Mack Sells Three Stars To The Sox

Simmons, Haas And Jimmy Dykes Disposed Of In Sensational Deal.

(Canadian Press)
NEW YORK, Sept. 28—(Co.)—The manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, tonight announced the sale of outfielders Al Simmons and Haas and infielder Jimmy Dykes to the Chicago White Sox for an unannounced amount of cash. Mack declined to comment on the deal, one of the most sensational in recent years, but said he might make some further announcement after the World Series.

E. I. S. SOCIAL

Benevolent Irish Society social evening was very successful. At 8:30 Brother Cornelius Corrihan opened up the game of auction, in which thirty five tables were played. The results were as follows: Ladies, Mrs. George Power, second; Miss Helen McManus; Gentlemen's table, equally merited by Mr. William Condon and Mr. Arthur Gordon drawn by the former; lucky number sixteen and drawn by Mrs. William McTague. At ten thirty floor director Brother Oatway opened the dance period with two sets of thirty couples each. It was necessary to divide the crowd in this manner to assure everybody being able to enjoy themselves. The usual society orchestra was used to its high standard, and by special request played the popular old time dancing tune, "When they cut down the old pine tree."

per pound on fresh and frozen salmon tentatively granted to Newfoundland which would automatically apply to Canada, was his main reason for renewed confidence in eventually building up a great export trade to the British Isles. Apart from the outlook across the ocean there was an even brighter local market to be further developed.

Increase the per capita consumption of fish in the Dominion to 10 pounds yearly, and it will provide a market for 70,000,000 pounds additional each year. Assuming that a large amount consumed will be fillets, the total will be considerably larger." He explains that it takes about three pounds of fresh fish to produce one pound of fillets.

A Big Job

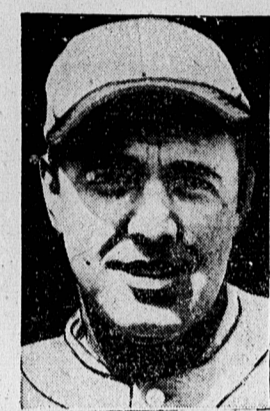

In a statement issued over his name and those of Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas, Dominion's Secretary and Lord Sankey, Lord High Chancellor—National Laborites—Prime Minister MacDonald declared:—"We put our hands to a very big job 12 months ago. The same determination to disregard all ordinary partisan methods which we showed then we show still. The work is not finished and it cannot be finished until one way or another there is a reparations and debts settlement, and there is a world economic conference and we must go on till these things are done."

"We make the same appeal to the electors," the Prime Minister added, "as we did 12 months ago—that the nation needs a non party government, and that purely party considerations would weaken our national influence in the world and would be a blow at the movements now at work towards the world recovery."

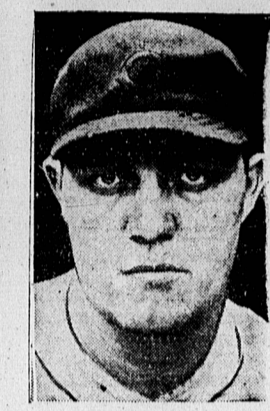

No appointment was immediately made for the post of Lord Privy Seal vacated by Lord Snowden. Sir John Gilmour, the Conservative Minister of Agriculture was appointed Home Secretary in place of Sir Herbert Samuel. Sir Godfrey Collins, some years ago the chief Liberal whip was brought into the Cabinet as Secretary for Scotland. Major Weller Elliott, Conservative, who has been Financial Secretary,

LOOKING 'EM OVER

"BY TEC"

SECOND GAME OF THE WORLD'S SERIES THIS AFTERNOON.

A NEW WRESTLING HOLD
In the wrestling bout at Toronto between Harold Cantonwine and Earl McCready, the former won the first fall with a hangman's noose. McCready ducked his head between the two top ropes. Cantonwine pulled the cords together, then stood a few feet away and shook them. Referee Forbes eventually got McCready loose, and when the big Canadian fell to the floor, Cantonwine pounced on him for a fall. The next night, at Ottawa, Cantonwine met Charlie Hansen, and in wrestling for the deciding fall, Cantonwine immediately set about the task of tangling Hansen in the ropes, but in the process he fell overboard and was counted out in the ringside. Referee Bourguignon untangled Hansen from the ropes and after counting ten, with Cantonwine still out of the ring, raised his hand as the winner.

Liberal Leader On The Stump In By-Election

EXETER, Ont., Sept. 28—(By The Canadian Press)—Declaring the development of Canadian industry and commerce had been "thwarted" and to a large measure paralyzed by the "excessively high tariffs enacted by the present administration," Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal party, today pledged his party to continue to seek the promotion of trade by the lowering of tariff barriers.

