

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

G. H. McGUIRAN, merchant and hotel proprietor, of Hunter River, was in the city yesterday.

There will be preaching next Sunday at Ulitz at 11 a.m., and at Eldon at 7 p.m., conducted by Henry McKenzie.

Miss Brennan, Pictou, came over in the Stanley on Wednesday to take a full course in the Charlottetown Business College.

The members of St. Paul's Church Hockey Club will meet for practice Saturday night at 9 o'clock. The members are requested to bring their fees to this practice.

At a recent meeting of the St. Vincent and Paul Society of Rustico, it was decided to hold a concert and basket social in Rustico Hall on the 23rd inst. in aid of the poor of the parish.

The Misses Josie Doucet, Maude Blanchard, Angelina Doiron, who have been spending their holidays at their respective homes in Rustico, have resumed their studies at Prince Wales College.

There will be skating for children this afternoon at the Hill-boro Rink from 2 to 5.30. Only 5 cents, remember a magnificent sheet of ice. On Wednesday afternoon there were a hundred and sixty up come and have a good time.

SOMETIME ago Joseph J. Doucette, choir master of St. Augustine Church, Rustico, had the misfortune of breaking both bones in one of his legs just above the ankle. His many friends will be pleased to learn that he is rapidly improving.

DISCIPLES of "The Complete Angler" will feel a responsive thrill on gazing at the splendid picture of a captive bass which adorns the calendar issued by the Chesbro Brothers, Wholesale Commission Fish Dealers, New York. There is so much dash and color and fine drawing in the picture that it is fairly entitled to rank as a finished piece of high art.

THE semi-annual examinations of St. Augustine School, Rustico, was held on the 20th ult. A large number of parents together with some other visitors were present. The pupils were examined in the different subjects by Rev. Father Chalmers, D. D., and their teacher Miss Mary Monaghan. At the close of the examination a short program consisting of dialogues and recitations was well rendered.

ALEXANDRA DIVISION held its regular meeting on Jan 4th. The following officers were installed for the ensuing quarter: W. P. Mc D. T. Pickering; W. A. Everett; Wedlock; R. S. Lottle Brown; A. R. S. Annie Nicholson; F. S. Falton Brown; Treas. H. T. Pickering; Chaplain, Ethel B. Wedlock; Con. Raby McLeod; A. C. Margaret Quinn; I. S. Geo. Brown; O. S. Emma Stewart; P. W. P. Emmett Murphy; D. G. W. P. Laura Wedlock.

A CALENDAR which for delicacy of design and workmanship equals the finest art work possible by mechanical processes, is that of the well known manufacturer of temperance drinks, Francis Drake, New Glasgow, N.S., a copy of which has been handed to the Guardian by the Charlottetown representative, A. P. Thorne. The picture which adorns the card is entitled "Apple blossoms," and is of high artistic merit and worthy of the highest praise. Rarely does such a pretty calendar come to hand.

THE Hewson Woolen Mills, Limited, Amherst, N.S. have issued their New Year's greetings in a neat folder, which they have sent to their many customers and friends, wishing them for 1907, a Happy and Prosperous Year. The folder is nicely gotten up on heavy green paper and in addition to a most complete view of their Mills gives short and crisp condensed information as to the superiority of the goods manufactured in their widely known Mills. It is interesting to know that this month the firm commences the new Knitting Mills for the manufacture of Hewson Unshrinkable Nova-Scotia Wool Underwear. This new high class Mill will have complete control of the Knit Goods division, samples of which are now before the public.

NEW WILMINGTON District Loyal Orange Lodge held their annual meeting in "Tanton" lodge room, Brookfield, on January 8th, and notwithstanding the unfavorable condition of the roads a large and representative meeting was held. After the usual annual business was transacted the election of officers for the current year resulted as follows:—W. District Master, John Diamond; W. D. D. Master, Geo. W. Snelgrove; Chap. James Hooper; Rec. Secy. A. Beaton; Fin. Secy. James McPhail; Treas. W. G. Derke; D. of C. Dan'l McDonald; Sect. David Brooks; Past D. M. Fredk. Dollar. The installation was performed by P. G. Master Bro. Mordock McLeod, Bro. James Coles P. G. C. acting as D. of C.

J. HERB SPRAGUE left last night on returned to Springhill, N. S.

Rev. J. O. McLEAN, of Summerside was a passenger to Georgetown by the express last night.

