The body of a novel automobile has sides that can be moved outward and a top that can be raised to convert it into a salesroom for customers for its contents are visible.

An English missionary has reported the discovery of a tribe of giant negroes in Africa, many of them seven feet tall, that seem to have descended from ancient Egyptians.

Water issues from an artesian well near Reno, Nev., at such a high temperature that it is used to warm houses and irrigate cultivated lands as a protection against frost.

In this, the bobbed hair age, Miss Sjurgen of Toronto possesses the unique distinction of having the longest hair of any woman in the world. Its longest strand is 10 feet 6 inches in length and when let out trails behind her like an abbreviated train. When she does it up she braids her hair into two plaits, winding them around her head like a turban. "If a woman finds her hair a burden," says Miss Sjurgen, "there is no reason why she should not shorten it, but I don't find mine a burden."

Bang Went 500 Window Panes

(By British United Press) LONDON, April 1—Gather round me in the Inglenook, my children, and I will tell you how the brave lads of Bullington Club gallantly assaulted the old quadrangles of Christchurch after their dinner the other night and shattered 500 window-panes. You ask me, my children: What is the Bullington Club? The Bullington Club is the most exclusive of all Oxford's undergraduate clubs, and it meets now and then in an exclusive sort of way and has a dinner. It had one the other night. The members ate in an exclusive manner. They also drank, but not so exclusive. And then they sallied forth. It will always remain a mystery why those eighty of its members and friends who returned to Christ-

Dutch Settlers are Coming to Canada

MONTREAL, April 1.—Of the 225 Dutch settlers now on board the Nieuw Amsterdam, Holland-America liner, bound for Halifax, the Dekker family is certain that of Adriaan Dekker, who is accompanied by his wife and twelve children, six boys and six girls. The boys range in age from 23 to 14 years, while the girls are from 22 to 9 years and include two sets of twins, a boy and girl of 20 years and a boy and girl of 16 years. The Dekker family were recruited for this country by the overseas representatives of the Colonization Department, Canadian National Railways, and have decided to settle in New Brunswick in the vicinity of Moncton.

New cords for household electric appliances contain spring sections that prevent the wires being twisted, with the attendant danger of breaking and causing short circuits.

They went on smashing and singing and dancing for about an hour. They'll hear about it in due course. No, they won't be sent down. It's not so serious as all that. "But they'll have to pay fines: 5 pounds each, I should say."

I visited the devastated area. It looked as though a big shell had exploded in the middle of Peckwater Quad. Undergraduates were shivering inside rooms with shattered windows. One of them leaped out. "It's draughty," he said "but it was worth it."