EARLY PREPARATION

The Moncton Transcript, speaking of the Moncton Hawks hockey team, says: "This group of hockey players is giving promise of again being a formidable threat for Canadian supremacy next Spring. The players are already taking things seriously and working out regularly to rid themselves of any excess weight they may have acquired during the summer. Road work and gym calisthenics is the programme to date, but when the ice plant is put in operation in the Stadium early in November, the players should be in fair trim. Percy Nicklin will again be manager this coming season. Foster, Gill and Burrage will be on the fence and possibly others. Connelly, Muckle, and Duke MacDonald are still on hand for one line; Norm Cook, Ken Carroll and Dud James are the personnel of another and McManus, Webster and Nucker Irvine for another attacking line."

SOLD OUT AT CHICAGO

All box seats and reserved seats at Chicago for the three world series games between New York Yankees and the Chicago Cubs have been sold. There are 19,000 reserved seats and 1,700 box seats. The only remaining tickets are for 12,500 bleacher and 2,500 general admission, both of which are placed on sale the morning of the game.

Boutillier, he was transferred from a private hospital room to the public ward, where he refused to remain and "be a spectacle to look at like a monkey in a cage." A physician who examined the wound last night said further treatment would be necessary if Boutillier were to recover the use of his arm to a fair degree. Dr. J. L. Churchill doubted if Boutillier ever would fully regain the use of his right arm.

At the time of the shooting Boutillier was a "special officer" of the R. C. M. P. When ambushed police revealed their presence in the bank. Gerald Freckleton started shooting and the police retaliated. Freckleton fell, fatally wounded, and Boutillier was shot through the shoulder and chest by a police bullet.

BOTH CANUCKS WIN IN U.S. GOLF CH'SHIP

Salem Course Scene Of Hard Fought Struggles.

PEABODY, Mass., Sept. 28—(C. P.)—The younger generation on women's golf put on a wild surge today in the opening round of the United States' championship play over the Salem course, and three of the country's outstanding veterans learned that even their skill could not quench the fires of youthful ambition.

As age faded before youth, for golfing greybeards had hardly recovered from their shocks of the extra-hole victory that young Peggy Waters, of Buffalo scored over Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd, who gained the first of her three national titles in 1909 the year she won the first of her two British championships, when long-hitting Charlotte Glutting of Short Hills, N. J., defeated Mary K. Browne of golfing and tennis fame, by one up on the last green.

To complete the rout of the veterans, Bernice Wall, of Oshkosh, Wis., avenged himself for previous defeats by forcing Mrs. Opal S. Hill of Kansas City, holder of the Western United States title, out of the tourney by beating her at the 20th hole to gain the match by one point.

Mrs. Vare Advances

Three of the other 15 matches went into overtime play and two others were decided on the last green. The outstanding favorites, however, were not forced to such extremes. Mrs. Glenn Collet Vare, of Philadelphia, five times champion in the last 10 years, had an easy day playing the par golf that defeated Mrs. Karl F. Scheidt, of Norristown, Pa., seven and five.

The Canadian entries, both seasoned golfers, had to battle for every hole. Ada MacKenzie, former Canadian champion, and long a great competitor in the title events on this side of the border, had to go the home green before eliminating Jane Brooks, of Sparkhill, N. Y., by the tight margin of one up. Miss MacKenzie had an 88 and the New Yorker was a stroke higher, or 12 over par.

Mrs. C. S. Edd's, also of Toronto and runner-up in last week's Canadian championship at Montreal gained a 2 and 1 verdict over Dorothy Hunter of Newton.

W. Boulter.

In every class the exhibits were of a much better quality than former years with the exception of the swine exhibit which showed great lack of interest in this branch of livestock. The pumpkins, fifteen entries, two in each lot were outstanding in the vegetable class. The butter on exhibition was the finest Mr. Brenton had ever had the privilege to judge. Mrs.

WATCHING THE BASEBALL BOARD

Baseball fans, young and old, male and female, came from far and near to witness the New York Yankees and Chicago Cubs battle it out in the first game of the World Series, which took place in New York Yankee Stadium yesterday, but played in the Guardian-Herald baseball board in such a manner that each and every one of the many hundreds of fans were able to follow the game with the same precision as if they were at the scene of hostilities itself.

Everything clicked in apple-pie order, and judging by the numerous complimentary remarks overheard by the writer, the Guardian-Herald electrically operated Baseball Board is sure to become a fast friend of all baseball lovers and a pleasant memory when the World Series is over.

Yesterday's crowd of ball followers was the largest that has ever witnessed a relay of a World Series game in this city. Tier upon tier lined every available vantage point in the vicinity of Zion Church and the Guardian corners, where waves of applause could be heard for blocks as the fans rooted and pulled for their respective teams. This was especially so when Ruth singled for the Yanks, bringing Combs home, to later cross the plate on Lou Gehrig's home run smash to right field.

Through the co-operation of Chief of Police Birtwhistle and members of the City Force, the traffic on Prince Street went along unhampered, being handled with dispatch and precision, nothing happening to mar the occasion.

There is, however, one criticism which might be offered, and that is, that the boys who gather to watch the board be more considerate of the lawns on which they congregate and protect said lawns as well as the property. Unless this co-operation is met with, other means will be resorted to handle the situation.
