The final chapter of the Study Book was read by Mrs. M. Godfrey. We learned from this that the church has lived on in China through twelve years of war. As a United church we are also committed to continue our missionary work in China no matter what the government may be. A letter was read by Mrs. Harry Hyde from the Christian Stewardship secretary, asking that we do our utmost to share in the "advance" of our missionary work this year.

The Mission Band reported a successful sale of food, which helps the funds for the Band.

A day in Berwick Camp was reviewed by Mrs. Hazen Howard, who attended as a delegate last year. Mrs. Charman invited the members to her home for the Easter meeting when a general programme will be given.

"In this way about GRO-PUP"

DOGS of all sizes and breeds go for this "smackin' good" food. Fed by kennel owners for sleek coats, strong muscles, sound bones and teeth! (Thrifty, too! Not 70% water like most canned dog foods.) Gro-Pup comes in cubes and meal - your grocer has both!

Gleanings of a Rural District New Glasgow

Miss Jennie Moore returned to her duties as teacher of Anglo Rustico school, after spending a pleasant week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Moore.

Mr. Leith Orr of St. John arrived here on Saturday evening on a short visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Millar Orr, prior to his departure to Calgary, where a valued position awaits him.

In a letter to a couple of his young friends here, Mr. Stanley Orr writes the Calgary air is agreeing with him perfectly, and that he has gained considerable weight since going.

Messrs. Heath Houston and Louis Dolron returned to their respective homes on Thursday after spending a couple of months in Ontario. The boys are satisfied that P. E. Island equals any place they have seen.

Mrs. Millar Orr has to the writer's judgment an exceptionally beautiful cactus. At Christmas time, it was loaded with beautiful flowers, and now it is covered with buds, which will be a thing of beauty by Easter.

Mrs. John Pursey, who is spending the winter months with her daughter, Mrs. Millar Orr, spent an enjoyable evening recently with her friend, Mrs. Ella McCoubrey, who is visiting the Andrew family. Needless to say each enjoyed the company of the other.

Mr. Joseph I. Stewart returned home after a pleasant visit to Boston and other American cities, where he visited his daughter and niece, Mrs. Louis McLeod; also spent some time with his friend Mr. Mace. Mr. Stewart plans to return on a more extensive trip later on, in view of adding additional speed to his stable.

What might have been a tragedy occurred on Friday night while returning from the Tombs-Graham missed reception, Mr. Oliver Cole missed the bushes coming up to Andrews' shore, New Glasgow Mills, and his horse broke through into the channel near there. Mr. Edward Lowther who was following him, succeeded in getting help, thus rescuing the animal from the chilly waters. Thus a warning, keep off the river ice when it is storming, and avoid needless worry.

Mrs. Edwin Stevenson opened her home on Tuesday evening, where a large number of friends gathered to honour Miss Amy Tombs previous to her marriage. To the strains of the wedding march rendered on the organ by Mrs. Lloyd Houston, Miss Helen Kelly escorted the guest of honour to a prettily decorated chair in the living room, while Avonna McAusland and Jimmie Stevenson carried in two laden baskets. Strings were cut by Miss Joyce Warren, and the gifts unwrapped and passed to the bride.
