RUPERT HUGHES

WHICH WAS THE REAL WOMAN

Was the laughing, dancing butterfly of wealth the real she? Or was it the worker of brawn and muscle, who cast aside money and ease for the lot of the common worker.

There was one man who saw her as both, but never knew—she never knew herself—which was the life she was really meant to live. You won't know until you see this great Rupert Hughes picture, because the story unfolds naturally and mysteriously just as life itself.

No story has ever been so vividly told in pictures as this great Rupert Hughes novel, a love story of Industrial America. It moves swiftly and surely in a succession of dramatic and situations that has never been surpassed in photoplay making. Everyone must see this picture. Every moving picture lover will go wild over it.

THIS IS THE PICTURE FOR YOU.

In the window are life size figures of a Highland laddie and his lassie clad in Scottish attire, while all around may be seen plaid tartans of every description.

Do not allow worms to sap the vitality of your children. If not attended to, worms may work irreparable harm to the constitution of the infant. The little sufferers cannot voice their ailment, but there are many aware that a mother's eye made aware that a dose of Miller's Worm Powder is necessary. These powders act quickly and will expel worms from the system without any inconvenience to the child.

LAI D TO REST.—The remains of the late Mr. Ernest Rice were laid to rest yesterday afternoon with impressive ceremony. The funeral was very largely attended. The members of the Masonic order, the Odd Fellows and the Sons of England, in regalia and Rotarians were well represented in the large concourse. The service at St. Paul's Church was conducted by Rev. Alban Bate and Rev. Mr. Yeoman, while a large choir rendered the musical portion of the impressive service. The pall-bearers were Messrs. James A. McMillan, F. R. Newsome, Elmer R. Bouyer, Samuel Doyle, W. A. Gaudet and Dr. J. J. Yeo. The floral tributes were very numerous and beautiful. Interment was at the Peoples Cemetery.

FORMER ISLAND BOYS.—The following letter is from Pennant, Sask. The following Island boys left Boston, Mass., August 6th and after hard bumps and thrilling experiences finally landed in Pennant, Sask. Fred and Philip Bradley, St. Teresa's, William Collins, Montague, J. J. Ryan, Cardigan, Amos Callaghan, Lake Verde, Michael J. Gallant, Rusticville, Frank Peters, St. Margaret's. They arrived on August 13th. All registered at Empress Hotel, not feeling any too good after a long and tiresome trip through the wilds of Western Canada in search of gold on a scheme equal to Ponzis' to make a stake. Just a word fellow Islanders. If you ever plan on taking a trip to this part of Canada consider awhile and take it from us it's no joke.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized Monday morning at St. Dunstan's Cathedral when Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Halloran of this city, became the wife of Joseph LeChair, the popular young clerk of Rankins druggists. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Maurice McDonald in the presence of a large number of the immediate friends of the bride and groom. The bride who looked very charming in a travelling suit of navy blue with hat to match, was attended by her sister, Laura, also very becomingly attired for the occasion, while the groom was supported by Frank J. Trainor of this city. The popularity of the young couple was well assured by the bounteous number of presents including silver, cut glass, china, etc. which was showered on them. The wedding party left on the early train for Borden, en route for Boston and other American cities, where they will spend their honeymoon. Their many friends heartily join in wishing them a pleasant journey and also a long and prosperous married life.
