Lavish Beauty Delights Fans At Capitol

Laughs and beauty abound in Paramount's "Search for Beauty," which opened yesterday at the Capitol Theatre, and which features the thirty perfect young men and women chosen by the studio from among more than 176,000 contestants in all English-speaking countries of the world.

James Gleason and Robert Armstrong furnish a riot of fun and are convincing in their roles of crook promoters. Leading honors are shared by Ida Lupino, young English actress, and Larry "Buster" Crabbe, former Olympic swimmer, who in a hilarious and amusing shapshon. Gertrude Michael and Toby Wing give excellent performances.

The story deals with the efforts of crooked promoters to cash in on a health and beauty racket, using Crabbe and Miss Lupino as unwitting come-ons. The crooks lose out on their own scheme as their "front" is exposed by the beauty-loving Harry Fitzbeak with amusing results.

The picture was ably directed by Eric Kenton, with special dialog by Sam Hellman. Photography by Harry Fitzbeak adds to the beauty of the spectacular ensemble numbers.

"Cradle Song" Moving Drama, Wieck Superb At Prince Edward

A deeply emotional tale of mother love and sacrifice came to the Prince Edward Theatre yesterday in "Cradle Song," the first American vehicle for Paramount's newest star, Dorothea Wieck, and sponsored by St. Charles Auxiliary.

Bringing to the role all the charm and beauty that she displayed as the school teacher in "Meadowland," Dorothea Wieck reveals in "Cradle Song," a sensitivity, a dramatic understanding, and a grasp of the different part that places her high among the leading dramatic actresses in Hollywood.

Completely the beaten track of motion picture entertainment, "Cradle Song" is a delicate handling of a difficult theme. The story by the noted Spanish playwright, C. M. Martinez Sierra tells of a child abandoned at a convent, and raised by one of the sisters. As Sister Joanna, Miss Wieck has been longing for the motherhood denied her. She lavishes on the child all the love and affection she would have given to a child of her own. Drama and heart-break mount to a moving climax when the child, grown to girlhood, meets a young man outside the convent and leave to marry him.

A spiritual quality pervades the entire production though the characters are sharply and individually etched. Dorothea Wieck brings to the screen, a haunting beauty that promises much for the future. Sir Guy Standing in one of the principal roles gives a warming and heartfelt performance. As the mother superior Louise Dresser is excellent. Evelyn Venable, the girl, is refreshing and charming.

Paramount deserves considerable praise for quality unusualness of this production. As an example of the finer things that can come from Hollywood, it is unsurpassed.

Presbytery Of Prince Edward Island

The Presbytery of Prince Edward Island met in regular quarterly session at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, March 6th in Zion Church Hall, Charlottetown and was opened in due form by the Moderator Rev. G. Carlyle Webster.

Those present were, Rev. G. Carlyle Webster, Moderator; Rev. R. Hensley Stavert, Clerk; Rev. Chas. J. St. Clair Jeans, Rev. Fred Williamson, Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, D.D., Rev. D. L. Griffiths, Rev. John A. Pritchard, Rev. W. O. Rhoad, Rev. J. H. Douglas and Rev. E. C. Robertson and Messrs. S. M. Hicks, Geddie Douglas, Angus McLean, A. E. Morrison, Douglas McPherson, R. G. McLaren, John R. McWilliams, Wm. Kennedy, A. A. McDonald, Hugh Corbett and Jas. Jardine, representative elders.

Others present not members of the court were Rev. M. E. Genge, D.D., V. E. Orsborn, Student Catechist, and Messrs. Wm. McMillan, A. A. McNeill, A. Mutch, Elders, Messrs. John Anderson, James Brodie, Joseph Livingston, F. G. McDonald and Arch. Ramsay, representative laymen.

Rev. J. Younger Lewis who has been supplying the pulpits of Montague and Cardigan for several months was asked to sit and to correspond.

There were four sessions in all—three on Tuesday and one on Wednesday. In addition to these four regular sessions, a communion service was held on Tuesday evening.

