

MEET A NEW STAR ...
MADY Christians
A WICKED WOMAN
JEAN PARKER Charles Dickford
 THE LADY OF MOODS ... Across her lovely face flashes every emotion ... fury and happiness ... Sorrow and joy ...
ADDED ... MUSICAL AND STRANGER THAN FICTION
STARTS TODAY MATINEE 3.15 EVE. 7 & 8.45

SHOOT THE WORKS
 IT'S THE MOST OF THE BEST!
 Here's a happy show... speedy, fun, full of excitement!
 The Old Maestro spins things in a whirl of fun and romance!
 "With My Eyes Wide Open, I'm Dreaming"
 "A Bowl of Chop Suey"
 and "You-ey" and more
JACK OAKIE
DOROTHY DELL
ARLINE JUDGE
BEN BERNIE'S BAND
ALSO ... NEWS CARTOON ... HEX HEY FEVER
STRAND WEDNESDAY THURSDAY
 TWO DYS ONLY

Strand Theatre
 Tonight & Tues.
March 18th and 19th
THE BENEVOLENT IRISH SOCIETY PRESENTS A
ACT COMEDY DRAMA—
"THE BLARNEY STONE"
 By Edward E. Rose
 By Special Arrangement with Samuel French Canada Ltd.
 Under the Distinguished Patronage of
 His Honour Lieut. Gov. Geo. D. DeBlois and Mrs. DeBlois
 The Premier Hon. W. J. P. MacMillan and Mrs. MacMillan
 His Worship Mayor Kennedy and Mrs. Kennedy.
 Stage Directors
A. M. DOUGLAS
A. S. DICKSON
SPECIALTIES—
 Plus opens for the Sale of Tickets at Strand Box Office Friday Morning 10 A. M.
 Admission 50c and 35c. Curtain rises 8.15 sharp.
 The sale of Candy will be under the supervision of the Boy Scouts.
 The proceeds of this entertainment strictly for the Charity Fund.
 The drawing for the Lamp lotteried by the Charlottetown Fire Department will take place at this show.

LIBERAL PRE-ELECTION
 (Continued from Page 1)
 we believe that he is vindicating faith in him by speedily submitting the bills that are to realize his vision. We are sorry to see party rancors on both sides, like noxious smells spoiling the atmosphere of a house being sanctified by movements of reform. Attempts to make party capital out of joint legislation for the common good will surely react against the parties or individual politicians guilty of such low motives. The people want statesmen who are so absorbed in working for the general good that they forget themselves. "Enemy of the State No. 1" is not the man who kills another and makes a getaway from the penitentiary, but a politician who for personal or party gain, betrays Canada.
 Mr. MacKenzie read further from the witness editorial, which closed with the injunction, "The Board of Reciprocity is behind you." (Loud applause.)
 Mr. T. A. Campbell: "Does that say it is a Liberal paper?"
 Hon. Mr. MacKenzie: "Don't you think it is a Liberal paper?"
 Mr. LePage: "An independent paper."
 Contrasts Liberal Inactivity
 Continuing, Mr. MacKenzie declared that Mr. Bennett's policy was not a mere gesture, such as the Liberal party made in 1911 in the matter of Reciprocity with the United States. "They could have put the Reciprocity pact over," he said, "but they just dangled it before us and it was defeated on it." (Applause.)
 He warmly congratulated the mover and seconder, also the Premier and Attorney General on their success in obtaining an additional $100,000 annual subsidy increase under the White Commission award. The Premier he commended as the best business leader that has ever headed a government in this Province. His splendid success in the administration of the Department of Health was also emphasized. A very high tribute paid to the administration of this department by Dr. Thomson, of the Dental Hygiene Council, at a dental health campaign meeting in Kensington, was quoted.
 The claim had been advanced by the Opposition that $70,000 had been obtained by a former Liberal Government in subsidy increase; but Mr. MacKenzie pointed out that the grant at that time was only an adjustment, in which every Province in Canada shared an equal amount had been made on that occasion to claim that the increase was final and unalterable. He contrasted this with the Conservative success before the Duncan and White Commissions, the first resulting in an interim subsidy increase of $125,000, and the second in an additional permanent increase of $100,000. The Opposition is now complaining that the latter award is disappointing, Premier Saunders, however, had given an excuse for not pressing our claims under the Duncan award, that in a further settlement the $125,000 interim increase might even be reduced.

