LOOKING FOR WORK

Everywhere men complain about work; even boys and girls in school or business find work tedious and irksome, but it isn't the work half so much as their own lack of physical strength that makes it hard.

Rich blood, strong lungs and healthy digestion make work pleasurable in business, in school or even housework, and if those who are easily tired—who are not sick, but weak and nervous—would just take Scott's Emulsion for one month and let its pure concentrated food create richer blood to pulsate through every artery and vein—let it build a structure of healthy tissue and give you vigorous strength—you would find work easy and would look for more. Insist on Scott's.

OAXACA PROCLAIMS ITS SOVEREIGNTY

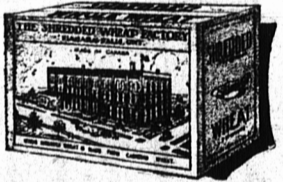

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 8.—General Pablo Gonzales, commander of the Carranza forces in the capital last night made public the text of a manifesto issued by the State of Oaxaca to the Mexican nation. The manifesto says Oaxaca has proclaimed its sovereignty until constitutional order is resumed in the republic. It is desired, the manifesto adds, to stand aloof from fratricidal strife and, being neutral, to place Oaxaca in the position to act as a mediator when the time comes to bring the warring factions together.

General Carranza has formally decreed Queretaro the provisional capital of the republic and Mexico City the capital of the federal district. Another decree issued by General Carranza provides for a raise of 25 per cent. in the salaries of government employees and of the men in the army, effective March 1 and also pensions of families of physicians who die in combating the typhus fever.

—WAR LECTURE AT KENSINGTON.—The lecture on the present titanic struggle by Dr. G. M. Campbell was one, the like of which Kensington people are seldom privileged to hear. Dr. Campbell is a finished orator, giving every word its proper sound, and every syllable its proper accent, which, together with his compelling personal magnetism, and evident sincerity in the truth of what he is saying, commands such wrapt attention as is not often the privilege of a speaker to command. Dr. Campbell spoke for an hour and a half, which time to the audience seemed more like fifteen minutes, so engrossed was it with the fervid expressions of the speaker. The audience seemed surprised and pained when he stopped. The speaker dealt at length with the Prussian "Dream of Empire" and the would-be imposition of the German thought and "Kultur" on the nations of the earth. He quoted history showing that many other dreams of world power, in ages past had never materialized, and the unspoken influence was that the Kaiser's dream notwithstanding the preparation of fifty years for "the day," would never be an entity. Dr. Campbell was disposed to dwell in a short time on the German justification of its hatred of the British people, and the "Gott strafe England" slogan. He spoke of the "Honourable aggression" of British people, language and thought subsequent to the battle of Trafalgar, since which time Britain's power on the seven seas has never been questioned. He stated that a large portion of the earth which the British Empire has acquired, but he said, "The German people are taught to believe that a large portion of the great British Empire is the result of luck and sharp practice," and many other calamities against England are fostered on a glib German peasantry by a scheming military aristocracy, hence the intense hatred of England. Dr. Campbell spoke in glowing terms of the bravery and stoicism of Canadian soldiers in the Battle of Ypres. This was probably the most thrilling part of the lecture. He related an incident which was told him by a lady whom Sir Sam Hughes had sent to the front to find out the cause of parcels not being delivered which were sent to the soldiers in the trenches, after accomplishing her task, she came back to Canada, and during a conversation with Dr. Campbell, he asked her to tell him of some incidents that had not gotten into print. She told him about Col. Guthrie of New Brunswick, getting wounded thirteen times and still living, also of the immortal message to the Canadians from General French "Hold on Canadians the fate of Empire depends on you". Seven thousand Canadian soldiers held on for twenty-four hours against 120,000 of the picked soldiers of Germany. That was the attempted drive on Calais. History records no more daring and wonderful feat. The charge of this Brigadier at Balaklava doesn't compare with it. A vote of thanks to Dr. Campbell was moved by Mr. Ormond Thompson who emphasized it by a nice little speech and second by Dr. Houston who drew attention to the fact that to the Red Cross and Kensington Women's patriotic league, the credit was due for having Dr. Campbell here to lecture, also that they were now assured Red Cross parcels were getting to the trenches. The thanks of the audience was conveyed to the speaker, by the chairman, Mayor Darrach, in his customary happy manner, remarking (by the way) that "it is a favorite motto of ours to remunerate speakers with a vote of thanks." Dr. Campbell replied to the vote of thanks gracefully, and said that it was a great pleasure to speak to an audience that gave such close attention to the reaction, on the speaker gracefully, and said that it was a nice sum for the Patriotic society was realized by sales of candy and small admission fee.—K.

