MRS. LEWIS OF BROOKLYN

Tells How She Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"For one year I was miserable from displacement, which caused a general run-down condition with head-aches and pains in my side. My Sister induced me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I found it helped me very much and such a splendid tonic that I am recommending it to any woman who has similar troubles."—Mrs. Elsie G. Lewis, St. Vermont Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Such conditions as Mrs. Lewis suffered from may be caused by a fall or a general weakened run-down condition of the system, and the most successful remedy to restore strength to muscles and tissue and bring about a normal healthy condition—has proved to be this famous root and herb medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have disturbing symptoms you do not understand write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years experience is at your service.

FALL SESSION CHARLOTTE TOWN METHODIST DISTRICT. The fall session of the Charlotte town district of the Methodist Church was opened in Herby Memorial Hall on Wednesday, Dec. 1st at 2.30. Rev. H. Pierce presided. All the ministers on the district excepting Mr. Brodie, were present. There were also present the following laymen:—Col. P. S. Moore and Messrs Henry Smith, Wm. H. Smith, James Paton, J. A. Moore, East Royalty, John McInnis and Mr. Younger, Winslow, Vernon Jenkins, Millview, George H. Boyle, Curwall, John W. Jay. There were present in the interests of Mt. Allison University, Rev. Dr. Borden and Mr. Swelgart. After the usual routine Dr. Borden laid before the meeting the plans for the forward movement in connection with Mt. Allison. The university and Ladies College need an increase of at least $500,000 in order to meet the needs at this important time in the history of the institutions at Sackville. Mr. Swelgart also spoke outlining the plan to be followed in the undertaking.

In the evening there was a public meeting. This was conducted by Rev. Mr. Glendinning. Dr. Borden offered prayer and Rev. H. A. Broton of Souris gave an address on the Church and the World Outlook. The address showed considerable careful preparation and was listened to with close attention all through.

MAIL FOR ORIENT.—Arrangements have been made whereby correspondences for the Orient, specially marked to go by any steamer of the Canadian Pacific Ocean Services Limited, or specially marked to go by that line, will be so despatched. This applies to the Empress of Japan, scheduled to sail from Vancouver on the 7th December and to other Canadian Pacific steamers until further notice.

ROBBERY.—The hardware store of Messrs Fennel and Chandler, 75, was entered by a thief or thieves on Thursday night and two revolvers were taken. The robbery was discovered yesterday morning. Entrance to the premises was effected by breaking in a hatchway at the rear of the store. Things were scattered about a bit but nothing appears to have been taken but the revolvers. One of these was a new German revolver which had been brought from Germany by a returned soldier and who had left it at the hardware store until ammunition of sufficient size could be procured. The other revolver was a new one of large calibre, the ordinary kind sold in the store. Here is a case to give the police something to figure on.

ELLIOTVALE DEBATING SOCIETY.—The Elliotvale Debating Society held its opening debate of the season in the school house on Tuesday evening, Nov. 30th. The subject, resolved that country life is preferable to city life, was discussed in an able and jovial manner, before a large and appreciative audience. The speakers in favor of the resolution were Messrs E.J. Dunt, M.J. Kelly and Aeneas McDonald. Contra, Messrs Peter J. McDonald, Wm. Keoughan and P. McLaughlin. Mr. Thos. Corcoran of Baldwin Road ably presided as chairman and gave his decision in favor of the Resolution. The next debate will be held on Tuesday evening Dec. 7th inst, subject, Resolution that the present protective tariff has outlived its usefulness and should be abolished. As the subject is of vital interest at the present time a large number of speakers will probably take part, and an animated and instructive discussion is expected. It is hoped that a series of debates will be continued during the winter season.

VALUABLE PROPERTY CHANGED HANDS.—The old homestead of 90 acres of land known as the Wayne farm, previously owned by the late James Wayne and John Wayne, his son, for over seventy years, has been sold to Mr. Donald Andrews for the sum of $6,700. Mr. Andrews is to be congratulated on his purchase, as it is a choice farm and beautifully located, only ten chains from school and one mile from the prosperous village of Hunter River. Mr. Andrews is one of the most up-to-date farmers in the County, and a look at his farm and residence will prove it.

Mr. Wayne's auction sale was also a decided success. Mr. W. D. McCoubrey, the auctioneer, displayed much of his old-time vigor with a snap not easily surpassed.

SUCCESSFUL CONCERT.—A very successful concert and social was held in Johnson's River school on Friday evening Nov. 26th under the auspices of the altar society Sacred Heart Church at Mt. Ryan. Rev. Wm. V. McDonald presided and the following programme was rendered. Opening address, Rev. V. McDonald. Song and chorus, Mr. Chas Walker and members of the Mt. Ryan Social Club. Recitation Miss Mary Trainor. Duet, Messrs Wm. F. McDonald and Alban McDonald. Song Mr. Chas Walker. Recitation, Miss Anita McDonald. Song, Miss Mary Bragen. Violin selection, Misses Margaret and Florie Walker (encored). Step dance, Master Roy McDonald (encored). Song, Mr. Wm. Walker. Recitation, Miss Lucy Smith. Song, Mr. Alban McDonald. Trio, Mrs. Chas. Cumiskey, Mrs. Bragen and Ruth O'Halloran. Quartette, Misses Evelyn Brayen, Florie Walker, Messrs Alban McDonald and Chas. Walker. Duet, Messrs Wm. F. and Alban McDonald. Song and chorus, master Lorne Beagen and members of club, God Save the King. Mrs. Beagen and Miss Mary McDonald played the accompaniments. At the close of the programme Mr. Peter Trainor introduced Mr. John A. McDonald, Charlottetown, whose ability as an auctioneer is so well known, and the sum of $108 was realized. A large box of chocolates kindly donated by Rev. Wm. V. McDonald was lottered and drawn by Wm. Walker, and a box of cigars donated by Mrs. Beagen was won by Hugh Trainor.