Central Guardian
 This column is reserved for news of local interest but advertising of a serious nature may be inserted at a special word strictly payable in advance.
CONFEDERATION LIFE INSURANCE L-6798-7-12-3121
ENTERTAINED—Mrs. George Jones was hostess at a delightful St. Patrick's bridge party of four tables at her home on Friday evening.
POLICE COURT—At the Police Court Saturday a man who appeared charged with being drunk and incapable was dismissed.
CONFEDERATION LIFE INSURANCE L-6798-7-12-3121
WILD GESE BACK—A flock of wild geese, harbingers of spring, were observed last evening flying towards the northeast.
ARRIVE FROM OTTAWA—Mr. W. Chester S. McLaughlin, M.P., and Mrs. McLaughlin arrived Saturday from Ottawa, going direct to Rustico where Mr. McLaughlin's brother is seriously ill. The condition of Mr. Russell McLaughlin remains unchanged.
AMBULANCE FLIGHT YESTERDAY—An airplane piloted by F. S. Jones flew to French River yesterday to bring back a woman seriously ill. The flying ambulance with the patient, Miss Viola MacKenzie lying in the cabin landed on the Harbor ice, she was transferred to an ambulance. Miss MacKenzie was accompanied by her sister, Miss Lucy MacKenzie.
LEAVE FOR TORONTO—Mrs. Annie McLaughlin, City, leaves this morning for Toronto to be present at the installation of her son, Most Rev. J. C. McLaughlin, as Archbishop of Toronto, formerly Archbishop of Regina. Also making the trip to Toronto are present at the ceremony are Dr. A. McLaughlin, City, a brother, Rev. P. D. McLaughlin, Vernon River, Rev. J. A. Murphy and Rev. J. McQuaid of St. Dunstan's University and Rev. Martin Monaghan, Miscouche.
PERSONALS
 Mr. T. W. Bentley, Summerside, was in the City on Saturday on business.
 Miss Nellie McPhee, Georgetown, is visiting in the city the guest of her friend, Miss Marion Dougan, Prince Street.
 Dr. Howard Smith and daughter, Miss Barbara Smith, returned home Saturday from a brief visit to Boston.
 Miss Eileen Foster of the Canadian Telegraph staff, left Saturday morning for Halifax from where she will sail by the S. S. "Lady Rodney" for Bermuda. Miss Foster will be absent for about a month.
 Friends will be pleased to learn that Mrs. C. L. Partridge, Grafton St., City, who underwent a serious operation in the Prince Edward Hospital is improving.
 leg when he was on the force."
 Hon. Mr. MacKenzie: "Yes."

