Spy Linked With Baillie Stewart

NEW YORK, Nov 8—A special cable from Helsinki, Finland to the New York Times today says that Mrs. Marie Louise Martin, arrested there in connection with espionage activities discovered with the disappearance of Lieut. Pentikainen, of the Finnish General Staff, is believed to be identical with the "Mary Louise" whose name came up at the Court-martial of Lieut. Norman Baillie Stewart in London last spring. The dispatch reads: Investigations by the secret police indicate that Mrs. Martin had wide-spread connections and had appeared in different countries with false papers. She had Canadian, United States and Finnish passports under different names. Her field of activity lately had been narrowed to Estonia and Latvia. The Estonian police, tracing her associates, arrested her sister, brother and a brother-in-law in Revel. Mrs. Martin is said to have been born in Mitau, Latvia, the daughter of a peasant named Scahul. She and her sister worked as barmaids in Riga. Later Mrs. Martin went to Russia, where she is said to have lived luxuriously. The sister married a German named Deutsch, a cafe owner, at Winjandi, Estonia. The Deutschs gave out that Mrs. Martin was the wife of an American millionaire to explain her sudden affluence. Last August Mrs. Martin flew to Revel from Leningrad, accompanied by certain foreigners whom the police are also seeking. She stayed at a hotel in Revel, leading a gay life, and also sometimes came to Finland. From here she frequently journeyed to Latvia, Estonia, Russia and Germany, and she had previously visited France and Scandinavia. The police traced her connection with agents in Oslo and Copenhagen. With her here was a boy, five years old, who, she said, was her son, and a German nurse.

REMEMBRANCE DAY PROGRAMME—Owing to the incomplete observance of Remembrance Day, as is now decided for 1933, the usual programme of celebrations and ceremonies cannot be carried out in Summerside. The Summerside Branch of the Legion and all ex-service men who desire to associate themselves with a simple ceremony, will assemble at the Armoury at about 10.45 a.m. leaving for the Memorial at about 10.50. The Solemn Two Minutes silence will be observed and a wreath from the Legion laid at the foot of the Monument. S.

DEATH OF MRS. JOHN MCKENZIE—The death of Angelina, widow of the late John McKenzie, occurred at her home on Notre Dame Street, Summerside, on Tuesday, November 7th, at 11 p.m. There are left to mourn two daughters, the Misses Viola and Katie, and one son, Mr. M. L. Frank McKenzie. One daughter, Devona, predeceased her mother some time ago. Many friends throughout the Province will sympathize with the family in their loss. The funeral will take place on Friday from St. Mary's Anglican Church, Summerside, at 2 o'clock. Interment in the People's Cemetery. S.

NORTH BEDEQUE COMMUNITY CLUB—The regular monthly meeting of the North Bedeque Community Club was held on Monday evening, November 7th, the President, Mr. D. B. McDonald, very capably presided. A very interesting entertainment sponsored by Mrs. Norman McMurdo was well carried out. The chief feature of the evening was a lecture by Mr. Thane A. Campbell, K.C., M.L.A., who spoke on his visit to Italy. He spoke of Rome as it was in pagan times and then of Christian Rome and modern Italy. He gave a most interesting discourse on the various places he had visited and described in detail St. Peter's Cathedral, Naples and Venice. He mentioned many of the beautiful works of art to be seen in these cities. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Campbell by the president, Mr. McDonald, on behalf of the Club for his instructive and interesting talk. The enjoyable proceedings closed with the National Anthem. S.

LIBRARY OPENING AT SUMMERSIDE—A special meeting of the Summerside Library Committee was held yesterday afternoon in the library rooms for the purpose of arranging a program for Wednesday, Nov. 15th, when the new Carnegie Library will be opened. It was decided to have the formal opening downstairs in the Court Room at 8 p.m., when Miss Hunt, Regent of the I.O.D.E., will formally hand over the present library to Mayor Manson, who will receive it on behalf of the town. The Premier, Hon. W. J. P. MacMillan, M.D., will then be asked to speak after which Miss Bateson will address the meeting for the Carnegie Library Corporation. The clergy and other speakers will also address the meeting. The ceremony is open to all and after the formal opening the public will be invited to inspect the new books in the library rooms upstairs. Members of the library committee have been very busy rearranging the old books this week. S.

PLAY ENJOYED.—On Monday evening, October 30th the St. Mark's Dramatic Club presented their play, "The Orphan Girl," a four act comedy drama, portraying the many "ups" and "downs" of an orphan, even amongst relatives. But no matter how rejected an orphan may be, she still can find some sympathetic hearts, and amongst those, by a remarkable trend of events, the mysterious orphan discovers her long lost father, also another "friend" whose affections for her promise to make up for what she had suffered at the hands of her haughty relatives. The role of the Orphan Girl was very admirably taken by Miss Marnie Butler. Others taking part in the cast were Wm. McKenna as David Moore; Mrs. Harold McGregor as Mrs. David Moore; Elsie Reilly, as Elizabeth Moore; Harold McGregor, as Jerry Moore; Belle Griffin as Arabella Gossip; Stephen Doyle as John Ryder; Keith Pratt as Rev. Dr. Templeton; Leo Griffin as Wandering Tom; and Ben Theriault, as Mose, a negro servant. The above cast, although baffled by adverse odds, in preparing the play, owing to the almost prevailing inclement weather of the past month, nevertheless are all worthy of special praise for the faithful interpretation of each individual role. In connection with the play, the following program was also carried out: Instrumental music, Messrs. Jerry and Wilfred Dalton, Mrs. Wm. McKenna. Recitation, "Saved," Miss Lorraine Riche; Song "The Rosary," Mr. John E. Cameron; Recitation, "The Organ Builder," Miss Edna Dalton. Step dancing, Mr. Freddy Clements Instrumental Music, Messrs. Jerry and Wilfred Dalton. Political speech "Mr. Schmitz," Mr. Ben Theriault. Mr. Peter J. Bulger acted as chairman for the evening's performance. The management and cast wish to thank all who contributed to make the entertainment a success.—H.

Friends of Mr. R. W. Stewart are pleased to see him about again, after his recent illness.—H.

Past President C.W.L., Honored

Mrs. John F. Kane was hostess on Tuesday evening to members of the Summerside Branch of the C. W. L. at her home, on Summer Street.

The occasion was to honour Mrs. Farnell McMahon, who had been the president of the League since it was organized and who resigned recently as she is leaving the province.

There were about thirty-five members present. Upon the arrival of Mrs. McMahon, who was completely taken by surprise, the following address was read by Miss Dawson: Mrs. Farnell McMahon, President of the Catholic Women's League at Summerside. Signed in behalf of the Catholic Women's League. (Mrs.) Irene Callaghan, President. Dena Gaudet, 1st Vice President. Ida Dawson. Mrs. W. B. McNeill then presented Mrs. McMahon with a lovely leather wardrobe suitcase, the gift of the League. Mrs. McMahon was quite overwhelmed by this mark of appreciation on behalf of her associates and expressed her thanks in a few fitting words assuring the members that the Summerside League would always have a warm spot in her heart and memory. Bridge and whist was then indulged in, after which a most delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by some of the ladies. Before leaving the members wished Mrs. McMahon success and happiness in her new home. Mr. and Mrs. McMahon leave about the middle of the month for Western Canada, the change being necessary on account of the former's health. S.
