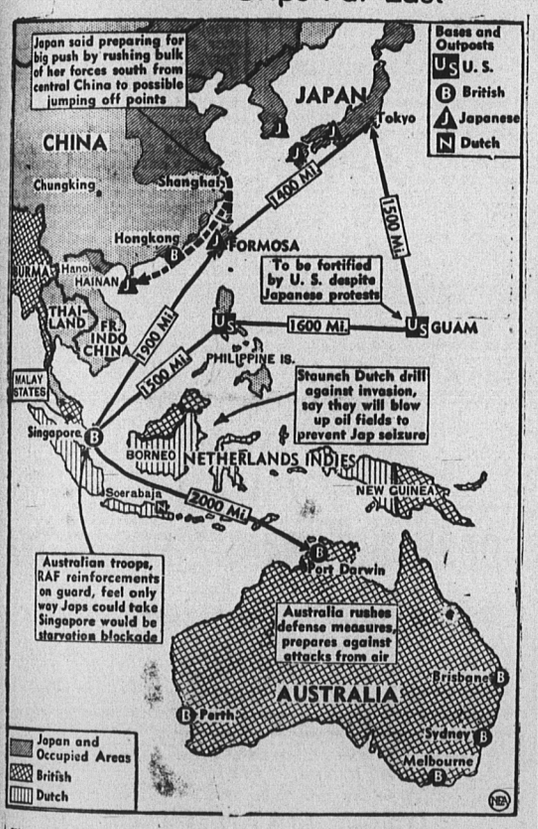
War Fever Grips Far East



War tension is high in the Far East, with troops of Britain and Japan moving to defensive and offensive positions, respectively, and diplomatic breaks threatened daily. Map shows scene of action, where a Japanese thrust at the British stronghold of Singapore may be the first act of a new war in ancient Asia.

VISITING WITH MOTHER — Mrs. G. Parker, Georgetown, P. E. I., is spending some time in town with her mother, Mrs. Alex Balfour, Irving Street, whose health is not improving much to the regret of her many friends. —New Glasgow News.)

THEOLOGY STUDENTS SPEAKERS—Two members of the graduating class of Pine Hill Divinity Hall were guest preachers at two Halifax United churches Sunday. Thomas D. F. Everett of Riley Brook N. B., was the speaker at the morning service of Brunswick street church, and Eric F. Coffin, Montague, P. E. I., preached at the evening service in St. John's Church —Halifax Chonicle.

HAMPTON RED CROSS— The Hampton Red Cross Society met at the Manse, Feb. 24th for the regular meeting. Two evenings each month this society meets, evenings of great activity when sewing, knitting, and quilting are freely indulged in. Many of the members take unfinished work home for speedy completion. This unit, though small in numbers, is doing very creditably under the careful supervision of the President, Mrs. D. J. Morrison and officers assisted by a willing band of members. A steady output of finished garments, knitted work and warm quilts are forwarded regularly to the Provincial Red Cross head quarters in Charlottetown. Since organization last autumn the following articles have been forwarded. 31 pair socks, 6 pair mittens, 1 cap, 4 scarves, 4 sweaters, 9 pr. bed socks, 4 pr. pyjama , 6 pneumonia jackets, 3 quilts.

WORLD'S DAY OF PRAYER AT HAMPTON—Victoria and Hampton Women's Missionary Auxiliaries were guests of the Bonshaw Auxiliary at the Manse, Hampton, on Friday afternoon Feb. 28. A record attendance of thirty-six members from the three organizations met to join in a great fellowship or prayer, mingling their intercessions with women the world over in a great chain of prayer for "Thy Kingdom Come." The vice-president of the Bonshaw Society, Mrs. Neil Salmond, very capably presided, following the the programme as prepared by the committee in Shanghai, China. Scripture readings were given by Mrs. Geddie MacLeod, Mrs. John MacPhail and Miss Isabel Ferguson. Special prayers for the coming of the Kingdom in our community and nation were offered by Mrs. E. Cameron, Mrs. Fred Shaw, and Mrs. D. J. Morrison; for our King and Queen and Government by Mrs. Neil Salmond; for those on active service by Mrs. Stephen MacLeod, for war victims by Mrs. J. W. Boyce, for Peace by Mrs. L. T. Beaton; for Missions by Mrs. D. Murchison and the Prayer of Dedication by Mrs. J. D. MacFarlane. In addition to the Hymns on programme, by special request No. 262, The Morning Light is Breaking, was sung. This was followed by a searching Devotional address by Rev. D. J. Morrison who spoke from Luke 12.32 "Fear not little flock, for it is your Father's good plea ure to give you the kingdom." Following the offertory a duet, Ivory Palaces, was very feelingly rendered by Mrs. J. W. Boyce and Mrs. Geddie MacLeod. God Save the King and the Benediction closed the meeting —a meeting long to be remembered by those privileged to attend. Heartfelt thanks were tendered to the Bonshaw Auxiliary, by Mrs. J. D. MacFarlane. Messages of sympathy were also sent to the President of the Bonshaw Auxiliary, Mrs. Neil Ferguson and Mrs. A. B. MacLeod both of whom were unable to attend because of serious sickness.