RELIGIOUS SERVICES
ST. JAMES CHURCH
 Large congregations attended both services at Saint James Church yesterday.
 In the evening the Rev. Dr. Legate delivered a special address on the author of the hymn "Lead Kindly Light." Cardinal John Henry Newman. The address was both eloquent and impressive, and was received with much appreciation by the congregation. Mrs. S. J. Henderson gave a beautiful rendering of Pius XII's arrangement of "Lead Kindly Light," as the hymn. The congregation sang the hymn as a Recessional.
HOLY REDEEMER CHURCH
 The preacher at all the Masses yesterday morning was Rev. C. O'Hara, C.S.S.R., who continued the series of sermons on Catholic Action. Father O'Hara dealt with the virtues of Chastity and Humility, which, he said, must be characteristics of every Catholic action. The single women of the Holy Family received Holy Communion in a body at the 9 o'clock Mass. High Mass was celebrated by Rev. R. McKenna, C.S.S.R.
 Rev. Father McKenna preached a forceful and eloquent Lenten sermon in the evening, dealing with man's sins of pride and envy. Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was given by Rev. Father McKenna. The singing was rendered by the mixed choir.
TRINITY UNITED CHURCH
 In memoriam: "The beautiful flowers on the pulpit platform were in loving memory of Mrs. Henry Smith, who died two years ago yesterday.
 Earth to earth, and dust to dust; Jaimly now the words we say; Left behind, we wait in trust
 For the resurrection day.
 Rev. J. W. Barbour made an important announcement at the morning service. It referred to the program of religious education as recommended by the General Council of the United Church of which embraces the Tuxis Boys, the Trail Rangers and the C.G.I.T. Much publicity has been given recently to the Boy Scout organization, but our Church holds that the above named groups sponsored by our own leaders are superior and Mr. Barbour called for the support and cooperation and financial assistance of the members.
 The bill now before Parliament for a compulsory day of rest synchronizes very well with the action of the Ministerial Association for a better observance of the Sabbath and a stricter enforcement of the Lord's Day Act which has the approval of our Official Board.
 Rev. Hugh Miller's sermon in the morning was a delightful meditation on the text in St. Matthew's Gospel 14-21. Jesus disclosing the secret of His death and resurrection to a select group in a secluded place at the appropriate time when they were able to receive his secret. Mr. Miller dealt with the primacy of the Cross. There could be no atonement without the Cross. The word "must" in the text indicates that it is the conviction of "divine necessity." God willed it. There was no escape. The Cross is more than a symbol it is life. There is no necessity of indicating it by a badge or crying it aloud in the streets. The Cross is the expression and the medium of God's love to us. It is impossible to think of the Cross, apart from sacrifice. The sacrifice it asks of us is a broken and contrite heart. Everything God asks us to be or do are delights to all who know God and are His. The service closed with the singing of "In the Cross of Christ I Glory."
 The text from which Rev. Mr. Miller drew his evening sermon was Revelations 3-20. "Behold I stand at a temperance meeting that he was in favor of the lash for bootleggers.
 Mr. LePage said no. It had been suggested as a preventive measure, but he had not agreed.
 Hon. Mr. MacKenzie: "It might not be a bad thing if you did."
 Mr. LePage: "I said hanging would be a better prevention."
 Hon. Mr. MacKenzie: "And I hope the man that tries to get the bootlegger out." (Laughter.)
 Mr. Campbell: "Your Government reduced the penalty."
 Hon. Mr. MacKenzie: "And you people increased the number of bootleggers. Mr. Saunders actually complained that the Government reduced the number of bootleggers in order to 'embarrass' his administration. (Laughter). I could understand how it might embarrass some people, but not the Government." (Applause.)
Sabbath Observance
 Mr. MacKenzie scored the inactivity of the criticism of Mr. L. R. Allen in attempting to make political capital out of a statement by the Ministerial Association regarding Sabbath observance. The Summerside member had implied that the Government was a reflection on the Government. Mr. MacKenzie recalled the famous pre-election manifesto of the Saunders Government. "It was on the Sabbath Day in Summerside that they met and framed their policy to appeal to the people, and the hon. member from Summerside was in on that meeting." (Applause.)
 Mr. Allen: "That was before they ever thought of selecting me as a candidate." (Laughter.)
 In closing, Mr. MacKenzie predicted that the present year would show Canada making further substantial progress towards stability and prosperity.
CHALLENGE ACCEPTED
 We, the Second Granites, do hereby accept the challenge of the Dunedin Maple Leafs for a game, to be played Wednesday night in Cornwall Park.

Trinity United Church
MONDAY, MARCH 18.
 8.30—Intermediate C. G. I. T. — Social Hall.
 1.00—Trail Rangers—Social Hall.
 We are assured that the following have been collected from examination papers by a Birmingham school master.
 Pallas Athene was the principal caretaker in Athens.
 The children of Israel completely massacred the inhabitants of Jericho.
 The Israelites were always breaking God's laws so He wrote them on tables of stone which could not be broken.
 Shavians were cruel barbarians.
 The Pope sent Luther a Papal Legate, but he tore it up and never read it.
 The Romans were so glutinous that they took emetics with their dinner.
 Burke's Drift is one of the fences in the Grand National.