After two slight corrections had been made in them, the minutes of the regular quarterly session held on November 7th, 1933, were adopted. The minutes of the special meeting held on January 16th were adopted as read.

The attention of the Court was called to the fact that Rev. A. G. Stewart, Montague, had for some time been quite seriously ill. It was learned that since our last regular meeting of Presbytery two elders, Messrs. Robert G. Horne of the Alberton congregation, and John A. McDonald of the Belfast congregation had been called to their eternal reward.

It was also learned that A. A. McDonald, Elder, of the Zion congregation and Mrs. McDonald had recently been bereft of their infant daughter, Mary.

The clerk was requested to send letters of sympathy and consolation from the Presbytery to Rev. A. G. Stewart and family, to the families of Messrs. Robert G. Horne and John McDonald and to Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McDonald.

The correspondence was then dealt with.

The applications of the congregations of Kensington, Freetown, Tryon and Bradabane were brought under the Blanket Act of Incorporation passed by the Legislature in 1933 were passed on the committee on Legal Titles to be reported upon at a later session.

The application of James McCowan, Kilmuir, a third year student of Mt. Allison University for work in the Home Mission Field in May 1934 was read and handed to the Home Mission Committee. The several reports sent down from the General Assembly to the Presbytery were each given in charge of certain members of the court to be reported on later.

A letter was received by the Clerk from the convener of the General Assembly's Historical Committee asking a number of questions regarding certain suggestions given for the holding of the Diamond Jubilee of the Presbyterian Church in Canada and the Tenth Anniversary of the covenant of June 10th, 1925. It was agreed that the suggestion that the date of the holding of this celebration should be June 8th or June 10th, 1925 and that the place should be Knox Presbyterian Church, Oak, Ontario be approved by Presbytery. At this time and place the members of the Assembly will review the situation which the Presbyterian Church in Canada was confronted with the decision of maintaining and defending its existence in Canada or allowing it to merge into a United Church. It is believed that all present on such an occasion will know something of that thrill of joy which was felt on June 10th, 1925, not only in our own country but even around the world when it was solemnly agreed that the Presbyterian Church in Canada should carry on as before.

On the Tenth Anniversary of that Covenant we believe that all Presbyterians will be anxious to confirm what was done in a sollemn covenant in 1925 between each of us and Jesus Christ, King and Head of the Church. And in order that this celebration carry a special meaning it is suggested that Sunday June 4th, 1935 be made "A Day of the Covenant" and that all ministers prepare appropriate addresses for the occasion, that the Board of Sunday Schools and Young People's Societies be requested to prepare for the youth of the church on that date, that the various branches of the W. M. Society hold special meetings at the very hour when the Assembly is celebrating and that the men of the church also get together and hold a luncheon at that hour.

It is also suggested that the Assembly of 1935 might be made a "General" one—that is a Rally of all the ministers of all the Presbyteries. The Church could probably only afford to pay the way of the ministers and their families, but in addition to this all who could be present by paying their own expenses would be given a seat in the General Assembly.

A committee, consisting of Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, D.D., Rev. G. O. Rhoad, Rev. St. Clair Jeans, Rev. W. O. Rhoad, Rev. J. H. Douglas and Messrs. A. A. McDonald and Wm. McMillan, was appointed to arrange for a communion service in Zion Church at 7.30 p. m. Rev. J. W. Douglas interim-moderator of the sessions of Caledonia and Wood Islands reported that requests had come in asking for a re-adjustment of the services in these fields. It was agreed to leave the matter over until the Presbytery meeting in May, when Rev. A. Hensley Stavert, Minister, who at present is on leave of absence in Scotland, will have returned.

Rev. J. A. Pritchard, interim-moderator of the sessions of Montague and Cardigan informed the court that the work in this combined field was making good progress under the care of the Moderator, Rev. A. G. Stewart, who had been supplying there for the past three months. The work among the young people was in a very flourishing condition indeed.

