ST. PAUL'S schoolroom was quite crowded yesterday afternoon to hear Miss Bird. She spoke, delighting her audience for about an hour on her work in Persia, often moving her hearers deeply. Charlottetown, 29th November, 1898.

REV. J. E. CRAWFORD, of P. E. I., late of Metapedia, P. Q., has accepted the call extended to him by St. George's church, River John. The induction services take place Tuesday, Dec. 13th.

It is understood, says the Transcript, that Sir Louis Davies, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, favors the holding the final conference meetings in Moncton rather than in Ottawa. These latter meetings will be for the purpose of consultation between the commissioners, and not for taking evidence. All the commissioners will be present, and meet as a whole at these meetings for the first time, and prepare their reports. The City Council, it is believed, will place the City Council chamber at the commissioners' use.
