and the same applies to Mr. McCunn's portrayal of that sort of thing. For ruddy prohibitionists they did the stunt admirably. Taken on the whole the play was admirably presented, the stage fixtures and scenery were good, the solos and quartettes excellent and the work of the orchestra high class. The whole performance reflected credit on the actors and actresses and was decidedly a letter show than most of the professional work seen in these parts. We only hope as soon as cool weather arrives, that the play will be put on the boards at Westville as well.—The Old Homestead will be presented in the Opera House, Ch'town, Oct. 6th and 7th. Popular prices will prevail, tickets being 25, 35 and 50 cents. A treat is in store for theatre goers. Seats on sale Monday at ten o'clock a.m. at the usual places.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis were also in the cast and displayed histrionic ability. We may say that the "jag" worn by Mr. Cunningham was realistic and the same applies to Mr. McCunn's portrayal of that sort of thing. For ruddy prohibitionists they did the stunt admirably. Taken on the whole the play was admirably presented, the stage fixtures and scenery were good, the solos and quartettes excellent and the work of the orchestra high class. The whole performance reflected credit on the actors and actresses and was decidedly a letter show than most of the professional work seen in these parts. We only hope as soon as cool weather arrives, that the play will be put on the boards at Westville as well.—The Old Homestead will be presented in the Opera House, Ch'town, Oct. 6th and 7th. Popular prices will prevail, tickets being 25, 35 and 50 cents. A treat is in store for theatre goers. Seats on sale Monday at ten o'clock a.m. at the usual places.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis were also in the cast and displayed histrionic ability. We may say that the "jag" worn by Mr. Cunningham was realistic and the same applies to Mr. McCunn's portrayal of that sort of thing. For ruddy prohibitionists they did the stunt admirably. Taken on the whole the play was admirably presented, the stage fixtures and scenery were good, the solos and quartettes excellent and the work of the orchestra high class. The whole performance reflected credit on the actors and actresses and was decidedly a letter show than most of the professional work seen in these parts. We only hope as soon as cool weather arrives, that the play will be put on the boards at Westville as well.—The Old Homestead will be presented in the Opera House, Ch'town, Oct. 6th and 7th. Popular prices will prevail, tickets being 25, 35 and 50 cents. A treat is in store for theatre goers. Seats on sale Monday at ten o'clock a.m. at the usual places.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis were also in the cast and displayed histrionic ability. We may say that the "jag" worn by Mr. Cunningham was realistic and the same applies to Mr. McCunn's portrayal of that sort of thing. For ruddy prohibitionists they did the stunt admirably. Taken on the whole the play was admirably presented, the stage fixtures and scenery were good, the solos and quartettes excellent and the work of the orchestra high class. The whole performance reflected credit on the actors and actresses and was decidedly a letter show than most of the professional work seen in these parts. We only hope as soon as cool weather arrives, that the play will be put on the boards at Westville as well.—The Old Homestead will be presented in the Opera House, Ch'town, Oct. 6th and 7th. Popular prices will prevail, tickets being 25, 35 and 50 cents. A treat is in store for theatre goers. Seats on sale Monday at ten o'clock a.m. at the usual places.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis were also in the cast and displayed histrionic ability. We may say that the "jag" worn by Mr. Cunningham was realistic and the same applies to Mr. McCunn's portrayal of that sort of thing. For ruddy prohibitionists they did the stunt admirably. Taken on the whole the play was admirably presented, the stage fixtures and scenery were good, the solos and quartettes excellent and the work of the orchestra high class. The whole performance reflected credit on the actors and actresses and was decidedly a letter show than most of the professional work seen in these parts. We only hope as soon as cool weather arrives, that the play will be put on the boards at Westville as well.—The Old Homestead will be presented in the Opera House, Ch'town, Oct. 6th and 7th. Popular prices will prevail, tickets being 25, 35 and 50 cents. A treat is in store for theatre goers. Seats on sale Monday at ten o'clock a.m. at the usual places.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis were also in the cast and displayed histrionic ability. We may say that the "jag" worn by Mr. Cunningham was realistic and the same applies to Mr. McCunn's portrayal of that sort of thing. For ruddy prohibitionists they did the stunt admirably. Taken on the whole the play was admirably presented, the stage fixtures and scenery were good, the solos and quartettes excellent and the work of the orchestra high class. The whole performance reflected credit on the actors and actresses and was decidedly a letter show than most of the professional work seen in these parts. We only hope as soon as cool weather arrives, that the play will be put on the boards at Westville as well.—The Old Homestead will be presented in the Opera House, Ch'town, Oct. 6th and 7th. Popular prices will prevail, tickets being 25, 35 and 50 cents. A treat is in store for theatre goers. Seats on sale Monday at ten o'clock a.m. at the usual places.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis were also in the cast and displayed histrionic ability. We may say that the "jag" worn by Mr. Cunningham was realistic and the same applies to Mr. McCunn's portrayal of that sort of thing. For ruddy prohibitionists they did the stunt admirably. Taken on the whole the play was admirably presented, the stage fixtures and scenery were good, the solos and quartettes excellent and the work of the orchestra high class. The whole performance reflected credit on the actors and actresses and was decidedly a letter show than most of the professional work seen in these parts. We only hope as soon as cool weather arrives, that the play will be put on the boards at Westville as well.—The Old Homestead will be presented in the Opera House, Ch'town, Oct. 6th and 7th. Popular prices will prevail, tickets being 25, 35 and 50 cents. A treat is in store for theatre goers. Seats on sale Monday at ten o'clock a.m. at the usual places.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD. The Free Lance man had the pleasure on Thursday evening of seeing "The Old Homestead" put on at the Stellarton rink by the Stellarton Band Dramatic Co., under the management of N. W. Mason. Mr. Mason is a whole show in himself, and took the part of Joshua Whitcomb, a New Hampshire farmer. Miss Pearl Purvis as Rickety Ann was most amusing, whilst Harry Murray also had a part which gave scope to his abilities as a humorist. The Misses Mabel Burchell, Yvona Stewart, Jennie McIntosh and Agnes McGregor did their respective parts well. Basil McCunn, Lawrence Fraser, Clarence Cameron, Jas. Cunningham and Leonard Purvis