Central Lot 16 held their November meeting at the home of Mrs. E. L. Millar with seventeen members and seven visitors attending. The meeting opened with the Ode followed by minutes and roll call, and the appointing of committees. Miss Mathieson, Supervisor, was present and then gave an interesting talk on "Balanced Diets." Money was voted to put a platform around the school pump.
A reading by Miss Cairns and a contest conducted by Miss G. Mac-Lean comprised the program of the evening which was greatly enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. H.
McGregor.

Birch Hill Institute held their November meeting at the home of Mrs. Ernest Newcombe with eighteen members and seven visitors present. Roll call was answered by naming a book recently read and enjoyed. Various committees reported and the following bills were paid: $1.00 for having blackboard repaired, and 75c for a damper and pipe length for the stove.
It was decided to buy an aluminum kettle for the school to be used for hot drinks for the children, also to have a sign-board placed on the school. Four resolutions were given by different members and a Suggestion Box was held at the close of the meeting and proved very interesting. Next month the members will meet with the secretary, Mrs. Edgar Doherty, and Roll call is to be answered with a
"Question Box."

Conway. The first regular meeting of the Conway Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Palmer on November 11, with nine members and fifty-one visitors present. Following the singing of the Ode, the minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. A school committee was appointed. It was decided to have a water pail placed in the school, and the secretary was appointed to buy same. The matter of holding a Bean Supper was discussed, but decision was deferred until next meeting. Two new members were welcomed. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess and the meeting closed with the National Anthem. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Bernard Murphy.

Eldon. Fourteen members and one visitor attended the October meeting of this club which was held at the home of Mrs. E. Wicks.
Roll call was answered with "What I'd do with $1,000." The Girl Guide movement was discussed and it was decided that a Branch of the C.G.I.T. would suit the purpose better here. A school committee was appointed. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Halliday, and as it will be the first anniversary of this branch, it was decided to have the meeting a social one, each member having the privilege of bringing a friend.

"Lakeview" Branch held their November meeting at the home of Mrs. Lewis Rose with twelve members and three visitors attending.
Roll call being answered with thoughts on Thanksgiving. Arrangements were made for building a platform at North Lake school and for purchasing a Map of P. E. I. for Lakeville school. Papers were read on School Lunch, etc. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. D. Fraser, North Lake.

ing of this Institute was held at the home of Mrs. H. L. Donald, with twenty-four members and one visitor attending. The meeting opened with the President in the chair, by singing the Ode and repeating the Creed. The school committee reported visiting the school and meeting the Inspector, Mr. Court.
They also reported that locks and glass were needed. The sick committee reported having visited the sick. A new sick committee was appointed and instructed to get grape juice and fruit for a sick friend. It was decided to provide Christmas gifts for the children.

bers were welcomed. The next
of Mrs. Rufus Bagnall.

Cardigan. The November meeting of this Institute was held in the schoolhouse, eleven members and two visitors attending. Roll call was answered by suggesting inexpensive Christmas gifts. Some discussion took place on the cost of erecting a flag pole, and it was discovered that the amount voted for the purpose at the October meeting would be insufficient. No decision was reached in the matter.
Sewing was done on Patchwork Quilt. One new member was welcomed. No new business was undertaken and no lunch was served.
This Institute purchased blinds for the school worth $41.22. Roll call at the December meeting will be answered with the conducting of a Question Box.

attending and answering the roll call by giving the name of their favorite author. The secretary, treasurer reported that $30.45 had been made at the Dance. The president read a paper on Infantile Paralysis. It was decided to have a new well dug and a pump placed in the school. A very pleasant meeting and after a dainty luncheon, the meeting adjourned to meet next month at the home of Mrs. Frank Powell.

Lower FreeTown Branch had sixteen members and one visitor at their November meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. Ed.
Burns. Several bills for the laying of the hardwood floor in the school were settled, and the petitions sent out from the department were signed by all the members. Plans were discussed for the holding of a social evening at the L. Freetown Hall in conjunction with the members of the Dunk River Farmers' Institute. Two new members were welcomed. A visitor from Bedeque Institute told how they conducted their meetings. The members will meet next month with Miss Amy Cairns.

papers, "The Federated Institutes of Canada," and "Institute Demonstrations" were read, and there was also an enjoyable contest which was prepared by Miss Boswell. During the social hour which followed, Mrs. Stewart served refreshments, and several Victoria selections were appreciated. Miss Erna Boswell will entertain the members next month.

Long Creek Branch held their November meeting in the school house, twelve members and three visitors attending. The meeting opened in the usual manner. One of the new drinking fountains was exhibited and inspected by the members. A number of aprons were finished. A pleasing feature of the program was an original recitation entitled "The Women's Institute" composed and recited by Miss Rose MacDougall. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mack MacNeill.
