Buckley Bros London Latest Novelty

New Hats

for the

New Season

You could pay more, and are often asked to pay more for a hat than our popular ($2.50) price, and are offered much less in quality, value and far less distinctiveness in the style. There is a reason for this, but it's one of the inside merchandizing secrets that does not concern a man particularly so long as we live up to our claim to give a man more quality and style for the price we ask than some other hatters have to offer you for a bigger price. This is a good statement to test us on.

Just now our new stock of Men's English and American made hats is complete for the new season. It is a collection that while conforming to the general trend of fashion lines is unique in its exclusiveness in Smart and dressy block, in Siff Felt Hats and Soft Hats in blacks, browns, and other shades, that see light of day here in a variety unexcelled anywhere. Particular Hats for particular dressers was our one thought in selecting the stock and the particular hat to please the individual when he comes to choose is a part of our hat selling creed that we never swerve from. You buy S. A. McDonald's Hats with a guarantee and your money back if you want it.

IN MEMORIAM.

About midnight on April 28th, at his home in DeSable, there peacefully away, after a year's illness of heart failure, Artomas Beer in the 70th year of his age. The late Mr. Beer, being of a jovial and obliging disposition, will be greatly missed in the community to which he belonged. During his trying illness, he was always patient, and died trusting in the merits of his Redeemer. He leaves to mourn a widow, two sons and two daughters—Walter, Albert and Lizzie at home and Mrs. Hector MacKay of DeSable. The funeral, which was largely attended, was held on Tuesday. Services at the house and grave were conducted by his pastor, Rev. W. A. Thomson. The pall-bearers were nephews of the deceased, namely, Philip Beer, Isaac Beer, George Nicholson, Malcolm MacPhail, Bertram Trowbridge and John D. MacFarlane. (Private please copy.)

I WILL NEVER LET GO.

I want to let go,
But I will not let go,
I am sick it is true,
Discouraged and blue,
Worn out through and through,
But I will not let go.

I want to let go,
But I will not let go,
There's a work to be done,
There's a race to be run,
There's a crown to be won,
And I will not let go.

I want to let go,

But I will not let go,
There are battles to fight
By day and by night
For God and the right,
And I will not let go.

I want to let go,
But I will not let go;
I never will yield,
What? lie down on the field
Surrender my shield,
No, I'll never let go.

I want to let go,
But I will not let go,
'Gainst the legions of wrong,
O God make me strong,
That I may never let go.

IN MEMORIAM.

The people of Mill View were startled on the 2nd of May to hear of the unexpected death of Miss Ida May Mallow, of the above place. Although complaining in the forenoon of a slight headache, she performed the duties of the day in her usual manner. About ten o'clock in the evening while in conversation with her sister she raised her hands and without uttering a single word her gentle spirit passed into the "rest that remaineth for the people of God." Years ago she was brought to a knowledge of the truth as it is in Christ Jesus and always lived a quiet Christian life until it pleased God to call her away from the troubles and trials of this life to the home above where sin and sorrow are unknown. At the time of her decease she was in her 48th year, and leaves to mourn three sisters, Mrs. P. Mills and Mrs. Wm. Riggs, Charlottetown, and Emma at home, also four brothers, Henry at home, John T. Millview, Robert at Peake's Station and James in Charlottetown. A large number of people assembled at her home on Saturday, the 5th of May, to show the respect they had for the departed. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Daniel McLean and the remains were interred in the cemetery at Birch Hill. The pall-bearers were: Wm. Coady, Albert Dunphy, Nicholas J. Jenkins, Giles Jenkins, Alexander Drake and Wallace Drake. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth; yea saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."—Com.

All You Need is a Cascaret Tonight

No Sick Headache, Bilious Stomach, Coated Tongue or Constipated Bowels by Morning.

Turn the rascals out—the headache, the biliousness, the indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gas—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse and regulate your stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and that misery-making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.

ZELDA SEARS AT B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE, BOSTON.

Zelda Sears, the late star of "The Nest Egg," Harriet Burt, the prima donna of "The Time, The Place, and The Girl," Trovato, the Filipino Violinist, and the Charles Ahearn Troupe of cyclists, will be among the principal features of a great all-star bill announced for next week at B. F. Keith's Theatre. For her vaudeville engagement Miss Sears has secured one of the funniest and most original comedies ever written. It is entitled "The Wardrobe Woman," and deals with life behind the scenes in a small one-night stand theatre in the far West. The show has "busted up," to use the slang expression, and the company is stranded without a cent to pay for their next meal. In the person of the tough property man of the theatre, Miss Sears has a splendid foil for her peculiar type of humor, and her impersonation of the illiterate but witty wardrobe mistress is a real gem. Harriet Burt has not appeared in Boston in several years. She brings a number of new and novel songs and dances. Trovato, the crazy violinist, will be another great feature. Aside from his marvelous playing, Trovato is the greatest of them all when it comes to selecting a repertoire. He plays everything from grand opera to ragtime. The Charles Ahearn troupe have a most amusing burlesque on a six day bicycle race; the Aeroplane Ladies is a stunning aerial novelty; J. Waldo Connolly and Margaret Webb will present their surprise finish, "A Stormy Hour"; and Sampson and Reilly are known as "The Fashion Plate Entertainers."

Every sportsman interested in the welfare of Canada's fish and game resources should read the May number of Rod and Gun in Canada, published by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont., which contains the first chapter of the Final Report of Mr. Kelly Evans of the Ontario Game and Fisheries Commission. Mr. Evans has spent two years in the preparation of tailed therein and the recommendations which Mr. Evans makes as to a broader policy of administration should be read by every sportsman. "An Ideal Canadian Holiday" will appeal to those who already have visions of a summer outing. Trapshooters will find their interests particularly well looked after in this month's issue which contains in addition to the usual department news spent two years in the preparation of and scores a specially illustrated article by "Canuck" on the Easter Inter-Club Shoots between Montreal and St. Hubert Clubs.

NO HURRY ABOUT THIS JUBILEE CELEBRATION.
OTTAWA, May 7—A proposal that some suitable means be taken for celebrating the completion of the first half-century of confederation has been made to the government. The suggestion has not been considered as yet and there are still five years in which to make arrangements if it is decided to celebrate.
ANOTHER VACANCY IN TRADE COMMISSIONERSHIP.
OTTAWA, May 7—A sixth vacancy in the Canadian trade commissioner service has been created by the retirement of S. A. D. Bertrand, the representative at Brazil. He has been given six months leave and at the end of that time his connection with the department will cease. He was appointed a year ago and came from Winnipeg.
