

S. A. McDonald The Island's Leading Store

Our Coats

Our clothing department never had so many good values as we are showing today. Our coats suit every taste and purse. For $6.50 we are showing a coat which most of stores make a lot of talk about at $8.00. At $9.50, $10.50, $12.00, $14.00 we are showing values that have proved a big surprise to many.

These coats are tailored and finished by the best clothing house in Charlottetown. In buying clothing here you get the benefit of our expert experience. It is now generally admitted that if you want the best clothing for the least money you must go to McDonald's for it.

Konverto Overcoat

A full line of overcoats for the Boys' as well in prices from $3.00 to $10.00

Ladies' Coats Half Price

On going through our Mautle Department we find we have 50 odd ranging in sizes from 32 to 40 Bust. In many of these lines we had any as 25 coats, but in most cases now we have only one or two in each left. So that in order to make a complete clearance of the entire lot we are placing them on sale this morning at just (1-2) their regular value. The $10.00 coats for $5.00, $11.50 for $5.75, $12.00 for $6.00, $14.00 for $7.00, $16.00 for $8.00, $18.00 for $9.00.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

The W. F. M. Society met at the home of William and Mrs. Laird, Cavendish, a few evenings ago. Their President Mrs. Rev. J. Sterling on behalf of the ladies read a very flattering address to Mrs. Laird and Mrs. Albert McNeill presented her with a very beautiful bound Bible. Mrs. Laird was deeply touched by their kindness and could say only a few words in reply. Rev. John Sterling, on behalf of the gentlemen present, spoke of their regret in the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Laird and their daughters from their midst and wished for them a safe journey and every blessing for them in their new home. He was followed by D. A. Simpson who spoke along the same lines and wished for Mr. and Mrs. Laird every success in their adopted home. The ladies then brought out their baskets and soon all sat down to a sumptuous repast and a pleasant hour was spent in social intercourse, after farewells had been said all departed to their homes. Mr. and Mrs. Laird leave shortly for Vancouver, B. C.

Dear Mrs. Laird,
We are sorry now to realize that you are really going from us. All along we had hoped that it would not be. As members of the W. M. S. Auxiliary and Sewing circle we cannot allow you to go without some expression of our appreciation of your work, of our regret at your departure, and of the good will that goes with you.

You were our president for a number of years and when the meeting was small and the work not very encouraging you persevered. We learned to rely on your presence at the meetings, we waited on you to lead in supplication at the Throne of Grace, we often enjoyed the hospitalities of your home in our social gatherings, but not only as a member of our society will we miss you but also as a friend and neighbor, and in homes where there was sickness your kindness will be specially remembered.

Our good wishes go with you. We hope that in the latter sphere in which you are going, where there are greater opportunities and perhaps greater need you may be able to use your talents in even greater measure. We feel that more will be left for us to do yet, we feel that the measure of life is not what we can get, but what we can give.

We ask you to accept this Bible as something which will remind you of the little band that is working on in the distant homeland, and we hope that you and we may find more and more inspiration and strength from the study of the sacred page.

Wishing you and yours that life may yield the best thing, we are,
Yours Sincerely,
Mrs. Albert MacNeill,
Mrs. John Stirling,
Mrs. Robert McKenzie,
Mrs. Alex MacNeill,
Mrs. D. M. Simpson,
Mrs. J. F. MacNeill,

Something New In Cased Pipes

We are showing a nice line of these pipes which were bought right and will be sold accordingly. This is a sample of a pipe consisting of forty pipes, in all shapes and sizes, and no two are alike.

These pipes are of the finest quality brass and are being covered with blue plush.

They may be seen in our store window for a few days, and when you see them, you think you will agree with us, that it is an exceptionally fine assortment.

We intend that the prices shall sell them, so you may know they will be marked close.

As a gift they will be appropriate and very acceptable to a gentleman who smokes.

REVOLUTION IN CHINA PRINCE CHUN RESIGNS.
PEKIN, Dec. 7—An edict announcing the resignation of the Regent, Prince Chun, was issued yesterday by the Empress Dowager. It points out that the administration has been unpopular, and that constitutional government has not yet been established,—explaining this by fact that complications arose, the peoples hearts were broken, and the country was thrown into turmoil.

The regent regrets that his repentence came too late, and feels that if he were continued in power, his commands would soon be disregarded.

REDUCED RATES ON POSTAGE.
