

THE SUMMERSIDE GUARDIAN

and PRINCE COUNTY CHRONICLE

Western Locals

This column is reserved for news of local interest but advertising of a new nature may be inserted at a special word strictly payable in advance.

—ORDER driving and working harness at Brae's. L-3206-1-2-21.

—AFTER CHRISTMAS use Giant size Kirschen Salts. Taylor Drug Co., Kensington. L-297-11-19-11.

—ORDER HEAVY, well lined horse rugs, special price, at Brae's. L-3206-1-2-21.

—VISITING IN ONTARIO—Mr. Carlyle Waterworth and her two little sons are visiting Mrs. Waterworth's home in Ontario.—S.

—FUE BUYER.—Mr. Justin Rottler of Paris, France, is now at the office of E. Graham Rogers, Summerside, buying silver fox pelts. L-2497-11-19-11.

—DOUBLE HEADER hockey match in the Kensington rink Thursday, Jan. 3rd, at 7:30 p.m. Silver Wings vs. Baltic and Ramblers vs. New Annan. Skating after match. Admission 10 and 20 cents. L-3232-1-2-21.

—ATTENDED FUNERAL—Among those attending the funeral of the late John R. Bowness at Bedouque on New Year's Day from Summerside were Messrs. Frank Armstrong, Dawson, and Heath Strong, K. C.—S.

—BRING PELTS THIS WEEK—Mr. Justin Rottler of Paris, France, will be leaving at the end of this week, so bring in your silver fox pelts immediately and take advantage of this good cash market. Office of E. Graham Rogers, Summerside. L-3830-1-2-31.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HIGHLY ESTEEMED RESIDENT—The death occurred at Campbellton Lot 4, on Dec. 28th 1934, of Douglas Reid, in his 78th year. He had always been in robust health but about four years ago when he was stricken with an illness which forced him to retire from active work, an illness which medical skill and kind nursing could not combat. There are left to cherish his memory a widow, four sons and three daughters. The sons are—Erving, (teacher at Elmsdale), Chester at home, Carl in Montreal and Ira in Charlottetown. One son Eddie was drowned in Port Arthur, Ont., some years ago. The daughters are—Mrs. Nelson Waldron of Tyne Valley; Mrs. Aldem Carver of Vernon River and Miss Ivy of Philadelphia, U.S.A. The funeral services at the home and church were conducted by his pastor Rev. M. D. McLeod. Interment was in the United Cemetery where all the loved ones were laid to rest.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

—NEW YEAR'S DAY AT SUMMERSIDE—1935 dawned bright and clear and many citizens took advantage of the lovely weather to go skating on the pond or snow shoeing over the fields. There were many little family gatherings.

—VISITED SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pogson and their little daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Summerside during the holiday season. Mr. Pogson is principal of the Commercial College in St. John, N. B. He was for many years principal of the Summerside Business College. Mr. and Mrs. Pogson are receiving a cordial welcome from their many friends. They were the guests last Friday at an informal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jolly; and on Monday evening Dr. A. S. Paul's choir and St. Mary's church services were held to celebrate the feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, when large congregation attended.—S.

—HEAVY DRIFTS IN COUNTRY—Mr. Aloysius Roberts, Kinkora was a visitor to Summerside on New Year's eve and reported that there were some heavy drifts in the country and in some places it was difficult for a horse to get along.—S.

PERSONALS

—Mr. Collin Milligan of Portage is a patient in the Prince County Hospital.—S.

—Mr. Herman Maynard of the Royal Bank staff spent the Christmas and New Year vacation at his home in Port Hill.—S.

—Mr. Anthony Williams of the Royal Bank staff spent the holidays at his home in Tyne Valley.—S.

—Mr. Kenneth MacKenzie spent the Christmas vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Frank MacKenzie of Summerside.—S.

—Miss Loretta Arsenault, R. N. of Summerside spent the holiday season at her home in Wellington.—S.

—Mr. Edwin Bernard, a student at Prince of Wales College spent the Christmas vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Bernard of St. Eleanor's.—S.

—Miss Augusta Riley of Travelers Rest is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Harry Jones of Linkletter Road.—S.

—Rev. Dr. Ryan of Windsor, N. S., will have charge of the pastoral care of Trinity United Church, Summerside for the remainder of the Ecclesiastical year.—S.

—Mr. Murley, a student at Montreal College will be the special speaker at the Summerside Presbyterian Church for the next two Sundays.—S.

—The Misses Elsie, Sabina Kathleen and Mary Deighan, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Deighan of Summerside spent New Year at Emerald the guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Deighan.—S.

—Mrs. David Lidstone who has been spending the Christmas vacation with his parents, Mayor Lidstone and Mrs. Lidstone returned Wednesday morning to Acadia University, Wolfville, N. S.—S.

—Mr. Everett Glover and Miss Harriet Glover of Norboro were in Hunter River Wednesday attending the funeral of Mrs. Donald Andrews.—S.

—Mr. John Andrews of Norboro and Mr. Sterling Andrews of Fredericton were in Hunter River Wednesday attending the funeral of Mrs. Donald Andrews.—S.

—Miss Irma Davidson and Miss Mildred Huestis were guests during the holiday season of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, Charlottetown.—S.

—The Misses Dorothy and Faustina Gaudel of Summerside were visitors to Charlottetown this week to visit their sister Mrs. Huestis.—S.

—Rev. Mr. Pearce who has been conducting the services in Trinity United Church, Summerside for the past two weeks has returned to Charlottetown. During his stay he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Huestis.—S.

—Mrs. Walker Curley of Free-town had the misfortune to run a needle into her hand and was brought to the Prince County Hospital where it was removed. Mr. Curley returned to her home the following day.—S.

—It is pleasing to report that Miss Myrtle, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Murphy of Kinkora is doing nicely after her operation at the Prince County Hospital.—S.

—Mr. Arthur J. Ready, electrician, has been named by the contractor of the electric system of Kensington, inspector of the system, and will always be "ready" to supply all deficiencies or needs.—Y.

—Mr. Russell Mathews of Alberton was a recent passenger to Summerside.

—Mr. Bruce McKendrick of Alberton is spending the week end in Summerside.

—Mr. Thomas Cass and Mr. Alvin Jeffrey of the P. E. I. Telephone Co. at Alberton, were passengers to O'Leary on the 29th to repair damage done to the lines by the recent storm.

—Electric light lines around Alberton were severely damaged by recent snow storms, as a result of which the town was in darkness on the night of Dec. 27th. However the linemen were on the job early next morning, discovering the cause of the trouble to be a large tree which had been blown across the line by the snow storm of the previous night.

—Mr. Howard Clark and Mr. Emerson Mathews of Alberton were passengers to Summerside Saturday morning to dispose of some of their silver bullets.

—Mr. Clarence Bowness of Montserrat who has been visiting in Summerside, has returned home.

—Miss Lena Rayner of Summerside has been visiting friends and relatives in Alberton.

—Mrs. James Gleason of Coleman spent the Christmas season with her mother, Mrs. E. I. Rayner of Alberton.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the last few years. It is not an indication that times are improving.

—Store keepers in Alberton report their Christmas trade better this year than it has been for the