—HORSE LOST.—The storm of last night had a strange coincidence, with the last severe storm here. While the result was not so sad, it nevertheless was a great loss. Mr. Martin P. Doyle of Norway drove to Tignish Friday evening a distance of five miles, accompanied by Mr. Nelligan, to attend the recruiting meeting. After the meeting, Mr. Doyle hitched his horse and tied him in shelter for a short time before starting for home, and leaving him for a few moments, upon returning found he was gone. Mr. Doyle was not seriously alarmed as he decided the horse had broken loose and gone home, but instead of going home he went in the opposite direction, and in shelter became bewildered and fell over an embankment into the water and ice, where he was found dead this morning, near the spot where the body of Mr. Perry was found a short time ago.—Z.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. WILLIAM G. TODD.

The death occurred at Bradabane on the 7th inst. of Ann Cameron wife of the late William G. Todd. Deceased was 76 years of age and was a respected resident of that locality. She was an ardent Christian, and leaves to mourn two daughters Mrs. J. D. Reeves of Seattle Washington, and Mrs. J. W. Frizzle, Colorado Springs Colo., and six sons, J. C. Todd, Summerside; Robert and Charles, Bradabane; William in St. Louis Mo., James in Winnipeg Man., and Daniel in Portland Me., also one sister Miss Catherine Cameron of Searletown and one brother Mr. Alexander Cameron Charlottetown. The funeral service was conducted at the home and grave by the Rev. Mr. McCaul. The sorrowing family and friends mourn not in vain, for she has gone to dwell, forever with the Lord.—H.

MRS. ROBERT MCLEOD.

On Feb. 1st, at Bradabane there passed away to her eternal rest Euphemia Jane Hill, beloved wife of Robert MacLeod Bradabane, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hill of Fredericton (her mother having predeceased her some years ago).

The deceased had been in failing health for over a year but despite all that medical skill and loving hands could do, death, the enemy of mankind claimed her for its own. The funeral service was held in the Christian Church Bradabane, of which she was a faithful member. H. R. Bell, her late pastor officiated at the church and grave being assisted by the Rev. Mr. McCaul. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather a large crowd gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to our departed sister. She leaves to mourn her loss an evergreen her memory her father and Robert I. C. Hill, of Fredericton, her brother, and her husband and two children. We laid her body to rest in Fredericton Cemetery not as those without hope but believing that when Christ shall come—those who have fallen asleep in Christ shall God bring with Him.

Charlottetown Man Cured

OF PNEUMONIA BY MEANS OF THE FARADOR.

It is sad to know of so many deaths from pneumonia. Nearly all these deaths would have been prevented had the Farador been used. The following statement is from a Charlottetown young man:—

"About two months ago I contracted a severe cold, became very sick and suffered from pains in my chest. Fearing I had pneumonia I sent for a doctor who diagnosed my case and pronounced it pneumonia. Knowing the same severe cases of pneumonia were cured by the Farador I wasted no time in getting the Farador to work. It was applied with hot compress according to directions. It brought down the temperature, made me perspire and the next morning I felt so much better I was able to sit up. In just one week's time I was able to resume work. When I had pneumonia four years ago I was confined to my bed three months and it was five months before I was able to work. Note the difference. It is a grand thing to know what to do when ill. The Farador is the ideal remedy.

Another Charlottetown man states that he was cured of double pneumonia by means of the Farador when his case seemed hopeless. Several other testimonials state that the Farador cures them of pneumonia. The names and addresses of the persons referred to will be given upon request. People are urgently invited to investigate. W. E. ENMAN, Farador Agent, 226 Richmond St., Charlottetown, 7294-2-10M11.

FIRING A SALUTE

An interesting explanation attaches to the curious custom of firing a salute when a dignitary visits a foreign country the moment that his ship enters port a formal salute is fired as a signal of welcome. This custom was observed years ago when it was considered the correct thing for a port to fire its guns to show the visiting stranger that the citizens and authorities placed such confidence in his friendliness that it was not considered necessary to keep the guns loaded, so all the shots were discharged.—Scottish-American.

A VOLUNTEER'S TEETH

An Oldham recruit presented himself for medical examination. He seemed all right, but he had to open his mouth—and then there was a dialogue like this: Sergeant—You'll have to have new teeth. Recruit—Then'll you'll ha' to pay for 'em. Sergeant—Nay, nay—they are your teeth, you know. Recruit—So they are, an' they're good enough for my job. But this is yo're job, an' it new teeth's wanted for it yo'll have to pay for 'em. He was passed, attested, and promoted new teeth at the cost of the state. There was nothing else for it.
