THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

It pays to buy in this Province.

Wallace W. Wood, Souris, was in Charlottetown yesterday, returning in the afternoon.

James Fay, Newport, was among the visitors to Charlottetown yesterday.

The Guardian welcomes reliable news from persons throughout this Province. All such items should be mailed to "The Guardian News Dept., Charlottetown," immediately after the events, etc., have transpired.

An Ottawa despatch says that Hon. Frank Cochrane left Tuesday afternoon for a trip over the Intercolonial and P. E. Island railways, which will keep him in the east for several weeks.

The marriage took place in Concord, N. H., on Tuesday, April 30th, of Miss Eva St. Clair Harris, daughter of Mrs. W. H. Harris, Sydney Street, Charlottetown to Robert Louis Webber of Concord.—Exc.

The services in the Presbyterian church at Bonshaw next Sunday will be S. S. at ten, preaching at eleven; and S. S. at two, preaching at three in Hampton also at Tryon the S. S. will meet at two and preaching at seven in the evening.

The steamer Wobun, which has been docked at the sugar refinery since Saturday, having arrived there from North Sydney, will sail tonight for the latter port. The Wobun has during the winter been plying in the southern trade between La Plata and the West Indies, but now has resumed her coaling service.—Halifax Exc. (The Wobun is well known in the port of Charlottetown.)

The opening of the summer trade of the sailing and smaller steam vessels has resulted in the refitting and overhauling of these crafts and in many instances changes of ownership have taken place. The steamship Amherst has been sold by the Magdalene Islands Development company to Captain W. H. Batt, of Charlottetown, and will be used by him in dredging work about the Island.—Halifax Exc.

The death of Miss Annie Douglas Robb, eldest daughter of Mrs. and the late William Robb, occurred Tuesday at the home of her mother, 408 Union street, St. John. She was formerly on the teaching staff of the Victoria school. Although she had been in poor health for some time, death came unexpectedly. Besides her mother, she is survived by two susters. Miss Jennie, of Korea, but now at home; and Mrs. J. T. McGowan, of St. John. Four brothers also survive. They are: Rev. A. F. Robb, of Korea; William T., of New Glasgow; A. W., secretary of the Y. M. C. A., in St. John and formerly of Charlottetown, and Bruce S., of the writing staff of the Evening Times. Much sympathy will be extended to the members of the family in their sad bereavement.

The Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, St. John was the scene of a very pretty wedding this morning when Miss Gertrude Annie Ryan, daughter of P. and Mrs. Ryan, 168 Waterloo street, was united in marriage to Edward R. McDonald, barrister and ex-mayor of Shediac, N. B. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. W. Meahan. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a cream Panama cloth dress and large black hat with cream lace facing and willows. She carried a beautiful boquet of cream roses. Her travelling dress was a navy blue tailored suit with hat to match. Miss E. Gertrude Wallace acted as bridesmaid and wore a cream serge dress with black stripe and large leghorn hat trimmed with black facing and gold willow osprey, She carried a boquet of pink roses. The groom was supported by Raymond Leger, of Shediac. After the ceremony adjournment was made to the residence of the bride's parents where a wedding breakfast was served. In honor of the occasion the house was beautifully decorated, flowers and potted plants being used with good effect. The wedding presents were numerous, costly and beautiful. The groom's present to the bride was a check, to the bridesmaid a handsome gold bracelet set with pearls and to the groomsman a stickpin. The newly married couple left on the early train on a visit to Halifax, Sydney and Prince Edward Island. On their return they will take up their residence in Shediac. Among those residing out of town receiving invitations were Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, Prince Edward Island.—St. John Exc.
