Lillian Gish Has Powerful Role in "Scarlet Letter"

The stern intolerance of the early Puritans, their hardships and their fanatical opposition to all that savors of pleasure, form the background for Lillian Gish's most startling and dramatic role in "The Scarlet Letter," filmed from Nathaniel Hawthorne's classic, and which is now playing at the Prince Edward Theatre.

The Hawthorne story has been placed on the screen with an amazing fidelity and the feature is of magnitude that lists it among the most important plays of the year.

But the interesting thing is the work of Lillian Gish. She entered on the role with a devout spirit akin to that of the actors in the Passion Play, as for six years she has longed to play the story as a tribute to her Puritan ancestors. So she brings to the role of "Hester Prynne" a breadth of understanding that makes the character absolutely live the tragic story of the woman, walled in by intolerant men, who bore a brand of shame to shield the man she loved. The dramatic climax at the pillow gives her an opportunity to rise to sublime heights in her portrayal.

The story is staged on a lavish scale; a Puritan village full of men, women and children is seen in the dramatic sequences, nearly a thousand people appearing in their quaint Puritan garb, and the cast is well suited to the story. Lars Hanson, the Swedish Barymore, makes his debut in America as "Dimmesdale," the clergyman lover of the heroine, and Henry B. Walthall, once her lover in "Birth of a Nation" plays her Nemesis in a convincing manner. Karl Dane as Giles, the barber surgeon, has an excellent role, and William H. Tucker, Marcelle Corday, Mary Hayes, Jules Cowles, Little Joyce Coad and James A. Marcus complete a well balanced cast.

Two excellent single reel features and a very fine musical programme make a very enjoyable entertainment. See it today or Saturday.

Stellarton Strong in League

STELLARTON, Dec. 22.—Stellarton will have a splendid team in the A.P.C. League this winter. Some excellent hockeyists are working in town and the interest is increasing in hockey. Officials of the Stellarton club say that they will have a winner in G. Diamond, former goalie of the Charlottetown Abbies; Lawley of Glace Bay; Joe Nairn, of Stellarton; Lever, Cape Breton; Alex. MacDonald, leading scorer in the A.P.C. League last year; Cormier and Ferguson, of Pictou; Mss. Charlie Potts, Joe Beaton, Bubbles MacDonald and others.

Have Started Practice

The local boys have started practice and hope to be in good condition when the season opens. The intermediates will also be strong manager to be named shortly.

L. O. C. News

The League of the Cross alleys have taken on their cloak, which is everywhere at this time of the year. The hall is beautifully decorated with chains and bells, and also a very pretty trimmed Christmas tree. The alleys are clean and polished and one entering feels that he is at home. This work reflects great credit on the manager, Gordon Essory and his assistants who do everything possible to make their patrons feel at home. Now is the chance for someone to win their Christmas dinner.

In conclusion the L. O. C. wish to extend to their patrons a Happy Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

"Y" Volleyball

The Business Men came back strong in the second and third games to defeat the Seniors in the match game last night. The Seniors played excellent ball in the first game but failed to hold their positions as well in the last two games. The scores for the games were 8-15, 15-9 and 15-6.

In the second match the Rotary had considerable edge on the Firemen and succeeded in winning the match 15-14 for the first. The scores being well played by both teams and 15-5 for the second.

The teams lined up was as follows:

Business Men Seniors

Bruins' President Says Herber ts Will Be Better Off

BETTER FOR TEAM

BOSTON, Dec. 22.—The much-rumored sale of Jim Herberts became an established fact today with the announcement that the star forward of the Boston Bruins had been sold to the Toronto Maple Leafs for $15,000 cash. The Bruins also acquired rights to the service of Eric Pettinger, centre of the Fort William Canadian Amateur Club finalists with the Toronto Grads in last season's Allan Cup series.

That the sale may have been somewhat of a disciplinary measure was seen in the statement of President Charles F. Adams of the Bruins in announcing the deal.

"We think we have players who will be more in accordance with our team morale and training camp rules than Herberts. Jimmy will be better off in his new atmosphere, that he will be nearer his home, business and family," the club owner said.

Commenting on a Canadian newspaper article that the Bruins were angling for Ralph Weiland of the Minneapolis Central Hockey League club, President Adams announced that the Bruins already have purchased him for delivery in 1928, but that an attempt may be made to bring him to Boston before the new year.

Gene Tunney To Commence Training

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Dec. 22.—Gene Tunney shortly will institute a training campaign in Florida to put himself on "edge" for any necessary defence of his world's heavyweight boxing title.

