

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown.

A poster offering anything for sale is read but by those who happen to pick it up, but the Guardian's Classified ads are read by everybody. See the point?

The marriage took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Samuel Howes, St. John, N.B., on June 24th, 1908 at 8 o'clock p.m. of Miss Jennima Jane Bonnell, of Westfield, to Gordon Alexander Robertson of Cavendish, Queen's Co., P.E.I. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. B. H. Nobles, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride was the recipient of handsome presents showing the esteem in which she is held. The happy couple left on Thursday for their home in Prince Edward Island followed by the good wishes of all their friends.

Zion church Sunday School picnic will be held at Murray River on July 6th.

There passed away at Nine Mile Creek on June 24th a much respected inhabitant in the person of Jas. Currie. He had reached the ripe age of 85, and was a loving father, affectionate husband and a kind neighbor. All who knew him respected and loved him. He leaves two sons, John and Thomas Murphy, Hector McLaine, also two daughters Mrs. Ambrose Barry, Morell, and Mrs. Owen King, Rocky Point, to mourn. The funeral took place on Friday to South Shore C. netery where a High Mass was held. The pallbearers were: Thomas Murphy, Hector McLaine, Neil Currie, John Smith, Ed. Foley and Ed. Harrington.

The tide will be high this morning at 11.20 and tomorrow at 11.59.

Dr. D. N. McPhail, Mt. Stewart, preached at Nine Mile Creek last Sabbath morning.

There is a good opportunity for a bright boy to learn the printing at The Guardian office. Apply at once.

On July 6th a special train will leave this city about nine in the morning for the Zion church Sunday School picnic at Murray River. There will be good fishing and a good time.

The contractors for printing the Charlottetown Directory published by G. Ballingall have completed the job and they are now being distributed and are on sale at the book stores.

It is a singular coincidence that the immigration office in Halifax engaged a Rev. Edwin Smith to lecture in the States for the tourist traffic—a noted traveller and a speaker of repute—and for a few weeks past another Edwin Smith from the States, with the same record and reputation, has been delivering popular lectures in these parts, says the Coast Guard—Halifax Herald.

It is the people who make an Exhibition, and there is no doubt they have made up their minds to make the St. John show, this fall, the best ever held there. The prizes are larger and more complete, the preparations for, and the confidence in the success of the big event greater than ever before. The determination to please the people, to give them their money's worth, to ensure that the Exhibition shall be worthy of St. John, and but the forerunner of what can be done when the Dominion Exposition is held there is shown on every hand. Everyone should mark the dates, September 12th to 19th, well, and leave that much time to visit St. John and its attractions during the show week.

A very happy event took place on Wednesday evening last at the residence of Alexander R. Stewart, Belle River, when his daughter Sadie was united in marriage to John E. McDonald of Little Sands. The ceremony which was witnessed by the immediate relatives was performed by the Rev. Duncan McKenzie of Wood Islands. The bride was beautifully attired in cream tulle and lace with applique and lace trimmings. Miss Cora Emery who acted as bridesmaid was dressed in pale blue, and veiled with embroidered chiffon trimmings. The groom was supported by Angus McKenzie. After a sumptuous supper was partaken of the happy couple drove to their home in Little Sands accompanied by congratulations and best wishes of their many friends. From their friends they received many beautiful and useful presents testifying to the esteem in which they are held.

The residence of Mrs. E. D. Scantlebury, 939 Hornby street Vancouver, B. C., was the scene of a pretty wedding when Miss Bessie Scantlebury formerly of Charlottetown, P. E. I., became the wife of Ralph V. Vaughn. The ceremony was performed at 11 o'clock by Rev. P. Clifton Parker in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom. The house was beautifully decorated with roses and ferns. The bride wore a pretty gown of white crepe de chene and a white hat trimmed with roses, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Muriel Brydson-Jack made a charming little flower girl. She wore a dainty frock of white silk and carried a basket of carnations. The bride and groom left for Victoria and Seattle, from which point they will go east over the Great Northern, and will spend a few weeks in London, Ont. On their return to Vancouver they will take up their residence in the Elko apartment house.

Evidently Miss Lucy Maud Montgomery has her foot securely placed on the ladder of fame. Concerning her new book the publishers write as follows: "As the author of 'Anne of Green Gables' is a Prince Edward Island woman (Cavendish), and as the book is one of which any country might well be proud, we hope that you will see your way clear to give a special notice in your columns. Temple Scott of the New York American, who read advance proofs, said: 'It is in many respects a more finished piece of literary art than Miss Alcott ever accomplished. As for Anne, herself, she is a gem, even with her red hair and freckles. We wish to see her in the flesh.'" The Boston Herald says: "It could have been written only by a woman of deep and wide sympathy. Throughout this delightful story reminds one of the captivating humor of Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." We believe that we have a book which is destined to become one of the most popular in years, and we shall appreciate anything you may do towards calling it to the attention of your readers.

Daniel Connolly for assaulting Mary Jane Aitken was fined $10 or 20 days. It was a busy day in Prohibition Act cases which are reported elsewhere in this paper.

There was a good house and a grand program at New Wonderland last night. The pictures were splendid, and the interesting story of Jack and the Beanstalk assumed a new life as the pictures told it. The management announced a number of contests with some fine rewards for the writers of the best lines. The particulars appear elsewhere. Every one should be interested in them.

In an interesting game of baseball at Victoria Park last evening the Pasmores defeated the Tanners by a score of 14-7. The Tanners led most of the way but by some bad plays by their opponents take the lead. The Tanners were shut out in their last inning and the Pasmores increased their lead. The game only lasted four innings. W. Morgan umpired satisfactorily for both sides.
