The bride, radiant as rippling waters, sparkling in the morning sun, wore white silk crepe de chene with picture hat and carried a bouquet of carnations and roses, and never over the floor of that aisle which she hardly seemed to touch, has passed a fairer vision. Miss Perle McKeena acted as maid of honor, and wore a light peach georgette with white picture hat, was nothing other than the personification of charm. The groom was supported by the bride's brother, Mr. Russell Hammill. After the ceremony, which was witnessed by many friends, relatives and acquaintances, the party motored to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Austin Kilbride, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. After breakfast the party left by the S. S. St. Claire for Bobo, Canada, where an enjoyable day was spent in that beautiful summer resort, under the Union