NOTICE
 Loading turnips Monday. Not buying Mill Pond variety.
J. M. ROOP.
 L-5382-3-15-41

Professional Cards
McLEOD & BENTLEY
 W. A. BENTLEY, K. C.
 J. A. BENTLEY, K. C.
 Barristers and Attorneys-at-Law
MONEY TO LOAN
 Office: 180 Richmond Street.
Prohibition Commission
 Chas. H. Black, Chairman,
 Charlottetown
 Jas. B. McDonald, West St. Peters.
 John Simpson, Hamilton.
 Send all information regarding infractions of PROHIBITION ACT to the above or to Inspector J. Fripps, R. C. M. P., Charlottetown.
NORMAN W. LOWTHER
 Barrister & Attorney at Law
 86 Great George Street
 Charlottetown, P. E. I.
MONEY TO LOAN
Alex. W. Matheson
 BARRISTER SOLICITOR, ETC.
 Money to Loan Collections
 Office: 140 Richmond Street.
N. D. MacLean
 UNDERTAKER
 EMBALMER
 Charlottetown and North Wilshire
 Phone 140
Card of Thanks
 Robert Curran and family wish to express their gratitude to their neighbours for many acts of kindness performed during the last illness of Mrs. Curran, as well as to those who sent Mass Cards and letters of sympathy.
 L-4457

Fixed Tuber Price To Consumer
 (C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
TORONTO, March 17.—The Eastern Canada Potato Marketing Board has fixed minimum prices which consumers must pay for potatoes to eliminate their status as loss leaders in Toronto retail establishments, J. T. Cassin, head of the Ontario division of the board, announced tonight.
 The board has been promised the cooperation of the retail trade including chain stores.
 Retailers must charge 83 cents a 90-pound bag for no. 1 Ontario potatoes, and $1.09 a 90-pound bag of Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick potatoes. In peck lots, Ontario potatoes will be priced at 16 cents, with Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick varieties getting 19 cents.
 The new prices will assure a more reasonable return to the farmer, Mr. Cassin stated.
PLEASANT VALLEY SCHOOL
 Honor roll for February.
 Grade X—1. Eltha Somers, 2. Edna Wigmore, 3. Celia Stevenson.
 Grade IX—1. Allison McLeod, 2. Isabel MacKay, 3. Louis Weeks.
 Grade VIII—1. Reggie Weeks, 2. Helen Somers, 3. Olive Weeks.
 Grade VII—1. John MacKay, 2. Adelaide Wigmore, 3. Milton Weeks.
 Grade VI—1. Clarence Stevenson, 2. Harold Murphy.
 Grade V—1. Roy Smith, 2. George Smith, 3. Jean Somers.
 Grade IV—1. Earle Somers.
 Grade III—1. Randolph Smith, 2. Reta Somers, 3. Mildred Wigmore.
 Perfect attendance: Eltha Somers, Edna Wigmore, Louis Weeks, Ivan Somers, Gerald Murphy, Helen Somers, Olive Weeks, Reggie Weeks, John MacKay, Milton Weeks, Adelaide Wigmore, Jean Somers, Roy Smith, Barbara Smith and Lloyd McLeod.
 —Maurice M. Tierney.
BIRTHS
WYNNE—At the City Hospital, March 17, 1935, to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wynne, a daughter.
DEATHS
COFFIN—At Calgary, Alberta on Sunday, March 17, 1935, Mrs. Mary Ellen Coffin (nee Pugh) aged 78.
MARTIN—At the P. E. I. Hospital on Sat., March 16, 1935, Kenneth J. Martin in his 73rd year, Funeral (this) Monday afternoon from St. James Church, service starting 2.30. Funeral leaving at 3 o'clock. Interment People's Cemetery.
CHOWAN—At Highfield on Sunday, March 17, 1935, Francis Chowan in his 68th year, Funeral from his late residence Tuesday, March 19th, service starting at 2.30. Interment Highfield Cemetery. Please omit flowers.
Mr. LePage: "I am getting suspicious over here."
 Hon. Mr. MacKenzie: "That is just an excuse; it is not the reason, which was that fabulous profits went to the contractors who invariably were friends of their own." (Applause.)
Mr. Cox's Tribute
 Mr. Cox in the course of his speech had frankly given credit to the government for the splendid work done on the bridge at Morell, Mr. MacKenzie continued.
 Mr. LePage: "He is hobnobbing too much with you people." (Laughter.)
 Hon. Mr. MacKenzie: "He was honest about it."
 Mr. LePage: "We are getting suspicious over here."
 Hon. Mr. MacKenzie: "He commended the work very highly, anyway. And that is just the same kind of roadwork that was done by the government all over the country." (Applause.)