This was indicated by the champion's announcement on his arrival here yesterday from New York for a two week's vacation. He said he would return to Miami Beach for a protracted stay shortly after the "champions' dinner" to be given in New York January 4th by the Madison Square Garden Club.

He paused to deny reports of his engagement recently, declaring that "when I decide to get married, the news writers will be among the first to know it."

Toronto Grads Win By 10 To 1

WINDSOR, Ont., Dec. 22.—University of Toronto Grads, Canada's candidates for the Olympic hockey carnival, performed here tonight and convinced amateur hockey enthusiasts of their ability to look after the Dominion's laurels. They trounced the Windsor Chicks, local intermediates by a score of 10 to 1.

Dave Trotter was the outstanding star of the invaders. He outskated any man on the ice and collected four points for three goals and an assist. Sullivan, Hudson, Porter, Delany and Paxton, all got in for a share in the scoring spree.

Buy Jack Delaney's Contract

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—The contract for the management of Jack Delaney, former world's lightweight champion, which originally cost Pete Reilly only $900 four years ago, was purchased today by Joe Jacobs of New York, for $50,000.

The deal, announced jointly by Jacobs and Reilly after new contracts had been drawn at the offices of the State Athletic Commission, also included the transfer of the management of Sammy Vogel, New York lightweight. Jacobs, however, declared Delaney was worth the whole price. Delaney's new contract with Jacobs has two years to run while Vogel's has three.

Delaney, who relinquished the light-heavyweight crown several months ago to cast his lot among the heavyweights, will be pushed forward as a challenger for Gene Tunney's title, Jacobs declared.

HORNSBY WINS CASE BROUGHT BY MOORE

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 22.—Roger Hornsby, captain of the New York Giants and former manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, won late today in the suit brought against him by Frank L. Moore, Cincinnati betting commissioner, to collect $76,360.

A jury in circuit court found in Hornsby's favor.

BANQUET TO CHEESE AND BUTTER MAKERS

Given by Provincial Dept. of Agriculture on Tuesday Evening—Presentation of Prizes.

On Tuesday evening the Provincial Department of Agriculture tendered a banquet to the cheese and butter makers of this Province who had been in conference for two days. The banquet was held at the Davies Hotel and it was an enjoyable function, Mrs. Lynds supplying a splendid spread. Hon. W. M. Lea, Minister of Agriculture was the Toast Master.

After the toast to the King had been honoured the guests were introduced by John A. McDonald, Dairy Superintendent. Then followed an address and the presentation of prizes to the butter and cheese makers by Hon. Mr. Lea.

Mr. James Henderson, of the Dominion Grading Staff of Toronto, Ont., and Mr. Morrow, Maritime Dairy Grader, spoke on Federal grading.

Short addresses on the dairy industry were given by Messrs. J. W. Boulter, W. R. Shaw, J. A. Dewar, J. H. Simpson, and J. W. Gibson.

The programme also included solos by Mr. Charles Earle and Miss Fraser, choruses by the banqueters, fifty in all, a dance by Miss Muriel MacDonald and a reading by Dr. Green.

Hon. Mr. Lea in presenting the prizes spoke on the value of the dairy industry and gave facts and figures showing the exceptional market existing today for good dairy cattle, also the demand from parties in the United States for part of Canadian car load lots and graded cows and heifers.

Mr. Henderson spoke on the increase in the quality of dairy products during the last three years. There has been a 35 per cent increase in number of pounds of butter produced.

Mr. Morrow stressed the importance of having the important grades maintained.

Mr. Boulter spoke on dairying and potato growing, Mr. Shaw on community breeding and markets for cattle, Mr. Dewar on the history of dairying, Mr. Gibson on the feeding of cattle, Mr. Simpson on the National Dairy Conference.

Short remarks were made by Mr. Keefe on behalf of the cheese makers, and Mr. Ludlow Jenkins on behalf of the butter makers.

With The Pros

The Toronto Leafs are the goal-less wonders. They haven't scored a goal at the Toronto Arena in their last three starts against Maroon, Ottawa and Detroit, to be exact one hundred and ninety-five minutes of play. Probably if the manager of the Toronto team would teach some of his players the art of being more liberal in their passing, this would not be the case.

From Ottawa comes the report that Frank Ahearn of the Ottawa Hockey Club, turned down an offer of $45,000 for King Clancy from the Montreal Maroons. The fans might have been inclined to believe the story if the same report hadn't stated that Ahearn had also refused $10,000 for "Punch" Broadbent. This would not be the case.