Rev. Chas. J. St. Clair Jeans, interim moderator of the session of the Zion congregation, reported that as yet this congregation had not asked for any pulpit supply. Whenever these people wish to have Sunday services he will be ready to secure the required supply.

The question of the proper time of year for the appointing of the representative elders of the different congregations in the Presbytery was discussed at some length and reported to be quite different opinions as to the exact date of appointment and the exact time when each elder shall take his seat in the Presbytery it was decided to have the Clerk of Presbytery get in touch with the clerk of the General Assembly and get more light on the subject and have it brought up at the May meeting. In the meantime all representative elders present shall be held as having legal standing in the court. Rev. G. Carlyle Webster brought the name of Mr. Glenn Partridge, a student now in the University, and who had worked in the Charlottetown Y. M. C. A. for some time, as a worthy young man who was looking forward to the ministry of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. Mr. Partridge had been recommended to the Presbytery by the Zion Church session and Mr. Webster asked to have him recommended by the Presbytery to the General Assembly, Montreal.

The request was unanimously granted.

The Presbytery of Prince Edward Island is entitled to send four commissioners to the General Assembly which is to be held in Toronto June 6 to 13. The two ministers appointed were Rev. J. Keir Fraser, D.D. and Rev. Fred Williamson and the two elders were Rev. A. G. Stewart and Rev. G. O. Rhoad with Messrs. R. G. McLaren and Wm. Kennedy as alternates.

If the two ministers appointed find it impossible to attend the General Assembly, alternates will be appointed at the Presbytery meeting.

Rev. Chas. J. St. Clair Jeans, Convener of the Presbytery's Budget committee reported on the standing of the Budget. Mr. Jeans stated that the last report received from Toronto was dated Jan. 31st but that a good deal of money had been sent in since that date. Many of our congregations have gotten into the habit of not sending in their budget money until the very end of the year.

Thus far the reports have been very encouraging. St. James Church

CORNWALL CARNIVAL—The carnival in Cornwall Rink on Saturday evening, 24th, was enjoyed by a very large number of spectators and skaters. Miss Laura Crosby, Meadowbank; Mrs. Watson Livingstone, Clyde River, and W. R. Shaw, Cornwall, kindly acted as judges. The winners in the different classes were as follows: (Most original class)—1st, Miss Alma Newson, Kingston, Miss Canada; 2nd, Miss Winnie Best, Clyde River, Britannia; 3rd, Miss Dorothy Walker, Cornwall, Laura Crow. Children's Class—1st, Ellen Shaw, Cornwall, Scotch Lassie; 2nd, Mildred Hyde, Meadowbank, Spearmint Gum; 3rd, Louise Scott, Meadowbank, Funniest class—1st, Mrs. G. MacMillan, Cornwall, Samba; 2nd, Elizabeth Robertson, North River, Witch; 3rd, Mildred Murray, Clyde River, Palm Beach. After the judging, skating was enjoyed on a perfect sheet of ice.

Mr. Michael Hennessey left on the excursion Saturday morning to visit his sister, Mrs. James Kelly, at Chelsea, Mass.

Each of these respective congregations.

The Legal Titles committee of which Rev. G. Carlyle Webster was convener reported that four congregations were applying to have their church property incorporated under the Blanket Act passed by the Legislature in 1933. These four were Kensington, Freetown, Tryon and Bradabane. Their applications were unanimously granted. In order to cover certain legal expenses incurred in connection with the passing of the said Blanket Act each congregation applying for incorporation under the said Act of Incorporation will be asked to contribute the small sum of $200.

A petition from the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island addressed to the General Assembly asking for leave to license and ordain Mr. Victor E. Orsborn as a minister of the Presbyterian Church in Canada in good and regular standing was submitted to the court by Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, D.D. The petition was unanimously approved of and sent on to the General Assembly's Board of Education. The Presbytery also requested that the commissioners from the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island in attendance at the General Assembly be given opportunity to appear before the Assembly's Board of Education in support of this petition.

