"Freely ye have received, freely give."—Matt. 10:18.

POINTED SUGGESTIONS.

By Rev. D. W. Snider.

It is the men who are most like Jesus in their Christian activities and compassion who see the ever-widening and ever-ripening need. It is the vision of the interested and consecrated. The holy and the loving are always the disciples of a crisis. They cannot be complacent while there is the danger that the ripe field may soon be a rotting one.

Jesus is the model of the Sunday School teacher and Christian worker, as He undoubtedly is for the preacher. The scenes of the highway transform themselves forcefully to his understanding under the quick figure, which his sanctified imagination presents. Multitudes are thought of as shepherdless sheep, and the sheep as a field of ripening grain without harvesters at hand, and the owner of the field in desperate appeal to every possible harvest hand. The field is the world. What follows?

The commission of Jesus is as wide and as inclusive of benefit to men today as it ever was. Religion and medicine are not antagonisms. Religion and hospitals and infirmaries and asylums and all manner of agencies and instruments for the help and healing of mankind belong to God. Those who labor in them should act under divine authority and ordination. They should exercise whatever might that authority gives or the power of prayer can grant. And as all true science belongs to God they should take toll of its every possibility of good.

Matthew the Publican and Simon the Cananaean, under ordinary circumstances would make strange bedfellows. And they would dislike each other scarcely less than a lot of folk would like either of them. But Jesus can make (what a mercy that He does it!) friends and brethern and fellow apostles of those who are natural enemies and haters.

Purpose and motive and expectation and possibility are provided for in the Master's outline of duty to those whom He sends forth in His name. He has a code of honor for them and definite rules of conduct.

And what is to be the expectation of the prophet, should be esteemed as the privilege of the city to which he comes, or the house into which he would enter.

The Homes of hospitality for the preacher—the homes with the prophet's chamber—the homes which gladly support the servant of the Lord, are homes where God's blessing has come and where God's blessing abides. Duty is two-edged as between preacher and the people, and where duty is fulfilled on both sides there comes restfulness and great joy. Alas, that either the one or the other should come into Sodom or Gomorrah like judgments.

The Master does not place, by many diameters of comparison, nearly as much value upon genius or brilliant gifts as He does upon faith. The faith one has in the good, because of which he ministers to "one of these little ones" in the simplest act of devotion to the cause of the good, shall in nowise lose reward. And the reward is beyond specification. Some rewards may be foretold, but the reward of faith, while it is sure, is beyond, and too grand for the telling.

There is no need to think the service one can render is of little or no value because it is not the service of those who are called to the "firing line" or to leadership. The reward which the prophet shall receive, for example, is also the reward of the one whose sympathy and love for the prophet is such that it involves some likeness to his character. "As his share is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his share be that tarrieth by the stuff: they shall share alike."

Father Morriscy's "No. 10" — Lung Tonic

Is a Safe and Certain Cure for Coughs, Colds and Lung Troubles

During his long and remarkably successful practice Father Morriscy treated thousands who were suffering from some form of Throat or Lung Trouble. He soon found that it was not enough to stop the cough or ease the pain and soreness, for with the next exposure the whole trouble would come back, often worse than before.

After a great deal of study and research he succeeded in making up a prescription that did not stop with giving temporary relief, but which rebuilt and strengthened the delicate membranes and cells of the lungs and air passages.

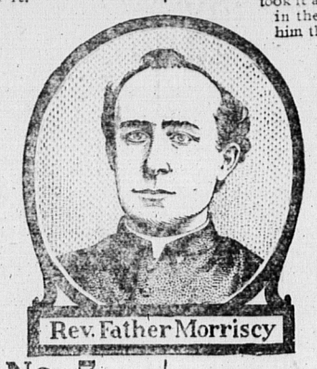
This prescription he used with wonderful success, and thousands have been benefitted and cured by it.

For convenience it was called "Father Morriscy's No. 10", but is perhaps better known as "Father Morriscy's Lung Tonic."

This name, "Lung Tonic," describes it exactly. It really tones up and strengthens the lungs and, in fact, the whole system, giving the vitality needed to fight off lung diseases.

Even in cases of Consumption it has proved very helpful. It arrests the decline and builds up the system at the same time that it helps clear the passages of mucus.