The Liberal Overdraft
 Mr. MacKenzie scored the Opposition criticism of the Conservatives for having funded the huge Liberal overdraft of $1,041,240. "They would pass that legacy on to this government and then censure us for having handled it," he said. "But that won't go down with the country. If they had the ability to dispose of that overdraft, why didn't they do so when they were in power." (Applause.)
 The Premier's action in seeking the expert advice of Dr. Flemming, of the Mental Hygiene Council, regarding the requirements of a mental hospital for this Province, was strongly endorsed by Mr. MacKenzie. He asked if Dr. MacNeill, in the same circumstances, would not have done the same. Would he not go to a specialist with his very serious professional problems? "In fact," added the speaker, "I think he did so, when he had an operation. That is what the Premier did before coming to the Province. He consulted with Dr. Fleming, and got the advice of the best man available, and that gentleman, Dr. Flemming, emphasized our requirements in the way of a properly equipped mental hospital."
 "At present," Mr. MacKenzie pointed out, "all we have got is housing accommodation. We should have a better institution and I am more strongly in favor of building an up-to-date hospital for our mentally ill than I am in building good roads, although I am not opposed to good roads, I think it should be one of the first things that the government is unable to care for themselves." (Applause.)
 The amount paid for the architect's fees in designing a modern hospital unit at Cornwall had been criticised, but the architect received his six per cent which is the same rate charged by architects all over Canada. The architect, Mr. MacKenzie pointed out, was charged in the case of the Prince Edward Island Hospital. While the Province is not at present in a position to go ahead with this work, the plans are there, and will be available when required.
Cites Big Liberal Blunder
 In connection with the Opposition criticism on this subject, Mr. MacKenzie recalled that the Liberals, "in power, had voted a large sum of the taxpayers' money in connection with the Andrew Fraser Mitchell matter. That transaction, he pointed out, was purely a Liberal blunder; the province received no value whatever for it. In the case of the Falconwood architect's fees, we have the plans and they will be used when the time comes; but the money has been wasted."
 Criticism had been made by Dr. MacNeill of the dismissal of an official at Falconwood by this Government. "That official," said Mr. MacKenzie, "was a supporter of his own in Summerside; it was a political appointment, pure and simple. What was he doing at Falconwood? The present Premier was responsible for bringing the best qualified man in Canada here, and placing him in charge. More than that, we retained the services of the Liberal appointee. I would not mention the politics of the superintendent; he is above that, but I know his relation to the Liberals. We did not consider that in looking for the best qualified man we could get." (Applause.)
 In connection with Falconwood, the speaker paid tribute to the excellent work done at that institution by the late Dr. Goodwill.
Old Age Pensions
 In Old Age Pensions, he continued, were paid in this Province by the Conservatives, not by the Liberals, "withstanding the Old Age Pensions plank in the platform on which the Saunders-Lea Government was elected to power in 1927. In connection with the working of the old age pensions system, Mr. MacKenzie believed that as an incentive to thrift there should be provision for the payment of a small amount by the pensioners to benefit under the scheme. He was strongly opposed to either the Old Age Pensions or the Prohibition Act being made a political issue.
Prohibition Enforcement
 With regard to Prohibition enforcement, he was convinced that the Act is better enforced at present than at any time in the history of the Province. The enforcement is in the hands of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, one of the best police forces in the world. "It was evidently the opinion of the Liberal party," he added, "because when my hon. friends wanted to make a political gesture, they used to threaten to bring them here." (Laughter.)
 "We brought them here in reality, and they are costing us only $15,000 a year."
 The speaker enumerated the strict requirements of the R. C. M. P., and the caution exercised in recommending any appointments to the force. He contrasted this with an appointment made to the Provincial Police under the Liberal regime, in the Rustico district adjoining his own. That man turned out to be a member of the bootlegger fraternity. He carried on his nefarious profession after he was dismissed from the Police, and subsequently became a fugitive from justice.
 Mr. Campbell: "Did he ever boot-stand at the door and knock."

