YESTERDAY Senator Wark celebrated his 101st birthday. The senator at the present time is enjoying the best of health. He will be the recipient of many congratulations. A well known aged citizen being told the other day that he was not so old and was young compared to Mr. Wark, who was over one hundred, replied, "Oh, yes, he is going on two hundred."

This annual meeting of the Canadian Association for the prevention of Consumption will be held in Ottawa on the 15th March next. The afternoon will be devoted to the routine business of the Association. In the evening a lecture will be delivered by Dr. Adams of Montreal on some phase of the crusade against consumption. His Excellency the Governor-General will preside on the occasion.

Mrs. ALLEN, wife of Rev. J. S. Allen, Methodist, St. Andrews, N.B., died Saturday, Feb. 11, leaving a husband, four sons and two daughters. One of the sons is a professor in Manitoba College; another is in California, and a third in Montreal. The deceased was a daughter of Elijah Tuttle, of Pugwash (N. S.), and a sister of Rev. A. S. Tuttle, of the Nova Scotia conference. Interment took place at Richibucto.

The Guardian has received the report of the fourth annual convention of the Union of Canadian Municipalities. The report besides containing a verbatim account of the proceedings of the Convention has excellent photographs of the officers and those attending the second, third and fourth conventions, among whom may be seen the faces of Ex Mayor Warburton, Ex-Councillor Wheat and Councillor James Paton.

The St. John Sun speaking of an alleged Island man in hard luck there says: Munro has not been accustomed to such hard times, and should be assisted in some way to get to Boston. If he could get there he thinks he would be all right. The Star saw U. S. Consul Myers this morning and he said he could do nothing for Munro, as he was not an American seaman. He had heard nothing about the matter officially, but according to the Star's report Munro is an Islander by birth and he can do nothing for him.

MAVY snow-shoeing and skiing parties took advantage of the beautiful weather Saturday for a tramp. Some went out along the line of railway to St. Dunstons while others wandered in the direction of Southport and Rocky Point. Skiing is fast becoming a popular outdoor sport. They have many advantages over snow shoes, as the ground can be covered much faster and easier, especially on a down grade when the person goes at a rapid pace. Some of the snow shoes anxious to see how the skis worked gave them a trial, much to the amusement of the more expert. This new sport however is easily learned and an amateur on first trial can travel many miles.

Carnegie Institute met in Clinton Hall, Feb. 14, at 7 o'clock to arrange for their seeds for the coming season. The seed question was brought up and discussed freely, the members speaking of the importance of ordering seeds of the best quality. It was moved and carried that the secretary correspond with some of the different seedsmen for samples and prices of their best seeds. Moved and carried that the Institute meet in three weeks time in Clinton Hall, James A. Campbell was appointed as a delegate to attend a meeting to be held in Charlottetown to arrange for better communication between the Island and the mainland. All members are asked to be present on Feb. 25th so as to place the order for seeds as soon as possible.

THREE passed peacefully away to her eternal rest at Pownal, Feb. 8th, Clarinda, dearly beloved wife of Alfred Jenkins and daughter of the late William Ferguson of Bethel, Lot 8, in the forty-eighth year of her age. The deceased had been in failing health for some time, but was taken suddenly ill of la grippe one week previous to her death and she gradually grew weaker and weaker until she heard the voice of her Master say: Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord. She was a consistent member of the Methodist Church, an upright Christian, a good neighbor, always noted for kindness and hospitality, and was beloved by all who knew her. She leaves a sorrowing husband, three sons and one daughter to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.

DURING the recent blockade on the I. C. R., the rotary snow plough was in operation between Truro and Oxford Junction for twenty days, cutting a path for itself with knives like a modern windmill, and throwing a stream of snow, thirty feet into the air at an angle of forty-five degrees. But for the continued operation of this machine the conditions on the line north of Truro would have paralyzed traffic either way.

The prisoners William Power and George Manson were taken from the jail Saturday to Falconwood Asylum, where they will be confined in future. Power was reluctant to go but Manson was quite willing. Both are considered dangerous patients and an extra man will be put in charge of them. Manson is under the hallucination that he has a commission from heaven to kill all he meets. Power at first refused to leave the jail but was told he was to be taken to the court. "Oh, yes," he said, "and then I will be released." Passing the Court house he wanted to know why they did not take him in and those in charge said they were going to another Court at Mount Stewart. When he arrived at Falconwood he protested again against stopping there but was told that the storm prevented them going farther. For the remainder of the day he appeared satisfied but will be kept under close surveillance.