"No. 10" is perfectly safe, even for children, as it does not contain a trace of Opium, Morphine or any other harmful drug.



Rev. Father Morriscy

St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, N.B., Dec. 1st., 1909.

THE FATHER MORRISCY MEDICINE CO., LTD.

Father Morriscy prescribed for my brother, a young fellow who had always been delicate, having to leave school on account of his health. As he grew he seemed to get less strong, always tired and sort of worn out, and looked so bad all the time. At different times he had slight hemorrhages.

In the autumn of 1907 he had such a cough that it just distressed one to hear it. It just shook his whole body, some nights all night long. Near the last of October one evening he began to cough and suddenly great streams of blood rushed from his mouth, a dreadful hemorrhage.

The doctor had examined him before and had told us he had Tuberculosis without a doubt, and it was but a matter of a very short time. We had heard a great deal of Father Morriscy, and Harry felt sure he would help him, so I wrote him and the good Father sent the Cure. He began to take it and immediately there was a change. He took it all that winter and in the spring he was able to sit out in the garden in a wheel chair, and everybody who knew him thought it simply miraculous.

Then he felt so well that he stopped taking the medicine. One hot day in June he sat in the sun until he got sort of a touch of sunstroke and about six in the evening he took a hemorrhage and bled until noon the next day. A doctor came in and said he had a touch of the sun and consumption and gave very little hopes.

This, however, did not daunt my brother, for he knew what the Cure had done before, and he kept on taking the medicine, for he had perfect faith. Every day for over a year he never missed, and to-day he is perfectly splendid. Every one who knows him has said it was the most wonderful, most miraculous cure ever heard of.

He is stronger and better now than ever he was, and there is never a day that he does not walk three or four miles just for a constitutional, and very often more, and he looks as though there never had been anything wrong with him whatever.

Yours truly,
EVELEEN BYRNE.

Father Morriscy's No. 7

For Rheumatism and the Kidneys

Rheumatism is the result of Kidney Trouble. The function of the Kidneys is to filter out from the blood certain impurities, particularly Uric Acid. If they do not do this the Uric Acid accumulates, poisons the blood and the whole system, and, settling in the joints and muscular tissue, causes Rheumatism.

"No. 7" clears out the accumulated waste matter in the Kidneys and stimulates them to purify the blood and keep it pure. This, of course, promptly cures the Rheumatism.

Mr. Barberie, Registrar of Deeds at Dalhousie, Restigouche Co., N.B. tells of the relief he received from using No. 7 Tablets and Father Morriscy's Liniment:

Dalhousie, N.B., April 14th, 1909.

THE FATHER MORRISCY MEDICINE CO., LTD.

I suffered from Rheumatism for years and recently have been confined to my house with it with Doctors attending. A friend recommended your medicine and I tried your No. 7 Tablets and also your Liniment and can recommend them to all sufferers, as they certainly gave me relief and to-day I can get around as well as I could years ago.

Yours very truly, JOHN BARBERIE.

Father Morriscy's No. 26

For Catarrh

In its milder stages this disease is simply a chronic Cold in the Head, caused by our extreme and changeable climate. As the disease progresses, however, it becomes loathsome, and generally leads to lung or stomach diseases.

Father Morriscy's "No. 26" is a combined blood and external treatment, which Father Morriscy found was most effective. The tablets, taken three or four times a day, act on the diseased parts by purifying the blood and imparting greater vitality and power to throw off the Catarrh. The salve, applied up the nostrils, cleanses and heals the tissues. Together, they cure.

FATHER MORRISCY MED. CO. LTD.,

I take great pleasure in recommending to all men who work in or around shingle mills the Father Morriscy receipts for Catarrh. For three years I had suffered from Catarrh in the head until March, 1903, when I had to leave my work in shingle mills, after trying four different so-called Catarrh Cures, and two doctors who claimed there was no cure.

One single treatment of Father Morriscy's prescription cured me and I returned to work in a week after starting to take the treatment, and have never had as much as a cold in the head since.

DALHOUSIE, N.B. P. M. SHANNON.

If you suffer from any of these diseases, even though other remedies may have failed to help you, don't give up. Father Morriscy's Prescriptions have cured hundreds whom others could not cure. Why won't you let them cure you? Get them at your dealer's, or from 69