 These sermons are specially prepared for the season leading up to Easter and are attracting large congregations. The music program for the day included two greatly appreciated solos, that in the morning by Miss Margaret Sterns and in the evening by Mrs. Miller. There was also an anthem at night.
ST. DUNSTAN'S BASILICA
 Services at St. Dunstan's Basilica yesterday were at their usual hour, 11 o'clock. High Mass was celebrated by Rev. J. A. O'Sullivan assisted by Rev. E. Dalton deacon and Rev. F. Cass as sub-deacon. A most inspiring and eloquent sermon on the life and works of St. Patrick was preached by Rev. Owen McGrath, C.S.P. The members of the Benevolent Irish Society attended in a body. Assisting in the Sanctuary were Rev. P. D. McGuigan, Vernon River, Rev. P. Walsh, Palmer Road.
 At seven o'clock Rev. Owen McGrath preached an inspiring sermon, the theme being "The Divinity of Christ." He referred to the prophecies of Christ during his public life and to their fulfillment as testified in history. From these prophecies and their fulfillment Christ proved that He was the promised redeemer.
 Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was given by Rev. Frederick Cass.
 The Corpus Christi Choir under the direction of Mr. W. J. Brown with Miss Bessie Blanchard, organist, furnished the music.
THE BAPTIST CHURCH
 The Rev. A. C. Vincent concluded a very interesting series of sermons on the Lord's Prayer with "The text Matthew 6:12. 'For thine is the Kingdom and the power and the glory forever, Amen.'" This noble prayer which has been the subject of ten addresses in this pulpit, begins with God, "Our Father," and ends with an ascription of praise, a prophecy and a deep and understanding recognition in its closing words, of God.
 This prayer touches all the interests and needs of life, its petitions ask for guidance and help in all the problems of our daily kind—and in its final words offers the recognition of the fact that is getting more patent at all times, that the world needs a new spirit. And that new spirit which will lead us to the solution of our difficulties lies in the humble willingness to make ourselves servants of our King, His Kingdom, His Power, His Glory. Putting first things first, let us all, church members, church officers, teachers, choristers, minister and people surrender our own wills and desires to this one great aim.
 The subject of the evening sermon was "Does Baptism Save?" a thoughtful discussion and explanation of the theme.
 Included in the music of the day was a very pleasingly rendered soprano solo "Lord, attend unto my cry," by Miss Bessie Campbell, the ladies' sextette, Misses Baker, Harris, Campbell, Jenkins, Campbell and Calbeck sang with fine expression, at the evening service, "Now the Day is Over." Two solos in the evening anthem were taken by Mr. Quigley and Mrs. Vincent.
CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH
 At the morning service the special music included a solo sung with fine effect by Miss Sarah Wood. The subject of the morning sermon was "The Lost Opportunity" based on the incident of the "Rich Young Ruler" as in his text, Romans 8:12, and in the course of his remarks the speaker stated that the Religion of Jesus demanded the subjection of the body and transformation into the likeness of Christ by the renewing of the mind. During the discourse, the Christian religion was defined as a system by which one was "bound to Christ." The anthem of the evening was "Saviour When Night Involves the Skies."
SACRED SONG SERVICE
 The young people's song service, held under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association and cooperation of the S. C. M. of this city, was conducted in Central Christian Church following the regular worship there last evening.
 The meeting was presided over by Mr. William Sherrin and the Scripture Lesson was read by Mr. Milton Stewart.
 Mr. Norville E. Luck, General Secretary, Y. M. C. A., delivered an inspiring and instructive address, in commenting on the various perplexing and disquieting conditions in which young people are finding themselves in these days, the speaker offered many encouraging remarks of advice. He would commend all young people to the habit of taking practiced periods of intense thoughtfulness and solitary communion with God.
 "No matter what our creed, all great religions are agreed that no material realization can be made an excuse for the impairment of the spiritual side of our lives."
 In closing, he would leave this thought: "That it is much easier to point out to man, the meaning of man, than it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in our lives."
 Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the meeting in prayer and the reading of man, that it is to point out man's affinity with the higher things."
 "If we would give of our best to the world we must come to realize the fact of our dignity and this will in turn manifest itself in