

IMPORTANT READING MATTER SELECTED FROM THIS WEEK'S NEWS FOR THE GUARDIAN'S SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

A farewell gathering in honor of Rev. A. F. Robb, of this city, and his wife will be held this evening at New Glasgow in Carmel church of which Mrs. Robb's father is the retired pastor.

The death occurred in this city Saturday at the residence of her brother Sergeant Doyle, 63 Spring Park Road, of Mrs. Patrick Walsh in the 78th year of her age.

Daniel McDonald, employed at M. McLeod's tailoring establishment in this city, was Friday morning in receipt of a telegram from Charlottetown announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. Malcolm McDonald, of that place.

It is learned with deep regret that the news was received here of the sudden death at Boston, Mass., of Harry Newcombe, better known to townpeople as "Newk Sawyer."

You Should Tremble And Shudder

When an unscrupulous druggist offers you a substitute for DR. FOWLER'S Extract of Wild Strawberry.

If you are suddenly attacked by DIARRHOEA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, CRAMPS OR PAINS IN THE STOMACH, CHOLERA MORBUS, SCUMMER COMPLAINT, or any LOOSENESS OF THE BOWELS, do not experiment with some new and untried remedy, but get one that has stood the test of time.

For 65 years this wonderful medicine has been used in thousands of homes in Canada, and has given universal satisfaction. When you want a bottle of "Dr. Fowler's," insist on being given what you ask for, as these no-name, no-reputation preparations may be dangerous to your health.

Mr. J. Castle, Totouka, Man., writes: "Just a word in favor of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, which I used last summer for Cramps in the Stomach and Diarrhoea. I was very sick for a week and not able to do anything until I purchased a bottle of the above remedy, and after three or four doses I was well as ever."

The price is 25 cents per bottle. See that the name, The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont., appears on the label, as we are the manufacturers and sole proprietors of this remedy.

Advertisement for Kellogg's Corn Flakes. Includes text: "A real delight for breakfast", "Fill a canteloupe with Kellogg's TOASTED CORN FLAKES", "10c per pkg.", and an image of a bowl of cereal.

was one of the most popular singers who ever visited the Maritime Provinces, and was a native of N. Yarmouth, Maine. He filled a five weeks' engagement here at the People's Theatre last winter, a most successful engagement, as will be remembered.

Citizens will be shocked to hear of the sudden death of Isaac Crosby of Marshfield which occurred Saturday evening. As far as could be learned yesterday Mr. Crosby was loading hay when he accidentally fell to the ground, receiving such severe internal injuries that he died twelve hours afterwards.

"There passed away at the residence of her cousin, Angus A. Campbell, Black Pond, Lot 46, on the evening of the 26th July, Masley Campbell. She was born at Bayfield, Lot 46, some eighty-four years ago, the eldest of nineteen children of the late John Archibald Campbell and his wife, Mrs. McGilivray, in Oakland, California. Capt. James Campbell in Texas, and Capt. Charles Campbell, in Honolulu. The predeceased's fifteen brothers and sisters sleep their last sleep wide and far apart.

Rev. D. Mackenzie of Wood Islands leaves the city this morning with the remains of his son, George William, whose death is given elsewhere. The interment will take place this week. Deceased had been largely an invalid all his life.

Following are further particulars of the lamented death of Isaac Crosby, Marshfield, briefly referred to in yesterday's Guardian. In company with his son and a servant man Mr. Crosby was engaged in hauling hay at his farm between four and five o'clock. Mr. Crosby was standing on top of the load but did not have the reins in his hands at the time.

Safe into the arms of Jesus; Safe on His gentle breast; There by His love o'er shaded; Sweetly her soul shall rest.

The following from a Dundee exchange will be of interest in this Province as the late Rev. John McLean referred to was a cousin of A. M. McRae of Pownal and visited with him during his stay in Canada. A wide circle of friends will regret to learn of the death on Saturday night of the Rev. John A. McLean, at his residence, Pitilie, Aberfeldy, after a short illness.

A real delight for breakfast. Fill a canteloupe with Kellogg's TOASTED CORN FLAKES. 10c per pkg. Made in Canada.

Pains Have Vanished

Neuralgia Completely Cured. The cure of Mrs. L. Barrett, Galtier, P. Q., another victory by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine has succeeded in many cases where others have utterly failed.

Charles Riley of this city has received a letter from P. Swan, Assistant General Manager of the Alaska Barge Company, Seattle, giving details of the death of Mr. Riley's son Edward last June as previously reported. Details of the accident had been delayed pending the arrival of Mrs. Bonanza on which Mr. Riley had been employed.

A deep gloom was cast over the community at Fortune when death visited the home of Thompson McDonald and claimed as its own the beloved wife and mother, Mrs. Margaret McDonald (nee Miss Nicholson). Deceased had suffered for some time with an affliction of the throat and though all medical aid possible was given nothing could be done to evade death's cruel hand.

