OFF SANTA CLAUS' BEAT

I S'POSE there is a Santa Claus
That brings them pretty toys
An' candy an' mince pies an' things
To lots o' little boys.
But where we live down here, I guess,
Is sort o' off his beat.
I'm pretty certain, anyway,
He never found our street.

He goes around to all the stores
An' fills 'em full o' things
Like sleds an skates an' railroad cars,
The kind he always brings,
An' then he seems to lose the way
To our house. Ain't it queer
That all the times he's come to town
He's never been down here?

I asked my mother if I might
Go wait for him uptown
An' tell him that the boys I know
Invites him to come down,
But she sort o' chokes an' coughs,
An' then she looks away
An' says, "He'll find us out, I guess,
An' visit us some day."

An' yet I've been a-waiting 'here
So long that I don't b'lieve
I'll ever see him come at all
On any Christmas eve.
I'm goin' to ask a p'licemen if
Santa he should meet
He'll just go up an' speak to him
An' point him out our street.

POLICE FORCED DRAW REVOLVERS

Troops Had to Rescue French Police Engaged in Enforcing Separation

NANTES, December 20—Considerable rioting attended the evacuation of the episcopal palace and seminary here today. Crowds of Catholic manifestationists overcame the police, who were compelled to draw their revolvers and under threats of opening fire kept back the enraged populace until rescued by troops. Several women were arrested for striking or biting soldiers.

Duchess of Marlborough

Duke of Marlborough

MARLBOROUGH FAMILY QUARREL

Here with are potraits of the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough and their children. The quarrel between the Duke and Duchess, who was formerly Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, has attracted world-wide attention, and both parties had arranged to live separately hereafter. But it is rumered that the King and Queen of England are striving to make peace between the two, with every prospect of success.

FIRST AID TO SANTA CLAUS

A clever idea for a Christmas night party is to have the gifts come on a sled piled high and strapped on and the sled drawn by two lads dubbed Santa Claus' assistants. The place cards at the supper which follows the distribution of the gifts should be tiny sleds made from cardboard and dipped in mucilage, then in diamond dust, the rope to be of silver cord and each sled drawn by a miniature Santa Claus about three inches high.

SOMETHING ABOUT XMAS AND NEW YEARS

Only a star, a shining star,
More glorious than our planets are,
But watched by wistful eyes and bright,
And longing hearts, that wondrous night.

Only a manger, shadow thronged,
That to some public inn belonged,
Where sweet breathed cattle quietly
For midnight slumber bent the knee.

Only the light of tapers small,
That on two tender faces fall,
Two tender faces—one divine—
That still through all the centuries shine
From palace walls, from thrones of gold,
From churches, shrines, cathedrals old,
Where the grand masters of their art
Wrought faithfully with hand and heart.

Only a Babe, in whose small hand
Is seen no sceptre of command,
But at whose name, with freedom's sword,
Move the great armies of the Lord.

Only a cross! But, oh, what light
Shines from God's throne on Calvary's height!
His birth, his life, the angels see
Written on every Christmas tree.

There is music in the chimney—
On the hearth a genial glow.
Now the house is making ready
For old Santa Claus, I know,
And the tune the chimney's singing
Is a merry roundelay:
"Joy and cheer—
Christmas's here,
And old Santa's on the way,"

Every spark that mounts the chimney
Is a fairy of the fire,
Dancing up to watch for Santa,
Sailing higher, higher, higher,
Till, amid the stars that twinkle,
On the sky pathway they pause,
Gaze and blink,
Nod and wink,
Waiting for old Santa Claus.

All the coals that glow and sparkle
On the hearth or in the grate
And the embers there assembled
Are but eager eyes that wait
For Kriss Kringle, who is coming
With his pack of sweets and toys,
Sledge and deer,
Bringing cheer
To a million girls and boys.

Christmas Two

"And a little child shall lead them.' The entire meaning of the festival of Christmas is contained in these words. It is the festival of the children because on this day God, the Son, the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, took upon him human nature in the shape of a helpless and beautiful child.

—Rev. John Talbott Smith, LL. D., President Catholic Summer School of America.

