MISTAKES GIRL FOR HIS BRIDE

ST. LOUIS, May 29—"I have made a terrible mistake," said George Schultz over the telephone to the police of the Manchester avenue station the other day after he had caused a young woman, who bears a striking resemblance to Mrs. Schultz, much embarrassment and inconvenience.

Schultz, much excited, approached Patrolman Carroll and Brickey a little before midnight and told them his wife was in a house in Pine street. The patrolman entered and found an attractive young woman who said she was Miss Emily Mertz. Schultz insisted that she was his wife. He had followed her from a summer garden, he said.

"I never saw you in my life," declared Miss Mertz with righteous indignation, when Schultz told how they had been married in Benton, Ill. Schultz declared that his picture was in the pocket she wore, whereupon with an air of triumph, Miss Mertz opened it for the patrolman. The picture is contained was not a likeness of Schultz.

Still indignant, Schultz said he could identify his wife if a crooked toe on one foot. Miss Mertz obligingly removed her shoes and stockings and convinced the police that her toes were as perfect as Trilby's.

By that time Schultz had misgivings but asked the police to bear with him till he could run over to the home of his father-in-law on Virginia avenue. A half hour later Schultz telephoned he had made a "terrible mistake," as his wife he feared he had lost was safe at the home of her parents.

THE BURDEN OF THE DAY.

Who shall rise and cast away,
First, the Burden of the Day?
Who assert his place, and teach
Lighter labor, nobler speech,

Standing firm, erect and strong,
Proud as Freedom, free as Song?
Lo, we groan beneath the weight
Of our own weaknesses create;
Crook the knee and shut the lip,
All for tamer fellowship.

Load our slack, compliant clay
With the Burdens of the Day!
Higher paths there are to tread;
Fresher fields around us spread;
Other flames of sun and star
Flash at hand and lure afar;
Larger manhood might we share,
Sure! fortune—did we dare!

In our mills of common thought
By the pattern all is wrought;
In our school of life, the man
Drills to suit the public plan,
And through labor, love and play,
Shifts the Burden of the Day.

Ah! the gods of wood and stone
Can a single saint dethrone,
But the people who shall aid
'Gainst the puppets they have made
First they teach and then obey;
'Tis the Burden of the Day.

Thunder shall we never hear
In this ordered atmosphere?
Never this monotonous feel
Shattered by a trumpet's peal?
Never storms that burst and blow
From eternal summits, know?

Who no man resent his wrong,
Still is free the poet's song;
Still, a stag, his thought may leap
Over the herded swine and sheep,
And in the pastures far away
Lose the Burden of the Day.

DR. W. G. MILLER.
He was recently re-elected to office of President of the Canada Mining Institute.

Eminent Physician Explains Cause of Gout, Rheumatism, &c.

The real cause of gout is due to the excessive use of certain articles of food and drink, which in time leads to a disturbance of the functions of the liver. As a result harmful products such as uric acid are thrown into the blood, causing the condition known as gout.

Consequently it follows that, having proper diet and maintaining liver activity, a cure can be effected.

Probably no physician has achieved such success in liver disease as Dr. Hamilton.

His pills of Mandrake and Butter-nut are everywhere acknowledged to be a specific for slow, weak or sluggish liver; they give tone and vitality to this organ that enables it to perform its duties with ease and certainty.

Once the liver is corrected, Dr. Hamilton's Pills apply their peculiar merit to the kidneys and eliminating organs.

This cleanses the blood and sends it back through the system, full of nourishment and strength.

Rheumatic tendencies are no longer noticed, for pure blood kills the poison that causes rheumatic aches.

Dull, aching twinges, stiff joints, and difficulty of exertion become things of the past.

Of course by rheumatism such complaints as sciatica, lumbago and neuralgia must be included, for after all, what are they but manifestations of rheumatic poison?

Thus it is easily seen that a world of good is accomplished by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Acting as a blood renovator and a general tonic for the system their benefit is incalculable. 25c. per box or five boxes for $1.00, at all dealers, and be sure you get the genuine Dr. Hamilton's Pills.
