R. K. JOST,

Stampers' Corner.

There's a busy tailor man
Which is Sam.
Does the biggest; his he can
Our Sam.
He has serges, he has tweed
He has everything you need
'Cept he hasn't got the green,
That will make your pocket bleed
Have you Sam?

Then here's to Sam,
Our enterprising Sam, Sam, Sam,
He's our flashy tailor man
Cutter Sam, Sam, Sam,
He's the standard of his grade,
He's the prince of all his trade,
He has come and he has stayed,
And the pops will never raid
On yer Sam.

If you want a suit of clothes
Call on Sam;
'Tis where everybody goes
Into Sam.
They are there of every shape,
He can fit a blasted ape,
'Cause he's master of the tape—
Artist Sam.

When your coat is getting h'old
Ring up Sam,
When you find your seat is cold
Sign of Sam;
If you want no bloomin' trash,
If you want to cut a dash
And to do it cheap for cash
Go to Sam.

He has offered out a prize,
Gen'rous Sam!
You didn't want to advertise,
Did you Sam?
Well, I'll call around next year,
When the corn is in the ear,
Wanting something, never fear,
So be ready with your gear
And your prize.
