Want At Sydney Stirs Woman M.P.

SYDNEY, March 25.—"I have no words with which to describe conditions in the colliery districts of Cape Breton, as I found them today. I thought I had seen on poverty, but I had experienced it. But I know tonight that I never before today encountered such stark destitution."

So declared Agnes McPhail, M.P., this evening, following her tour of inspection of southern coal mining area, which suffering from the blight of broken time, in the industry for several months back appeared to abject want, with the stoppage of credit at the stores of the British Empire Steel Corporation and the subsequent withdrawal of 6,000 miners from the pits, in protest, nearly three weeks ago.

Crown Life Insurance Co. Has New Superintendent

Announcement is made that R. C. Macdonald, LL. B., who for the past three years has been District Agent of the Crown Life Insurance Company in Halifax, has been appointed Superintendent for the Maritimes. Mr. Macdonald, who is a graduate in law of Dalhousie University and a member of the Nova Scotia Bar, is well known in Maritime business, military and athletic circles. He served overseas as an officer in the 25th Battalion and in other capacities, and holds the rank of major in the Halifax Rifles. He is a former manager of the Dalhousie University Hockey Team. He was born and brought up in the Maritime Provinces, being a native of Halifax. His promotion places him in general charge of the Maritime agencies of the Crown Life.

CONCERT

HEARTZ MEMORIAL HALL Thursday, March 26th at 8 p.m. Following is the programme: Male Choir of eight voices; Piano Solo—Miss Lillian McKenzie; Violin Solo—Miss Bernice Stultz; Duet—Mrs. John McNair and Mrs. Richard McKee.

MARRIAGES

CARSON-McPHAIL—At Charlottetown, P. E. I., on March 25th 1925, by Rev. Owen MacDougall, George J. Carson of Bonshaw, to Miss Sophia Blanche McPhail of Argyle Shore.

DEATHS

ROBBINS—At Milburn, Lot 40, on March 13, 1925, Evelyn Elizabeth, infant daughter of Frederick and Mrs. Robbins, aged 17 days.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Rev. James McDougall, Cape Traverse, who died March 25th 1922. Heaven retaineth now our treasure Earth the lonely casket keeps. And the sunbeams love to linger, Where our darling Pastor sleeps. INSERTED BY MRS. JOHN CLARK

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Jean MacLeod, who died March 26th, 1919. Ere sin could harm or sorrow fade Death came with friendly care. And took to Heaven our darling That child so bright and fair. We shall know her voice in the Lamb's new song, Her step on the streets of gold And the same bright smile on her glorified face. As it wore in the days of old. INSERTED BY HER PARENTS

BASKETBALL

Bruins 28, P. W. College 14.

The first senior game of the season took place on the Gym floor last night and although lacking in practice both teams put over an excellent exhibition of the game.
