SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON. Phil. 1: 1, 11; 4: 1-9. Lesson XIII, June 25. The Golden Text—'Finally, brethren... whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise think on these things.'

IN MEMORIAM

MR. RODERICK MATHESON. There passed peacefully away on the 13th day of June, Roderick Matheson aged 67 years. Mr. Matheson was on his way to attend a funeral at Hartsville and called in to Mr. John McKenzie's home in Springtown, where he and his wife ate a hearty dinner. Shortly after dinner, Mr. Matheson was seized with a fit of apoplexy and never recovered being unconscious till the end came. Dr. McGulgan of Emerald, was hastily summoned, but all medical aid failed and death called him home. Mr. Matheson was an honest, upright man and a professing Christian for the last nine years. He was a kind and affectionate father, always having a good word for his family and friends and was beloved by all who knew him. The community at large expressed their deep regret to the bereaved family. Mr. Matheson leaves to mourn their loss three brothers, Mr. D. M. Matheson, Presbyterian minister of Ontario, Murdoch in Rose Valley, and three sisters, Mrs. Duncan McDonald, Shamrock; Mrs. Malcolm McLennan, Granville; and Mrs. Colin McBeth, Dundas; besides a loving wife, Christie Matheson; one son, John, and one daughter, Mrs. William Anderson, all of good standing and of a kind and affectionate husband and dear and loving father. The daily life of toil and care and intercourse in friendship sweet; The sense that none lived to himself But each helped other's life complete This single life of truth he learned To practice in these silent years And courage to declare God's will Without respect to man, or fears.

Gay's Plants

We have the reputation of being the Pioneer Plant Growers of P. E. Island. More than half a century in business. IMPORTANT VISITOR.—On Saturday last His Lordship, Bishop O'Leary, accompanied by his secretary the Reverend Dr. Hughes, journeyed to Tignish to make the canonical visitation of the parish. His Lordship was met at the station by Monsignor D. M. McDonald and a very large number of the parishioners all anxious to greet their beloved bishop, not only with the respect and veneration due their chief pastor, but with the love and affection which His Lordship's gracious personality, sympathetic manner, and saintly character have imbued the hearts of his spiritual children. On Sunday morning His Lordship said mass in the chapel of Notre Dame Convent and brought joy to the hearts of fifteen little children by giving them their First Holy Communion, thus enhancing for them the joy of a day which is always a memorable one in the life of a pious Catholic child. The ceremony of confirmation began in the church at nine o'clock. Two hundred and ten boys and girls received the Sacrament of Confirmation after which His Lordship addressed the children in touching words exhorting them to be faithful to the graces received this day and giving them much practical advice. He congratulated the parish on the excellence of all things therein relating to Divine Worship and in a particular manner congratulated their venerable pastor, Monsignor McDonald, for the magnificent work he had done in this parish during the fifty-one years that he has labored in this portion of the Master's vineyard. After mass the usual procession took place to the cemetery, and prayers were offered up for the repose of the souls of the parish dead. At 2 p. m. the pupils of the convent gave a reception to the Bishop. Addresses were read in French and English, to which His Lordship replied in fitting terms. At 4 p. m. His Lordship, accompanied by Mgr. McDonald and Rev. Dr. Hughes drove to Palmer Road where he administered the Sacrament of Confirmation. Monday from there he will visit the other parishes in the west end of the Island.—Y.

PRICE WEBBER AGAIN ON DECK.—The Boston Comedy Co., with the veteran H.
