QUAINT FRENCH VILLAGE.

Quiet and Peaceful Place Half an Hour's Journey From Paris.

It seems hardly credible that not more than thirty minutes from all the noise and bustle of Paris there lies a village that is so quiet, so peaceful and so old fashioned that one would imagine oneself at least a hundred miles away from the gay capital.

At one time single coverlets were provided, but the authorities found that the inmates concealed them and sold them when they got outside.

Animals That Are Bad Sailors. A French scientist has made interesting observations as to the love of different wild animals for the sea.

Name Famine In Denmark. The Copenhagen correspondent of the Berliner Tageblatt sent his paper an interesting article on the "name famine" in Denmark.

Obituary of Napoleon. When the great Napoleon died there were doubtless among the readers of the London Globe many persons who would have liked to read a full account of his life.

Lamb's Taste In Books. In this catalogue of books which are no books—biblia-abiblia—I reckon court calendars, directories, pocketbooks.

Useful Spiders. A French savant points out that spiders' webs improve the acoustic properties of a room.

FOR A BAD COLD. If you have a bad cold you need a good reliable medicine like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

FALLS STRIKE BROKEN. NIAGARA FALLS, November 4.—The trouble with the strikers appear to be over.

A TIMELY SUGGESTION. This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

WAKEFUL CHILDREN. For a long time the two year old child of Mr. P. L. McPherson, 59 N. Tenth St., Harrisburg, Pa., would sleep but two or three hours in the early part of the night.

BETTER THAN A PLASTER. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound to the affected parts is superior to any plaster.

THE JUDGE WAS RIGHT. Judge—You say you got that black eye as the result of a blow by the defendant?

A FRIENDLY SUGGESTION. "It is hard luck," said one of Job's comforters.

JOHNNY'S KNOWLEDGE. Teacher—Why, Johnny, I thought you knew your alphabet?

VERY NECESSARY. Funniman—He's undergoing a species of voice training. I believe, to fit him for his political work.

The House of the Hens' Feathers.

There is, or used to be, in Peking a wonderful institution known as the Ki Mao Gan, or the House of the Hens' Feathers.

At one time single coverlets were provided, but the authorities found that the inmates concealed them and sold them when they got outside.