Good old Gauthier, the speed demon of Prince Edward Island. His excellent work with the red and black squad last season has certainly made him solid with the fans and players alike. A clean, fast hockey player who gives his all in the interests of the game.

Hibbert Saunders, Cronin, Spillet, McLellan, Cox, Gordon and many of our other well known rubber runners are also showing much unbusiness. "Give us ice, and make it good and fast," is the unanimous cry of all the boys, who are just a-rarin' to go.

Co-operations, and lots of it from the players and Abergweits management will make Fred Moore one of the best hockey leaders Prince Edward Island ever had—and then some.

"No Argument There"

"The ten clubs in the National Hockey League perform their extravagant in arenas, gardens, columns and forums, which represent in round figures an investment of $15,000,000 in real estate and buildings. The palaces which house the smaller clubs are, of course, less costly, but even though we allow for the remaining 28 only an equal investment with the major league one, certainly a very moderate estimate, that makes $30,000,000 of hard cash, tied up in equally hard ricks mortar and ice. A bet of $30,000,000 that professional hockey is a popular spectacle!

"If $30,000,000 isn't Big Business, when Henry Ford's a piker."

In this breezy fashion, Frederick E. Edwards, in an article, "High Fat Hockey," which appears in the December 15 of Maclean's, makes it very plain that the grand old game of hockey has passed from the schoolboy class to the domain wherein the Mammoths of Muscle—and those who lead them gently along the path of financial righteousness—see to it that spectacular coverings bring in impressive shekels.

Boxing

Joe Irvine, St. John welterweight, who won over Joe Hartnett, formerly of Halifax, at St. John last week is carded to trade wallops with Bill Burns, Jimmy Cox or an equally good opponent in connection with Charlottetown's opening show for the Winter season.

Only a few days ago Irvine handed Johnny Nemis an artistic boxing at Sydney and his fierce punching ability won him recognition as one of Canada's best welters. Nemis won the Maritime welter title by defeating Jack McKenna at Sydney about a year ago. Joe Hartnett, who is listed among Irvine's victims, also conquered McKenna—that is when the present middleweight champ was in the 147 pound class.

The St. John boy, weighing around 150 pounds, is headed for a fistic fame in Canada, and in the vicinity of St. John, where he has been doing much of his fighting the mere mention of his name means a capacity house. His record is impressive, having fought Jack McKenna, Johnny McIntyre, Johnny Nemis, Joe Hartnett, Buddy Lew-Jones, Joe Carbone, Kid Danboise, Joe Goodson, Al Smith, Frankie Anderson, Joe Christensen, Young Palmer and Pal Lorraine.

Bill Burns, who is mentioned as Irvine's opponent here, comes to Charlottetown with an excellent record to prove his worth. His feat in annexing two amateur class titles at the one meet is something seldom equalled while an amateur. Burns won both the welter and middleweight honors in one night. Since turning pro he has been meeting and beating the best that can be procured to meet him. His recent six round knock-out over Benny Gaudet, the well known Montreal welter, proved one of the biggest upsets of the season.

The former Ontario boxer, though but 23 years of age, has had lots of fights, but this will be the first appearance in a Charlottetown ring since the close of his last ten star fight by knockouts, stopping such boys as Benny Gaudet, Barney Grant, Billy Leonard, George Dufour, Cad Walker and Johnny Costello.

Close followers of boxing expect that the versatile Irvine will star out in the lead, but the same experts look to see the young Toronto boxer gradually wear down his rival by persistent effort. Both are hard punchers.

Much interest is being taken in the affair, and a definite announcement will be awaited with interest in addition to the main bout an all star preliminary show will be offered.

Earle Prowse would certainly like to have a pull with the weatherman. If such were the case, Prowse would be on the steel blades every night tapering off for the big games to come. As a back-checker Prowse is hard to beat, and generally speaking, is in the game all the time. He is slated to turn in the game of his career this coming season.

Good old Gauthier, the speed demon of Prince Edward Island. His excellent work with the red and black squad last season has certainly made him solid with the fans and players alike. A clean, fast hockey player who gives his all in the interests of the game.

Hibbert Saunders, Cronin, Spillet, McLellan, Cox, Gordon and many of our other well known rubber runners are also showing much unbusiness. "Give us ice, and make it good and fast," is the unanimous cry of all the boys, who are just a-rarin' to go.