The funeral of the late Isaac Crosby of Marshfield which took place yesterday afternoon to the family cemetery at West River was very largely attended by a wide circle of sorrowing friends and relatives. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. Wm. Harrison of Charlottetown. The pall-bearers were Robert McFarlane, John Mellett, Daniel McNeil, Hoyle, James Drake and Wm. Godfrey.

A happy family party have been the guests of Aquilla and Mrs. Rollings, North Rustico, for the past few weeks. The days passed all too quickly for the visitors after an absence of thirty-one years and although prosperity has been met with in general the old happy days of childhood were recalled and dwelt upon by all.

The funeral of the late Isaac Crosby of Marshfield which took place yesterday afternoon to the family cemetery at West River was very largely attended by a wide circle of sorrowing friends and relatives. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. Wm. Harrison of Charlottetown.

Safe into the arms of Jesus; Safe on His gentle breast; There by His love o'er shaded; Sweetly her soul shall rest.

congregation on the completion of 50 years of faithful ministerial services, and was similarly honored with a congratulatory address from the Presbytery of Weem.

During the storm of yesterday morning a large and valuable barn belonging to Aeneas McDonald and situated near the railway line between Mt. Stewart and Douglas, was struck by lightning and was totally destroyed by fire with all its contents. These included his farm machinery, a horse, his harness, a supply of grain and feed, etc.

The death occurred in New York City on Wednesday, July 26th of Miss Annie McDonald, daughter of Neil McDonald, Glenora, Ontario. She had resided in New York City for the past twelve years during which time she had not visited her old home. Some years ago she became subject to lung trouble which later developed into tuberculosis.

WEDNESDAY. The many friends of W. E. and Mrs. Leary, formerly of Bridgetown, P. E. I., now of Govan, Sask., will be pleased to learn that their son Harold, who recently underwent a very serious operation in Saskatoon, is now much improved and is at present visiting his aunt in that town before returning home.

J. Leo Macdonald, Cambridge, Mass., is visiting his old home in Souris. Mr. Macdonald has had many ups and downs since the time when he as a boy used to sell papers on Spruce streets for David Sutherland. He served with distinction in the Spanish-American war and now owns a large and prosperous painting and decorating establishment in Cambridge, Mass.

The funeral of the late Isaac Crosby of Marshfield which took place yesterday afternoon to the family cemetery at West River was very largely attended by a wide circle of sorrowing friends and relatives. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. Wm. Harrison of Charlottetown.

A happy family party have been the guests of Aquilla and Mrs. Rollings, North Rustico, for the past few weeks. The days passed all too quickly for the visitors after an absence of thirty-one years and although prosperity has been met with in general the old happy days of childhood were recalled and dwelt upon by all.

The funeral of the late Isaac Crosby of Marshfield which took place yesterday afternoon to the family cemetery at West River was very largely attended by a wide circle of sorrowing friends and relatives. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. Wm. Harrison of Charlottetown.

Safe into the arms of Jesus; Safe on His gentle breast; There by His love o'er shaded; Sweetly her soul shall rest.

before Presbytery. It was signed by 305 communicants and 170 adherents, offered a stipend of one thousand dollars with manse and glebe and four weeks vacation. The call was sustained, and Rev. E. J. Rattee was appointed to represent this Presbytery at the Presbytery of Pictou.

During the storm of yesterday morning a large and valuable barn belonging to Aeneas McDonald and situated near the railway line between Mt. Stewart and Douglas, was struck by lightning and was totally destroyed by fire with all its contents. These included his farm machinery, a horse, his harness, a supply of grain and feed, etc.

The death occurred in New York City on Wednesday, July 26th of Miss Annie McDonald, daughter of Neil McDonald, Glenora, Ontario. She had resided in New York City for the past twelve years during which time she had not visited her old home.

J. Leo Macdonald, Cambridge, Mass., is visiting his old home in Souris. Mr. Macdonald has had many ups and downs since the time when he as a boy used to sell papers on Spruce streets for David Sutherland.

The funeral of the late Isaac Crosby of Marshfield which took place yesterday afternoon to the family cemetery at West River was very largely attended by a wide circle of sorrowing friends and relatives. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. Wm. Harrison of Charlottetown.

A happy family party have been the guests of Aquilla and Mrs. Rollings, North Rustico, for the past few weeks. The days passed all too quickly for the visitors after an absence of thirty-one years and although prosperity has been met with in general the old happy days of childhood were recalled and dwelt upon by all.

The funeral of the late Isaac Crosby of Marshfield which took place yesterday afternoon to the family cemetery at West River was very largely attended by a wide circle of sorrowing friends and relatives. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. Wm. Harrison of Charlottetown.

