No more worthy object can be put before our citizens than the assistance of the Nurses Home at the Prince Edward Island Hospital. These young ladies spend their lives in alleviating the suffering of the inmates of this splendid Institution and it is but the duty of the people to see to it that the Home in which these nurses spend their spare time is made as comfortable as possible. The Nurses' Home has been fitted up at considerable expense, and the Ladies' Aid of the P. E. Island Hospital are making a big effort to wipe out the debt thus incurred. Major Bartlett has kindly consented to deliver a lecture on "Granada and the Alhambra"—a lecture and subject never before given or dealt with in Charlottetown—and has especially imported from the Old Country a large number of magnificent views with which to illustrate his address. The lecture will be delivered in St. Paul's School Room on Thursday evening, November 17th, and everyone can show their appreciation of the good work done by the nurses of the P. E. Island Hospital by buying one or more tickets from any one of the ladies of the Hospital Aid or from one of the Nurses.
