BEAUTIFUL HAIR makes every woman beautiful, and all who desire to make the most of their appearance have the opportunity of calling on Mrs. White at the Lennox. Pomps, fronts, bangs, switches in all shades, including white and grey. 2680.

CARLOAD OF FOXES.—A carload of foxes, via the Dominion Express Co., arrived in Moncton on the C.P. R. Saturday afternoon from Edmonton. The foxes are black and patches and mostly for P. E. Island, although a few, it is understood, will be left on the mainland. A cub bear about two weeks old was carried with the valuable cargo. The express age on the shipment amounted to $800.

AN ISLAND PURCHASE,— Capt. J.C. Peters, of Sydney has sold his racing mare Helen R. to Capt. D. A. McKinnon of Charlottetown for the large sum of $1,000. Capt. Peters, who bought her when she was four years old, trained her himself. She made her mark in the Halifax Exhibition races last year when she trotted the mile in 2.19¼. Under the new rules she is eligible for 2.40 class. On the ice last winter she faced the starter six times and was never beaten once. She raced and scored victories over the best horses in Cape Breton, such as Oak Hall, two Cairns, Prince Wilkes, Gallagher, 034, Leland F., 2.11, Meadow Vale Billy, Nick R., Wonoroka Girl, and Nellie.

VISITING FOX RANCHES. — The Executive of the Fox Breeders' Association had an informal conference yesterday afternoon with Dr. Higgins, Pathologist of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, who, as stated in The Guardian yesterday, is in the province to confer with the Government on matters pertaining to his department. There was a general discussion on foxes, recent cases of obscure disease and death in some ranches, etc. Dr. Higgins, on the suggestion of the Executive, decided to visit a number of ranches and left yesterday afternoon for Alberton in company with Mr. Fred L. Rogers, President of the Association. While in the western part of the province he will visit as many of the ranches as time will permit and on his return will visit those in the vicinity of Charlottetown.

WELL MERITED PROMOTION.— Mr. Charles H. Williams, B. S. A., who has for the past two years been resident Horticultusist at Charlottetown, in connection with the Dominion Department of Agriculture, has been promoted to the position of Assistant Superintendent of the Dominion Experimental Farm at Nappan, N. S., and leaves this morning to enter upon his new duties. While heartily congraculating Mr. Williams on his well-merited promotion there will be general regret at his departure as during his residence here he has built a very warm place for himself in the affection and esteem of citizens. He has been a capable and efficient official, popular socially as well at in his official capacity, and his departure is a distinct loss to the city and province. The Guardian unites with hit many Charlottetown friends in wishing him abundant success in his new sphere of labor.

BUSINESS CHANGE

Mr. Richard Grant who has for twenty years conducted the carriage harness and implement business, under the firm name of W. Grant & Co., has owing to ill-health decided to retire from active business. This will in no way interfere with the general conducting of the firm's business, Mr. D. A. Wedlock having taken over the management assisted by Mr. C. W. Seale.

Immediately, the business will be formed into a joint Stock Company with Mr. Grant as president. Mr Wedlock, Manager and Mr. Seale Sec'y-Treasurer,—All the stock in trade, stores, warehouses etc., will be owned and coatrolled by the Company, all book debts notes and etc. will be collected and all liabilities assumed by them.

With Mr. Grant's advice Mr. Wedlack's years of experience in handling practically the same lines and Mr. Seales thorough knowledge of the business, they look forward to increased activity in this one of Charlottetown's most successful firms.

A limited amount of stock will be offered for subscription, intending investors can secure further information by applying at the firms offices.

Old customers as well as new are cordially invited to call and inspect the large stock of carriages, harness, farm wagons, page wire, fencing, deering implements and harvesters, International gasoline engines, cream separators etc., now in their show rooms.

The firm's motto will be as we always have been. "Best Goods at Lowest Prices." "A pleased customer, our best advertisement."