Safe into the arms of Jesus; Safe on His gentle breast; There by His love o'er shaded; Sweetly her soul shall rest.

Safe into the arms of Jesus; Safe on His gentle breast; There by His love o'er shaded; Sweetly her soul shall rest.

with exemplary Christian patience, Edith Phoebe McSween, daughter of Angus McSween of this town, passed to her rest on Sunday afternoon, Deceased who had resided in Boston for several years was taken ill last February and, later, came home hoping that the change of climate and the care of loving ones at home might prove beneficial, but the end came. There are left to mourn her father, two sisters Mrs. D. Gordon and Miss Martha, Summerside; Luther in Milwaukee, Wis., and Dr. Fred, who left for Boston only about a week ago. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon, Rev. H. J. Fraser officiating. The pall-bearers were: George Godkin, P. N. Enman, B. M. Hicks, and D. K. Currie.—Exec.

The funeral of the late Miss Mary A. McKenna, Kelly's Cross, took place yesterday, the remains having arrived the previous night from Lowell, Mass. Miss McKenna, who was sixty-five years of age, came to her end in a very sad manner on Friday night last, in Lowell where she resided with her sister. She was sitting in a chair in her room when a kerosene lamp exploded. Her clothing caught fire and she ran downstairs enveloped in flames. She was so badly burned that her death ensued a short time afterwards at the hospital to which she had been hurriedly conveyed. The body was accompanied home by her sister. The pall-bearers were: Jos. McGuigan, Patrick Pagan, Patrick Kelly, Thos. Kelly, Thos. Malone and Peter McQuaid. Deceased was a daughter of the late Wm. McKenna and besides her sister, she was left to mourn three brothers, one in Washington Territory, Charles at Kelly's Cross and Hugh also at home on the homestead.

Among the passengers leaving this city for the Canadian North West yesterday by the harvest excursion were: Percy Worth, Garnet Doyle, Harry Cantwell, W. Hustis, L. Vaughan, Joe Higgins, Harry Vaughan, Percy Rodd, Lawrence Clarke, John McKenzie, Ida Waughan, Goff McKeenon, Richard Burhoe, Chas. Warry, Herb. Neill, Frank Matheson, John A. McWilliams, R. Ross, Alex. McWilliams, Harry McKavish, Felix McKenna, Eben McEachern, Alva Hubley, Frank A. Stewart, Angus Murdoch, Angus McDonald, Clarence Maloy, John Gillis, Fred Martin, William Buchanan, Finlay Matheson and Edward Gray and John Garrick, city, Andrew McDonald, Vernon River; Boswell Carver, Hazelbrook; Charles Young, Aomah; R. Webster, Marie; C. Gillis, Goff, Irving, Kenneth R. McNeill, Angus McDougal, Frank Burdett, Rhenhen McKinnon, John Cahill, Henry Feehan, Frank King, Fairview; Wesley McDougall, M. Gardiner, Miss Janette McLean, Miss Annie McFadyen, George McLean, Canon Cove; Angus McDonald, John Campbell, Hector Campbell, Sidney Campbell, Nine Mile Creek. There was about four hundred harvesters leaving the Province, about 157 from Charlottetown and 26 from Montserrat.

The marriage took place in Boston last week of Miss Winifred, daughter of Robert Jenkins, Marion, to John H. Sealey, now engaged in the Panama Canal Construction, but a native of Lot 48. Mr. and Mrs. Sealey have arrived in the Province and will spend a few weeks visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. Sealey was one of the most popular young ladies of Queen's County and her many friends will extend to her and Mr. Sealey best wishes for a long and happy married life. Mr. Sealey is a veteran of the Spanish American war and saw active service in Cuba. He is now employed in the U. S. Civil Service.

THURSDAY. The marriage took place in Boston last week of Miss Winifred, daughter of Robert Jenkins, Marion, to John H. Sealey, now engaged in the Panama Canal Construction, but a native of Lot 48. Mr. and Mrs. Sealey have arrived in the Province and will spend a few weeks visiting relatives and friends.

Safe into the arms of Jesus; Safe on His gentle breast; There by His love o'er shaded; Sweetly her soul shall rest.

Safe into the arms of Jesus; Safe on His gentle breast; There by His love o'er shaded; Sweetly her soul shall rest.

Safe into the arms of Jesus; Safe on His gentle breast; There by His love o'er shaded; Sweetly her soul shall rest.

Large advertisement for Wrigley's Spearmint Pepsin Gum. Includes text: "Have you tried the new chewing gum with the mint flavor?", "Yes it's the most fascinating and refreshing flavor I ever tasted. It has whitened my teeth, perfumed my breath, and helped my digestion!", "Look for the spear", "The flavor lasts". Includes images of a man and a woman.