The four reports sent down from the General Assembly were discussed at some length by the members of Presbytery.

The most important of these was the matter of the office of Budget Secretary. After some discussion it was agreed by a majority vote that this office be made a permanent one in the Presbyterian Church in Canada and also that Rev. A. G. Stewart be given permanent appointment as Budget Secretary. It was agreed that the other three reports namely the one dealing with the Knox College matter, the one dealing with the suggestions regarding men's organizations and the one dealing with the Budget could be safely entrusted to the assembly's committees in charge of them.

The two reports sent down from the Synod of the Maritime Provinces to the Presbyteries were also taken up for discussion.

One of these reports had to do with two recommendations which had been submitted to the Synod by the Synod's committee on Church Work and Life. These two recommendations were, 1. That renewed emphasis be laid upon the supremely important need of a spiritual revival throughout the Church at large, of the deepening of the spiritual life of God's people, and a persistent and prayerful endeavor to seek and win the careless and indifferent, to an acceptance of

2. That the Synod recommends the holding of an annual minister's conference preferably in the month of July when careful and prayerful consideration could be given to common problems of the ministry, the spiritual needs of the people and people alike and the discussion of present day theological questions the working plan of such a conference to be formulated, by the synod's committee on Church Life and Work. This remit was handed to Rev. W. O. Rhoad, the convener of the Presbytery's committee on Church Life and Work who will bring in a report on these matters at the Presbytery meeting in May.

The second Remit had to do with the newwaste Church Fund which it is believed will be understood by the various congregations throughout the Synod. It was agreed that all of the congregations within the bounds of the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island that have not already dealt with this matter should attempt to do so at once and set the example by having a member in each of such congregations be sent on to Rev. Frank Baird, D.D., Picou N. 8.

The Report of the Presbytery Fund Committee was discussed briefly. It was agreed to refer the matter of collecting past dues, back to the committee for further consideration and that the committee be asked to bring in any further necessary recommendations. A hearty vote of thanks to the presbytery clerk of St. James' churches for the royal way in which they had entertained the members of Presbytery was unanimously passed and ordered to be sent on to representatives of these churches.

The Presbytery then adjourned to meet at the call of the Moderator, the clerk of which public intimation was given and the meeting was closed with the benediction by the Moderator Rev. G. Carlyle Webster.

EVIDENCE OF STONE AGE

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 2—Evidence to support a theory that the mountainous region of northwestern India and central Asia was recently than had been believed, was reported today by the Yale North India expedition.

Prof. Helmut De Terra, leader of the expedition which returned recently, found the Himalayan region is geologically the most dynamic in the world, some sections still rising six feet a century.

Primitive scrapers and stone knives, manufactured some 500,000 years ago from volcanic rock and hard limestone, were found by Dr. De Terra in swamp deposits, laid down when the North American Continent was under the glaciers of the ice epoch.

"Although the old stone age cultures had been known to exist in southern India," the expedition report said, "these new finds are the first to establish evidence for the existence of early stone age man on the borders of and in the Himalayan mountains."

Good Original Yarn Worth $5

(By The Canadian Press)

PORT OF SPAIN, April 2—Walter J. Osterhout, an American visitor, thinks a good original yarn is worth $5 any day in the week. He is doing a little business in the town, but he objects to paying for too many sequels.

So when Arnot Yates came back for more after getting a fiver for his tale of buried treasure, the visitor had him arrested. Now Yates is doing a six-month prison term for obtaining money under false pretences.

The original story was about a hidden store of United States $20 gold-pieces, Yates selling Osterhout a six-month prison term for inspection if the American would supply $5 for taxi-fare.

"I gave him the money because the story was worth $5," Osterhout told the court at Yates' trial, "but he left with the money I never expected to see him or the 'loan' again."

Osterhout later received a telephone call from Yates and made an appointment to meet him. He told policeman of the incident and Yates was arrested after the meeting.
