PRINCE COUNTY GUARDIAN

Branch Offices in Summerside, D. K. Currie Manager; and in Alberton, Herbert Clark, Manager.

—One thousand bags of clams were shipped from Summerside by the Empress yesterday morning.

—Contractor D. R. Morrison has twenty five men already employed on the water works and sewerage system in Summerside, most of them on the foundation of the standpipe at the top of a hill north of the town. As soon as the necessary materials arrive the number of workmen will be greatly increased. Engineer Dupont is here for a few days.

—The many friends of John and Mrs McNally, Egmont Bay, will be sorry to learn that they are both quite ill. Their two sons Dr. Willam P. of Bangor, Maine; and Dr. David A. of Bideford, Maine, with their wives came home a few nights ago. Their daughter Miss Nellie A., graduate nurse of the Springfield, Mass. Hospital and their son Almon F. and his wife came home last night. At latest accounts last night Mrs. McNally's condition was somewhat improved.

—A correspondent from Wellington says that the severe hail storm on Tuesday night struck in the neighborhood of Rocky Point and surroundings and over two hundred panes of glass were broken. P. M. Arsenault, St. Chrysostome, had forty-two pares of glass broken in his lobster factory and fifteen in his private dwelling and as many more in the schools in two sections. The storm was the worst of its kind ever seen in that section and it followed through to Richmond.

—The following is the result of some of the Prince County School meetings: At Tignish, the trustees for next year are J. J. Arsenault, John Hackett and Peter M. Chaisson. The following amounts were voted. For fuel and janitor's salary $85.00; repairing schoolroom $45.00; supplement for school teachers $105.00; at Alberton the new trustee is Dr. Ross vice A. McNeill. Supplements $90 for principal, $60 for vice principal, $50 each for the two others; expenses $225. Same as last year. At Malpeque, the trustees for next year are John Craig, David Mountain and George Bearisto. Supplement $80 for principal and $40 for assistant. Last year they were $105 and $60. Both teachers have resigned. At Cape Traverse the old board of trustees was re-elected; supplements $75 for principal, and $40 for the assistant. Last year the amounts were $50 and $30.

—The attention of the Summerside Board of Health and the Town Council is respectfully directed to the conditions existing in what is known as the "burnt district;" a number of cellars half filled with stagnant water, and other filthy debris of all kinds scattered promiscuously over the ground, untidiness and unnameable dirt exposed to the eyes and nostrils of citizens and strangers alike. This, at the beginning of the hot season, is not an alluring prospect and it should be attended to forwith. These stagnating pools are breeding grounds for disease and the town is not by any means free from disease now. If disease germs and disease-breeding conditions are in reality what they are pictured in antituberculois meetings and "on parade" these conditions certainly call for speedy reformation. Let the health officers look to it. The recent order of the town council to build fences around open cellars, even if regarded, would not cover the case; the stagnant pools must be dried up and the filth cleared away.

—M. A. Claw shipped five hors s from Summerside yesterday by the Empress.

—Yesterday there were thirty passengers going and fifty returning by the Empress.

—Joseph O'Reilly of the P. E. I. R. made the round trip by the Empress yesterday.

—Rev. Hammond and Mrs. Johnston, Summerside, left yesterday morning for Newcastle, N. B.

—Mrs. A. Hewith, Lawrence, Mass., came over on the Empress last night on her way to Murray River.

—B. B. Richardson, manager of the Royal Bank, Summerside, returned last night after a trip to Nova Scotia.

—Hundreds of people in this Province will be pained to learn of the death of Mrs. H. B. Wadman, which occurred at Spokane, Washington, June 8. Only a few years ago Mr. Wadman disposed of his comfortable home at Augustine Cove, in this Province, and, accompanied by his affectionate wife and family, proceeded to Denver, Colorado, for the benefit of her health, which had not been good for some time. Mr. Wadman soon secured a responsible position with The Denver Republican, and for quite a while Mrs Wadman seemed to improve. During the past several months an adverse change set in and in March last she and her husband moved to Spokane in the hope that another climate would bring the greatly desired result. It was however soon apparent that she could not live long, and the end came as above stated at the early age of fifty. Too much cannot be said in commendation of the life of the deceased. She was of a most kind and cheerful disposition, ever trying to make happy the lives of those about her, and her good deeds and example will always be fresh in the minds of the many with whom she was acquainted. Nothing gave her greater pleasure than to comfort the sick or bereaved and aid the poor with whom she came in contact. Her home life was thoroughly happy and it was her delight to entertain in a truly hospitable manner her very many friends. She was a daughter of the late Alexander Manson, Carleton; and leaves to mourn two brothers, William H. in Summerside and John N. in Nebraska, also two sisters Mrs. J. H. Yates and Mrs. Jennie McLeod Spokane, besides her devoted husband and three children, Roy, Hattie and Celia, all at home. The Guardian extends sincerest sympathy.