A traveler in Sweden tells of a beautiful Christmas custom in that land which may well be imitated in many lands. He says: "One wintry afternoon at Christmastide I had been skating on a pretty lake three miles from Gothenburg. On my way home I noticed that at every farmer's house there was erected in the middle of the dooryard a pole, to the top of which was bound a large full sheaf of grain. In answer to my question as to the meaning of it my companion replied: 'Oh, that is for the birds—for the little wild birds. They must have a merry Christmas, too, you know.'"—Selected.

Little cakes that will please the children either at the table or on the Christmas tree are made as follows: Bake the cakes in little patty or muffin pans and frost the tops with a white icing. Dip a small new paint brush in melted chocolate and draw a face on each. Make some crying and others laughing, the different expressions being made by the curve of the mouth line. The merest outline will be sufficient. Cut a circle of tissue paper of white or any other color like two inches larger than the cake, pink the edge with scissors and run a thread round one inch from the edge. Put a cake in the paper, draw up the thread, and a cunning little cap is formed. The pleasure of small children will well repay the trouble of making these little cake babies.—Pittsburg Press.

Ascum—What did that rich old uncle of yours give you for Christmas? Something useful, I'll bet.

Hauskeep—Yes, a little device for saving coal bills.

Ascum—Ah, an arrangement to attach to the heater?

Hauskeep—No, to keep on my desk. It's a bill file.

GREAT OIL GUSHER IN ONTARIO

1,000 Barrels Ran Into Ditches Befre Stream Could Be Plugged

TILLBURY, Ont., Dec. 20.—The richest strike in the Tillbury oil fields was made on J. A. Tremblay's farm in Romney Township today. Ditches full of oil for miles around the derrick, tell the story plainly. The oil gushed with great force from the well before workmen started operations in the morning, and before they could plug the casing at least 1000 barrels flowed on frozen ground and ran in rivulets to large ditches for which Romney is famous.

VALUES HIS FAITH MORE THAN LIFE

French Officer Who Preferred to Be Shot Rather Than Commit Sacrilege

LITRE, France, Dec. 20—A court martial here today tried and degraded Captain Magniez for refusing to obey orders in connection with taking the inventory of the chapel of St. John.

Magniez before the court said:—"I am a Christian and I prefer to be shot rather than commit a sacrilege. No one has the right to make me renounce the vows I took at my first communion.

ADVERTISING IS BROAD.

Advertising in itself means publicity and publicity is a very broad and comprehensive term. It does not mean simply a word whispered to a favored few. It is, rather, synonymous with a general, broadcast declaration, and the broader the scope of the announcement, the better the advertising. No occupied space that directs attention along given and desired lines can be reasonably regarded as wasted; nor can any funds expended to this end be adjudged extravagance.—American Medical Journ

The Season for Croup and Colds

BUT SERIOUS RESULTS CAN BE AVOIDED BY THE TIMELY USE OF

DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE

With the return of wintry weather there comes again mother's anxiety for the health of her little ones—wet feet and chilled bodies and then croup or severe colds. And what is to be done to prevent serious trouble?

Because it is pleasant to the taste, composed of single ingredients of proven value, and positively free from anything of an injurious nature, Dr Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Tupentine is especially suitable as a treatment for children, and its popularity is due to its wonderful success in the prevention and cure of croup, chest colds and bronchitis.

In the hour of emergency you can depend on Dr Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine to loosen the cough, aid expectation, allay inflammation and bring speedy relief and cure.

This well-known preparation is not a mere cough mixture, but a medicine having thorough and far-reaching action on the whole system and hence its remarkable success.

Mr W C Archibald, Glenelg, Guysboro Co, N S, writes:—"I can say that I have both used and sold Dr Chase's Remedies in my own family. I have found Dr Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine the best remedy for cougns and colds. In the store I have more call for Dr Chase's Remedies than for all the other medicines I keep"

Don't take anything said to be "just as good." There is no throat and lung medicine just as good as Dr Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Remember this when buying, and insist on having Dr Chase's, the portrait and signature of Dr A W Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every bottle, 25 cents a bottle.