W. K. ROBERTS, and Miss Rogers left last night on a trip to Montreal and Boston.

Charles Gallant of the Sydney Hotel, Sydney has returned after spending his Christmas holidays at his home in Summerside.

MISS LINDA SMITH, Pownal, leaves this morning for New Bedford, Mass., where she will spend the winter visiting her brother Hensley Smith.

MISS HAZEL TAYLOR, daughter of Captain T. G. Taylor, of this city, leaves tonight for Edgell School, Windsor, N. S. Her mother will accompany her to Windsor.

THE funeral of the late James Harper will take place this afternoon, leaving his residence, Douglas Street, at 2.30 p. m. by road to Sherwood Cemetery.

A SUBSCRIPTION has been started in this city to endeavor to raise enough funds to send John Gorman to the Arkansas Springs. This man is at present in a helpless condition unable to move about.

COURT DALYVA, I. O. F., Hunter River, has addressed a resolution of sympathy, to Mrs. John McEabern testifying the sorrow of the members for the loss of their deceased brother John McEabern.

JACK FROST is visiting the city and will remain for a few days. His appearance in some houses, where he met with a cool reception caused the water pipes to freeze. The only place where he received a cordial welcome was at the Arena rink.

FOR the present mails and passengers from this Province for the mainland will cross to Pictou by way of Georgetown. Mails will close in this City at 8.30 each evening and the special express train will leave Charlottetown at 9 o'clock for Georgetown till further notice.

At the close of the Sunday school services on the 6th inst, the pupils of the Junior Bible class, Pownal, presented their teacher, Miss Minnie Noy, with a handsomely bound and indexed teacher's bible and an address. Miss Noy was quite taken by surprise but feelingly thanked the class for their valuable and highly appreciated gift.

In the game of basket ball last evening between G. B. C. and Prowse Bros., the former won by a score of 27-11. The Prowse Bros. team did some good work at passing, but had poor success in throwing goals. Howitt of the G. B. C. did some excellent shooting, scoring six goals. The game could not be called a good exhibition of basket ball, as the most of the players played their men many times instead of the ball. The game between the P. W. G. and the Vics was not played owing to one of the Vic players being injured at hotel practice. The game will be played next Tuesday, when admission will be free.

THE fourth meeting of the Week of Prayer in this City was held last night in the Baptist Church. It was the Bible Society's evening, and the President of the Society, A. W. Sterns occupied the Chair. J. D. Seaman, Secretary, and H. J. Cundall, Treasurer, each gave in their reports which were adopted. After the business of the Society had been transacted Rev. G. E. Ross, of Zion Church spoke of the duty of helping so worthy a society which has, during the past year, distributed some six millions of bibles throughout the world, and is now printing bibles in 400 different languages. From his own experience he knew that the Bible had many times penetrated into countries where missionaries were prohibited. Rev. Mr. Dobson followed and spoke of the Bible's power to reveal a man's nature to himself. No other book was able to do so. It lifted a man up so that he could profit by the higher experiences it made possible, and which always resulted in good. If the bible were read regularly people would give little of their time to the so-called amusements of the world. The audience listened with marked attention to the earnest addresses. After taking a collection in aid of the Society, Rev. W. W. Lodge read the names of the officers for the present year which are practically the same as last year. This evening's meeting will be the last of the week of Prayer. Rev. T. F. Fullerton will preside and deliver the address. A large audience will no doubt assemble in the Baptist Church to hear him.

FIDELT T. ARSENAULT, Emanuel F. Gallant, Edmond Arsenaule of Wellington, James A. Sharp and Herbert S. Sharp Summerside give notice in the Royal Gazette of application for incorporation of the Arsenault & Gaudet Company, Limited, of Wellington. This company purposes carrying on a general mercantile business.

AMONG the arrivals at Pictou from Georgetown on January 9, were the following students en route to Wolfville: The Misses McLeod, Miss M. Sharp, and Miss G. McQuarrie from Summerside; Miss E. Mathie from Dundas; J. S. McLeod and Gordon Hughes from Charlottetown and William Morrell from Tryon.

THE Railway Department here state that during the first week the new winter time-table has been in operation, that 653 passengers were carried over the Prince Edward Island Railway. During the same period last year, when the fall time table was in force half of the week and the then winter time-table, the other half, 4080 passengers were carried. Allowing 500 passengers by the mail specials until the second week of January last year, there is a difference of 1983 passengers in favor of the week of 1907.