In Memoriam

MR. ARTEMAS LEARD

The community of Spring Valley was shocked to hear of the sudden death of Mr. Artemas Leard, which occurred at his home on Monday evening, Feb. 10.

The deceased had the Flu, but was considered well, when he suffered an acute heart attack resulting from his illness.

Mr. Leard was well and favorably known being proprietor of Leards Mills for over fifty years, after coming from Crapaud where he was born seventy-five years ago.

He was a staunch member of the United Church. Having an excellent talent for music and vocal singing he helped the advancement of community life.

Although over the three score year and ten, no younger person could excell him in the art of skating.

His funeral service was conducted by the Rev. A. D. Sterling of the United Church, Kensington. Hymns were, A few more years shall roll, and When I Survey the Wondrous Cross. Russell MacKay rendered "Will The Circle Be Unbroken."

He leaves to mourn a widow formerly Elizabeth Duggan of Spring Valley, six children, Leith of Everett, Mass; Clara, Mrs. Glennon of Somerville, Mass., Vernon of Malden and Rena, Mrs. Crowther of Jamaica Plains, Mass and Marshall of Everett, who was unable to attend his father's funeral and a daughter Muriel at home. He also leaves one brother, Warren of O'Leary who was present at the funeral.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Elvin Bryanton, Bruce Casely, Everett Sudbury, Ralph Connick, Harry and Alvin Sudbury. His remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Kensington, the casket bearing many beautiful floral contributions from friends here and in the United States.

MRS. D. M. JOHNSTONE

Islands friends will learn with deep regret of the passing of Mrs. D. M. Johnstone in Calgary, Alta. on Feb. 14th at the age of 71 years. Born in Summerside, P. E. I. she was before her marriage Miss Nettie Clay daughter of the late John and Mrs. Clay. Her fine, upbringing showed itself in her reverence for things sacred and in her upright character. The greater part of her married life was spent in Long River where she was highly respected and esteemed by all classes.

Fourteen years ago she with her husband and family moved to Calgary, where she has since resided. Devoted to her home and family it fell to her lot to tenderly care for an invalid daughter, cheerfully bearing her cross without a murmur.

Passionately fond of music her outstanding ability and rare gifts of leadership along these lines found outward expression in many years of faithful services as Organist and Choir Director in Long River Presbyterian Church and here her duties were always discharged with efficiency and a high sense of responsibility. Whatever office she filled in the church or in the interests of community welfare she rendered a fine quality of service.

A most impressive and largely attended funeral service was held from the home on the 17th many coming from a distance to pay their last respects to a dear friend. The service was conducted by the Pastor Rev. Mr. Bright before closing he read the beautiful familiar hymn "O Love that will not let me go". The floral tributes were many and very beautiful bearing silent testimony to the life of the departed. The pall bearers were — William McLeod, Stanley Bernard William McGill Mr. Cleasby, Mr Norton and Mr. Bevan.

Her remains were tenderly laid to rest in the family plot beside those of her husband who predeceased her twelve years ago.

There are left to cherish the memory of a loving Mother five daughters, namely. — The Misses Helen Florence and Mary Jean (Mrs. McGill) and Amy (Mrs. Archie McLeod) and one son David C. and other daughter Marion predeceased her sixteen years ago.
