"There is a good deal of talk about the increase in living expenses."

"Was it a good game of ball?" "Splendid. The visiting team went all to pieces in the first inning and our boys beat 'em 27 to 0."

The Third Warning A Mystery Love Story

A FLASH OF TEETH

The dog was now at a pitch of madness. It crouched and came at me preparing to spring, hesitated and came on again, its teeth like two white saw edges, its eyes wild.

I looked round me with strange feelings. Whether or not the man was following, I did not know.

GLEANINGS FROM TRYON AND VICINITY

Messrs Bowley Leard and Spurgeon Clarke were visitors to Charlottetown last week by the Harland.

Miss Isabel MacFadyen of Tryon spent her Easter holidays very pleasantly with her sister, Mrs. Horace Cameron of Charlottetown.

Miss Pearl Weeks, B. A., principal of Tryon Consolidated School has returned to her duties after spending her Easter holidays in Sackville, N. B.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Compton of Summerside motored to Crapaud on Sunday.
